Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: DANIELLE OLSCHEWSKI, Petitioner, and JOSHUA OLSCHEWSKI, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE and JUDGMENT Case No. 264900611 Judge: Jeff Mann Commissioner: Kim Luhn

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Court pursuant to the parties' Stipulation ("stipulation" or "agreement") and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Jurisdiction of the Court and Grounds were established by the declaration and stipulation filed with the Court. The Court has reviewed the parties' agreement and approves of the same. The Court, now being fully advised in the premises, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and for good cause showing, makes its order as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Residency and Jurisdiction. Danielle is a resident of Salt Lake County, Utah, and has been so for at least three months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

2. Marriage Information. The parties wed on May 14, 2016, in Wasatch County, Utah.

3. Grounds for Divorce. During the course of this marriage, the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences, making continuation of the marriage relationship impossible. A decree of divorce shall be entered, dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

4. Minor Children. Two minor children have been born as issue to this marriage, namely: J.S.O., born July 2017, and O.W.O., born March 2020.

5. General Jurisdiction. This Court has general jurisdiction over this matter, pursuant to Utah Code § 78A-5-102 (all civil matters).

6. Personal Jurisdiction. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties, pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-3-205 (all domestic matters).

7. Venue. Venue is proper in this Court, pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-405(venue).

8. Home State Jurisdiction. The minor children have lived in Utah for at least six (6) consecutive months immediately before the commencement of this child custody proceeding. Utah is the minor children's home state, pursuant to the Utah Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Accordingly, this Court has jurisdiction to make initial child custody determinations with respect to the minor children.

9. Child Support Jurisdiction. This Court has jurisdiction to enter child support orders, pursuant to Utah Code §§ 81-6-101 et seq. (Utah Child Support Act) and Utah Code §§ 78B-14-101 et seq. (Utah Uniform Interstate Family Support Act).

10. Custody. The parties shall have joint physical custody of the minor children pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-303 with Mother being deemed the custodial parent. The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor children pursuant to the Parenting Plan below.

11. Parenting Plan. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-203, the following Parenting Plan shall govern the parties' custodial relationship and rights of parent-time with their minor children.

A. Parenting Time. Parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, parent-time shall follow Utah Code § 81-9-303 with Mother being designated as the custodial parent. If the parties do not agree otherwise, Father's midweek parent-time shall be every Thursday beginning after school and ending upon the children's timely return to school on Friday morning. If school is not in session, Father's Thursday parent-time starts at 5:30 p.m. and ends at 8:00 a.m. Father shall exercise parent-time every other weekend, beginning after school on Friday and ending on Monday upon delivering the minor child to school or at 8:00 a.m. if school is not in session.

(i) Drop-off and Pick-Up. Unless the parties agree otherwise, exchanges shall be done via pick-up or drop off to school when school in session, but if school is not in session, then they shall be curbside. When a parent-time exchange occurs curbside the party ending their parent-time shall remain within the threshold of their residence and the party picking up the minor children shall remain in their vehicle. The parties shall share equally the necessary cost and responsibilities for transporting the minor children between them for parent-time purposes.

(i) Summer Parent-time. Mother shall be allowed to have two weeks of uninterrupted extended parent-time during the summer break/off-track time. Father shall have two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time, and two weeks of interrupted parent time pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-303. Mother shall have first choice of extended parent-time in all even-numbered years. Mother shall provide Father the dates of her extended parent time by April 1, and then Father shall provide the dates of his extended parent-time to Mother by April 15. Father shall have first choice of extended parent-time in all odd-numbered years. Father shall provide Mother with the dates of his extended parent- time by April 1, and then Mother shall provide the dates of her extended parent time to Father by April 15. Extended parent time shall not be scheduled to include holidays that are awarded to the other parent.

(ii) Holiday Parent-time. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the parties shall follow the holiday schedule set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302. For purposes of the application of the holiday statute, Mother shall be deemed the "custodial parent."

