Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR TOOELE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: Elizabeth D. Robinson, Petitioner, and Dustin M. Robinson, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE CIVIL NO. 254300583 JUDGE L. DOUGLAS HOGAN COMMISSIONER RENEE BLOCHER

The above-captioned matter came on regularly for consideration by the court without hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement and Parenting Plan ("Agreement") a judgment for a divorce shall be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

2. Minor Children. The parties have three (3) minor children born as issue of their marriage, each of whom are still minors, namely: LR, born August 29, 2017, AR, born February 14, 2019, and ER, born February 16, 2022.

3. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case. Utah is the home state for the minor children and/or is the most convenient forum for custody decisions because no other state has jurisdiction.

4. Parenting Plan. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-203, et. seq, the parties shall implement the objectives and goals of the parenting plan as set forth below:

PARENTING PLAN

5. Custody. It is in the minor children's best interests for the parties to be awarded joint legal and joint physical custody of the children.

6. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. If after engaging in a meaningful discussion with each other about a major decision the parties do not mutually agree, the parties will seek the advice of an expert in the field (e.g., Doctor for medical decision). If they cannot come to an agreement after obtaining input from an expert relevant for that particular decision, the parties will participate in mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator with the parties equally dividing the cost of mediation. In the event the parties are still unable to agree regarding the children after following the dispute resolution process herein, neither party will have final say and either party may file a motion with the Court to have the issue addressed accordingly within a reasonably short period of time after mediation. While the dispute resolution process above may help facilitate meaningful discussions, neither party will have authority to permit the minor children to have body piercings unless both parties mutually consent. Neither party may permit the minor children to have sleepovers outside the parties' homes unless both parties mutually consent. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care. Each party shall have the right to treat the children for emergency medical needs, and will provide the other party notice of the emergency as soon as reasonably possible.

7. Physical Custody/Parent Time. Elizabeth shall be awarded primary physical custody of the children with Dustin exercising parent-time as the parties can agree. If the parties are unable to agree, Dustin will exercise parent-time as follows:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Elizabeth overnight	Elizabeth overnight	Elizabeth overnight	Dustin overnight	Dustin overnight	Dustin - overnight	Dustin until 7pm Elizabeth overnight
Elizabeth overnight	Elizabeth	Elizabeth overnight	Dustin overnigh	Dustin to drop off	Elizabeth	Elizabeth

	overnig ht		t	all 3 children at Elizabeth's by 8 am	overnig ht	overnig ht

8. For a period of three years after entry of the Decree, either party shall have the right to seek modification of the above parent-time schedule on the basis of the children's best interests, with no requirement to show a substantial and material change.

9. The parties shall both be responsible to ensure that the children arrive at school on time during their respective parent-time.

10. The parties have agreed that in exercising their parent-time, each shall have the right to designate and set aside two weekends each year to exercise one-on-one parent-time with each child. The parties' designations must avoid interfering with the other's holiday and vacation time and reasonably avoid interfering with those events to which the parties must give special consideration in having the minor children to attend. Dustin shall be allowed to make his designations first in odd numbered years and Elizabeth shall be allowed to make her designations first in even numbered years. On or before March 1 each year, the parent making the designation first will provide such to the other parent. On or before March 15th, the parent making the designation second will provide such to the other parent. If either parent misses their designation deadline, then the first party to designate is awarded their designated time.

12. The parties have implemented, as applicable, the statutory advisory guidelines set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202 herein. Any paragraphs contained in the Advisory Guidelines and not specifically incorporated herein are not applicable to these parents.

13. Summer and Extended Parent Time Notification. Dustin shall be allowed to request his vacation days first in odd numbered years and Elizabeth shall be allowed to request her vacation days first in even numbered years. On or before April 1st, the parent choosing his/her vacation first, shall provide his/her vacation time of choice to the other parent. On or before April 15th, the parent choosing his/her vacation second, will provide his/her vacation time of choice to the other parent (and cannot take the weeks already designated by the first choosing parent). If either parent misses their designation deadline, then the first party to designate shall be awarded their designated time. Summer holidays take precedence over extended parent time.

