If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

6. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

a. Medical. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent time shall attend the appointment. If it is emergency care, both parents shall be able to attend the care.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Changing Parent-Time. There shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing. The parents shall not talk to the child about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change. This subsection does not limit the flexibility afforded to the child under Paragraph 5(a).

7. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209.

8. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

9. Online Calendar. The parties shall use an online calendar to communicate activities of the child. Mother shall send an invite to Father within 14 days of the stipulation. Both parties shall have the ability to edit the calendar. Both parties shall list the important events of the child on the calendar, which shall constitute the notice requirement as designated herein.

10. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

11. Travel.

a. When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

i. An itinerary of travel dates;

ii. Destination;

iii. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;

iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

12. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

13. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

14. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

15. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any child's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

16. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

17. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

18. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the shared calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

19. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

20. Transportation for the Child. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

21. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent will be with the child by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

22. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $6,542 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $8,096 per month. Mother has 177 overnights and Father has 188 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. Father's child support obligation shall be $2 per month. Child support shall commence October 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

23. Allowance to Minor Child. Each party shall pay the sum of $150.00 per month directly into an account for the benefit of the child. If the child begins part-time employment, the parties shall confer in good faith regarding whether the monthly amount shall be adjusted and, if so, the appropriate amount each party shall contribute.

24. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Father is currently providing said insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

24. Childcare Expenses. Childcare expenses are not expected due to the age of the child.

25. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

b. Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

26. Taxes.

a. Taxes for 2021. Father has represented that the current tax debt for tax year 2021 is the result of a clerical error by a financial institution and that he is in the process of having the error corrected. In the event any tax liability remains due for tax year 2021, Father shall make the required minimum payments until the remaining balance is paid from the proceeds of the sale of the marital residence.

b. Taxes for 2024-2025. The parties have outstanding tax liabilities for tax years 2024 and 2025. Mother's wedding ring shall be sold, and the net proceeds from the sale shall be applied toward payment of those tax liabilities. If the sale proceeds are insufficient to satisfy the tax liabilities in full, the parties shall each be responsible for one-half (1/2) of the remaining balance. If the sale proceeds exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the tax liabilities, Mother shall be awarded any remaining proceeds. Taxes for 2025 shall be filed on or before October 15, 2026.

c. Taxes for 2026. The parties will file separate tax returns for 2026.

27. Real Property.

a. Upon the graduation of the minor child, the parties are selling their home for a reasonable market value price.

b. Father is awarded use of the home until it sells and will make mortgage payments, HELOC payments, utility payments, and any other applicable payments associated with the use of the home commencing October 1, 2026. Father shall reasonably maintain the condition of the home.

c. The parties shall select a real estate agent no later than April 1, 2028. Father shall give Mother three names for Real Estate Agents and Mother shall choose one within 14 days of receipt. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent.

d. The parties shall each be responsible for one-half of the cost of any repairs or improvements to the marital residence that are agreed upon by the parties or otherwise recommended by the real estate agent in connection with the sale of the property. If either party is unable to pay his or her one-half share when due, the other party may advance that amount and shall be reimbursed from the nonpaying party's share of the sale proceeds at closing.

e. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the parties will split the net equity. The proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

iii. Third, the HELOC shall be paid;

iv. Fourth, any remaining tax debt for tax years 2021 through 2025 shall be paid;

v. Fifth, Father shall be reimbursed for the portion of mortgage payments and the HELOC payments made by him after October 1, 2026, that was applied toward reduction of the principal balance of the mortgage and of the principal balance of the HELOC;

vi. Thereafter, the equity is equally divided between the parties.

c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt sall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