(iii) Tardies. If either of the children have more than 5 tardies during Father's parent-time from the date when the school year begins through Christmas break, Father automatically loses his weekday parent-time until after school resumes in January. In such an instance, Father's parent-time would be every other weekend from Friday after school to Monday morning. If either of the children have more than 5 tardies during Father's parent-time from the first day of school in January through the end of the school year in May, Father loses his weekday parent-time until school is out for the summer. In such an instance, Father's parent-time would be every other weekend from Friday after school to Monday morning.

b. Surrogate Care/Right of First Refusal. Parental care is preferable to surrogate care. If a party has a need for surrogate care or would leave the minor children unattended for more than four (4) hours (if they are otherwise personally unavailable), the party needing surrogate care shall give the other parent the first opportunity to provide care for the minor children. All the transportation for the minor children is the reasonability of the parent exercising the right of first refusal. The right of first refusal ends when the parent exercising parent-time is available to take the children again.

c. Decision Making. The parties shall consult with each other if the minor children are experiencing school problems, emotional concerns, or other problems. The parties shall make joint decisions regarding the minor children on significant issues, such as education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either party may make emergency health and safety decisions for the minor children and shall inform the other party as soon as practicable of the nature of the emergency and of the decision made. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, custody and control of the minor children shall be made by the parent who has physical custody at the time.

d. Dispute Resolution. If the parties disagree on a major decision concerning the minor children, the parties shall use the following decision-making procedure as their guide:

(i) The parties shall identify and raise the issue with the other party;

(ii) The parties shall research the issue and possible solutions related to the issue and listen to and understand each other's perspective;

(iii) The parties shall brainstorm all possible solutions related to that specific issue, including consulting any necessary and appropriate professionals (doctors, teachers, dentists, religious leaders, etc.), and each party shall share his/her opinion about the best resolution; and

(iv) The parties shall use the most sensible resolution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved, particularly the minor children, in an attempt to reach a "win win" solution.

e. Tie Breaking Procedure. If the parties cannot reach a consensus regarding a major parenting decision, Mother shall have final say but either parent can bring the issue before the court.

f. School Districts. Mother's residence shall be considered the primary residence for the purpose of determining the school district for the children.

g. Extracurricular Activities. The parties will share equally the cost of any extracurricular activities that have been agreed upon in writing.

h. Communications Regarding the Minor Children. The parties shall communicate directly with each other regarding the minor children and shall remain civil in all their future dealings. The parties shall respond to each other within a reasonable time frame.

i. Our Family Wizard. The parties shall each pay for and utilize our Family Wizard for all communication regarding the minor children. Text messaging/calling is only appropriate in the case of an emergency.

j. Respectful Co-Parenting. The parties shall avoid making harmful, insulting, or denigrating comments regarding the other party in the minor children's presence and shall use their best efforts to prevent others from doing so. The parties shall accommodate the minor children's need to have quality relationships with extended family members, and to facilitate the minor children's attendance at significant family functions.

k. Sharing of Information. Both parties shall provide each other with current residential and mailing address, telephone numbers and email address within twenty-four (24) hours of any change. The parties shall share the minor children's schoolwork, report cards, school pictures, and other information relating to the schooling and extracurricular activities of the minor children with the other party. Further, each party shall take affirmative steps to share information regarding the times and locations of parent-teacher conferences, school programs, church programs, sporting events, recitals, performances, practices, and other significant events involving the minor children.

l. Access to Information. Both parties shall have equal access to the minor children's school, medical, dental, and psychological records; this Parenting Plan shall constitute a release to allow each parent said access.

m. Document Exchange. Within 7 days of the signing of the Stipulation Father will provide Mother will any necessary documents to enroll the minor children in Medicaid. This includes but is not limited to front and back pictures of their social security cards.

n. Traveling with the Minor Children. If a party will be away from his or her established residence with the minor children for more than 24 hours, the traveling party shall provide to the other the following information at least one week before the intended travel: (1) an itinerary of travel dates, (2) destinations, (3) places where the minor children or traveling parent can be reached, and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor children's location. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold consent for international travel with the minor children and each party shall cooperate fully to provide passports and other travel documents and/or permissions required for agreed international travel.

o. Relocation. If either party moves 150 miles or more from their residence contemplated at the time of entry of the divorce, the relocating party shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent and comply with all provisions outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209. The written notice shall conform to the requirements of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 in all regards.

p. Drug Testing.

(i) If Mother suspects that Father is using illegal substances or non-prescribed prescription drugs, or abusing prescription drugs, she may request that Father submit to a hair follicle test.

(ii) Once requested, the drug test must be completed within 24 hours. If the drug test is not completed within 24 hours, it will be considered positive for illegal drugs. Mother will pay the initial cost of any drug test(s).

(iii) Father shall instruct the testing facility to release copies of the results to Mother, and Father shall execute any release forms required by the testing facility to effectuate this release of results.

(iv) If the drug test comes back positive for illegal drugs or any un-prescribed prescription drugs, or elevated levels of prescription drugs above that prescribed, then Father shall reimburse Mother for the cost of the test within 14 days of Mother providing Father the receipt.

(v) If Father tests positive for any illegal drug, any controlled substance for which he does not possess a valid prescription, any prescription medication not prescribed to him, or prescription medication at levels exceeding the prescribed dosage, Father's parent-time shall immediately be restricted to supervised parent-time. Such supervision shall be provided by an agreed upon third party.

q. Advisory Guidelines. The provisions of the Advisory Guidelines, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202, shall be binding on the parties.

12. Child Support. For child support purposes only, Joshua shall be imputed to a gross monthly income of $7,700.00. Danielle shall be imputed to a gross monthly income of $1,200.00 In accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-203, Joshua shall pay child support to Danielle in the amount of $1,043 per month. Danielle may opt to register her support award with the Office of Recovery Services.

13. Termination of Child Support. Unless the court orders otherwise, support for the minor children terminates at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the minor child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code § 78A-6-801 et seq.

14. Medical and Insurance Costs: The parties shall be responsible for providing health insurance for the benefit of the minor children. The parties agree that they will take all the necessary steps to get the children insured with Medicaid. Both parties will provide signatures, exchange documents and/or take any other necessary steps to properly enroll the children in Medicaid. Specifically, Joshua shall provide Danielle with pictures (front and back) of the children's social security cards within 7 days of the signing of this document. If applicable, each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical and dental insurance premium actually paid for the minor children's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in U.C.A. § 81-6-208.

15. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-208(9), at any time when the parties are sharing the cost of the health insurance premium, the minor children's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in coverage.

16. Both parties shall share equally in all uninsured routine medical and dental expenses [including but not limited to one-half of expenses for surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, physical therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma] as well as other reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor children, in accordance with Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208.

17. Both parties shall ensure that in-network providers that are covered by the insurance coverage are used for the children. If a party uses an out-of-network provider, they shall get the permission of the other party first, or they shall be solely responsible for any costs.

18. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment.

19. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party that incurred the expense.

20. A party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to provide the above verification within the thirty-day (30) time period.

21. Notice to Medical/Dental Expense Creditors. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7, § 81-3-105, and § 81-4-501, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-501, § 81-4-204, or §81-6-208, or an administrative order under § 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a party who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that party under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code § 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a party who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the party under the order.

22. Therefore, each party shall:

a. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to the creditor of the particular medical expense of the particular minor child;

b. Notify the particular creditor of that party's current address;

c. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that party under the order and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under §70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14 Credit Information Exchange, regarding a party who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that party under the order.

23. Each party shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

24. The party who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party, upon initial enrollment of the minor children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

25. The party who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

26. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-208(7)(a), if at any time a minor child is covered by Medicaid and Joshua's insurance plan, Medicaid shall be considered the primary insurance coverage, and Joshua's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan shall be considered secondary insurance coverage.

27. Childcare: The parties shall be ordered to pay one-half of any and all reasonable, work-related childcare expenses provided by a childcare provider incurred for the minor children as provided in U.C.A. §81-9-209.

28. The parties shall share equally the children's school costs including registration fees. The parties shall also work together to cover any additional agreed-upon cost for the children (this may include, if the parties agree, phones, car insurance, vehicles, etc.)

29. Alimony. As part of a global settlement, Danielle shall forgo an alimony award. However, Joshua's past-due child-support and alimony arrearages are still owing in the amount of $15,019.00.

30. Due Date of Payments. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-7-102, child support shall be payable one-half (½) by the fifth (5th) day of each month and (½) by the twentieth (20th) day of that month, unless mandatory withholding is implemented by ORS or the parties agree to a different date and time in writing.

31. Real Property. The marital residence located at 12292 South Emory Peak Cove, Herriman, Utah, shall be sold, with the parties equally splitting net equity only after; 1) the payment of realtor fees; closing costs; and any other necessary expenses; and 2) repaying Danielle $18,000 for the mortgage payments to prevent foreclosure. Then after the parties have split any remaining equity, Father shall 3) pay Mother all of her past due alimony and child support arrearages from June -September, 2026 totaling $15,019.

32. Joshua shall continue to be responsible for the mortgage payments on the house until it sells. This includes any interest accrued or fees stemming from late payments.

33. Schedule for the Sale of the Home. The listing price for the home located at 12292 South Emory Peak Cove, Herriman, Utah, shall be reduced to $850,000.00 dollars on the date of the signing of the Stipulation. If the home is not sold in one month's time, the listing price shall decrease by three (3) percent. This three (3) percent price reduction shall occur every month until the home located at 12292 South Emory Peak Cove, Herriman, Utah is sold.

34. Reasonable Offers on the Home. If a reasonable offer is made on the home located at 12292 South Emory Peak Cove, Herriman, Utah, the parties are obligated to accept it. For the purposes of this provision only, reasonable shall mean an offer that is within five (5) percent of the asking price at the time an offer is made.

35. If the home located at 12292 South Emory Peak Cove, Herriman, Utah, sells and there is still an amount owing to the mortgage lender, Joshua is responsible for any remaining balance. Danielle shall be indemnified and held harmless from any remaining balance on the home.

36. In the instance that there is not enough equity available, after the home is sold, to make the schedule of payments outlined in Paragraph 34, any amount still outstanding for the realtor fees, closing costs or other expenses incurred in the sale of the home shall be paid for by Joshua entirely.

37. In the instance that there is not enough equity remaining to pay the remaining balance owed to Danielle for the cost of the getting the home out of foreclosure, Joshua has 6 months from the date of the signing of this Stipulation to repay Danielle the $18,000. If Joshua does not make that payment within 6 months, Danielle may file a Motion to Enforce and request that the Court order a judgment against him. Joshua shall reimburse Danielle for any attorney's fees incurred in the process.

38. Judgment. In the instance that there is not enough equity for Joshua to pay Danielle all of his past due support arrearages totaling $15,019.00. A judgment shall be entered in favor of Danielle and against Joshua in the amount of $15,019.00 for past-due child support and alimony arrearages.

39. This judgment is for unpaid child support and alimony arrearages and is a domestic support obligation. It is not dischargeable in bankruptcy.

40. This judgment may be enforced and collected by the Utah Office of Recovery Services (ORS) by any means available under state and federal law. These include income withholding, interception of state and federal tax refunds, liens, and other administrative and judicial remedies. All payments on this judgment shall be made through ORS, and ORS records shall be the official record of payments received.

41. If Joshua is unable to pay Danielle from his portion of the home equity, in addition to ongoing current child support, Joshua shall pay $1,000.00 per month toward this judgment, beginning from the date of the sale of the home, until the judgment, including any accrued interest, is paid in full. The existence of a monthly payment schedule shall not limit

ORS's ability to use any available collection remedy, including tax refund intercepts. Also, the entire unpaid balance becomes immediately enforceable if any payment is missed.

42. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of this judgment at the legal post-judgment rate from the date of entry until paid in full.

43. Non-Retirement Financial Accounts. Each party shall keep their individual financial accounts. For any remaining monies left in joint accounts, those funds shall be split equally, and the accounts shall be closed within 30 days of the signing of this stipulation.

44. Retirement. The parties shall each keep their separate retirements accounts free and clear from any claim by the other party.

45. Business Interests. There are no business interests subject to division.

46. Personal Property. Within 14 days of the signing of this Stipulation, Danielle shall be permitted to go to the marital home at 12292 South Emory Peak Cover at a time and date that the parties mutually agree upon. The home shall be unlocked, and Joshua shall not be present, but Joshua's Mom shall be present at the home. Danielle is permitted to take "Pee Pee Poo Poo" the cat, but will leave Tractor Jack with Joshua. Danielle is permitted to take her YSL bag, her chicken feet picture frame, her antique mirror, and both of her silver rings. Danielle shall not take any items not specifically listed herein.

47. Vehicles. Each party shall be awarded their own car and any outstanding debts associated therewith shall follow. As such, Daneille shall be awarded her Volkswagen Tiguan free and clear from any claim by Joshua. Joshua shall be awarded his Telsa Model Y and his Toyota Tundra free and clear from any claim by Danielle. If Danielle is on the title of either of those cars, Joshua shall obtain a transfer of title, or other documents required by the Department of Motor Vehicles, and Danielle will sign any necessary documents to remove her from the title of the Tesla Model Y or the Toyota Tundra. All debts associated with the Toyota Tundra and the Tesla Model Y belong to Joshua and, if need be, he will refinance the loan within 90 days to remove Danielle. Danielle shall be held harmless and indemnified from any such debts associated with either of Joshua's vehicles.

48. Debts and Obligations. Danielle agrees to be solely responsible for the debt associated with her Mountain America Credit Card totaling approximately $28,650.

49. All of the parties' other debts, including but not limited to Joshua's AMEX Credit Card ending in 81004; Joshua's Barclay Credit Card ending in 3224; Joshua's Costco Citi Bank Credit Card ending in 0511; Joshua's Mountain America Credit Card ending in 2141; Joshua's Apple Credit Card ending in 6991; Joshua's Mountain America Credit Union student loan; Joshua's student loan with Klarna; and Joshua's personal business loan with Stellar Senior Care shall be the sole responsibility of Joshua and Danielle shall be indemnified and held harmless from any such debts. Danielle shall be free from any loss and/or liability associated with such debts. For any of aforementioned accounts in which Danielle is an authorized user, including but not limited to Joshua's AMEX Credit Card account and his Barclay Credit Card, Joshua shall take all of the necessary steps to remove Danielle as an authorized user within 7 days of the signing of this stipulation. Joshua shall provide proof to Danielle that he has removed her as an authorized user within 7 days of the signing of the Stipulation.

50. Child Tax Credit. The parties shall share equally in claiming the minor children for tax purposes. When there are two minor children, Mother shall be entitled claim S.O., and Joshua shall be entitled to O.O., in each and every year. When there is one minor child, Mother shall be entitled to claim the minor in even years and Father shall be entitled to claim the minor child in odd years.

51. Prior Year Taxes. For 2026 tax year, the parties shall file taxes separately.

52. Credit and Likeness. Neither party shall incur any debt in the name of the other party or incur debt that the other party will be responsible for. Each party shall hold the other harmless from liability or debt incurred after the parties separated. Neither party will use the other party's name, Social Security number, identification, likeness, or credit, or that of the minor child.

53. The parties shall be bound by to the following mutual restrains:

a. Both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of any children; speaking to any children about the issues in this case; attempting to influence any children's preference regarding custody or visitation; or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent.

b. Both parties shall also be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

c. Both parties shall communicate with each other in a civil manner at all times. Except for the completion of the division of the parties' marital estate, the parties communication shall be limited to concerns related to the minor children.

d. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

e. Neither party shall drink to the level of intoxication, use any illicit substance, or otherwise abuse a mind-altering drug at all the times the minor children are in their custody, control, and care.

54. Attorney Fees. The parties are each responsible for his or her respective attorney fees, without contribution or assistance from the other party.

55. Maiden Name. Danielle can return to the use of her maiden name "Danielle Wilson" if she so chooses, without further court order.

56. Resolution of Future Disputes. Actions to enforce any term of the Decree of Divorce shall not be subject to the requirement to mediate before seeking court remedies. If a party is forced to bring a Motion to Enforce and prevails therein, the noncompliant party shall pay all reasonable attorney fees.

57. Mutual Cooperation and Execution. Each party shall cooperate with the other through counsel or otherwise to effect changes in title(s) within thirty (30) days of entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter unless otherwise set forth above, to effect changes in property to be distributed, to change the names and responsibilities for payment on the charge accounts and other debts allocated between the parties, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary and proper to ensure that the terms of the Decree of Divorce are carried out in every detail. Each party shall sign any and all documents necessary to implement all of the terms and conditions as set forth above.

58. Complete Disclosure. The parties acknowledge that each has fully and completely disclosed to the other all assets of every kind and nature known to him or her in which he or she may have any interest whatsoever, and that the Stipulation encompasses and deals with all such assets and that there are no assets or liabilities contingent or otherwise that have not been disclosed in connection with the final settlement of this matter and as herein set forth and to be distributed between the parties. If an asset is discovered that was not disclosed prior to entry of the Decree of Divorce and the asset is determined to be marital property, the asset or its value shall be awarded to the party who shall have received notice of said asset. If a liability was incurred and that liability was not disclosed, the Court has the power to order the party who incurred the liability to be solely responsible for the same.