14. Right of First Refusal. In the event a party is unable to personally care for the minor children for overnight, that party shall offer the other party the opportunity to provide the child-care before surrogate child-care is secured. The party exercising the right of first refusal shall provide transportation to exercise the parent-time. In the event the children desire to have an occasional sleepover with friends or family members, the right of first refusal will not apply, so long as the parent is still available.

15. The parties shall cooperate and work together for the best interest of the children in making joint decisions regarding the children. The parties shall inform each other when issues arise regarding the children and will do so within a reasonable period of time, prior to making significant legal-custody decisions regarding the children. Both parties shall be afforded the opportunity to gather and exchange information that would be helpful in making a decision and present that information to the other party. The parties shall then work together to make a decision within a reasonably short period of time, relative to the timeline presented by the urgency of the issue. The dispute resolution process set forth in paragraph 6 shall be followed by the parties.

16. Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all religious, educational and medical records of the children. Each party shall be listed as a parent for the purposes of school/daycare contact or medical care provider contact. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities and other contact information that allows the other parent to participate in the children's lives. Both parents agree to provide notice to the other parent of issues relating to any illness or accident or other circumstance that affects the children's health and welfare, as soon as reasonably possible. Both parties shall have open access to contact the necessary persons or entities so that the party will be notified of significant activities of the children, whether related to education, sports, arts, extra-curricular activities, church or other activities and events in which the children participate so that both parents may attend or participate.

17. The parties agree that the following provisions are in the best interest of the parties' minor children, and the parents agree to follow them as part of the parents' Parenting Plan:

a. The visitation and parent-time schedules as set forth herein shall be adhered to in order to maximize the continuity and stability of the life of the parties' minor children.

b. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the parties' minor children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the lives of the parties' minor children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

c. Neither party may denigrate the religious choices of the other parent. Each parent will respect the religious beliefs and desires of the children.

d. The parent commencing parent time shall be responsible for the transportation of the minor children. Parent time exchanges shall occur at school pick up/drop off when possible. In the event parent time exchanges occur at either parent's home, the exchange shall occur curbside or in the driveway.

e. The children's clothing and items they bring with them for parent time shall be returned with them at the conclusion of each parent-time visit.

f. The delivering parent shall have the minor children ready at the time they are to be picked up.

g. If due to emergency circumstances, a parent will be late or is unable to be present to pick-up or deliver the children, then that parent shall notify the other as soon as possible to advise them and make appropriate alternate arrangements.

h. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-order.

i. Each parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parents shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.

j. Each parent shall provide the other with a current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.

k. Each parent shall be awarded liberal unmonitored telephone and virtual parent-time, with the minor children during reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration taking into account the minor children's respective schedules. The children will be allowed to call either parent at any time. Neither parent shall ask the minor children to contact the other parent to make a request, ask permission for an upcoming event, extend parent time, or seek information. Neither parent will have the minor children relay messages to the other parent on their behalf. The children can call the other parent at any time and the parents can limit the minor children's cell phone use with friends, as a form of punishment; however, neither parent can limit the minor children's cell phone use with the other parent

(e.g. the parents can remove apps or prohibit the minor children from texting/phoning friends, but they cannot prohibit them from contacting the other parent or the duration of the calls (however, each parent may enforce reasonable telephone rules in their households, e.g. no phones during meals)).

l. If the minor children participate in social media (e.g., Facebook, Instagram, SnapChat), each parent shall be allowed access to the children's social media pages, postings, and information. Neither parent shall communicate secretively or use codes to communicate with the minor children (i.e., direct message, private message, SnapChat).

m. Each parent shall support the other parent in their respective parenting role.

n. The parties shall trade favors and considerations involving the children, as needed and within reason. This will encourage cooperation and flexibility in the parties' parenting relationship.

o. The parties shall recognize it is important for the children's emotional well-being that they hold the other in high esteem as a parent in their conversations with the children.

p. The parties shall leave the past in the past to the fullest extent possible. The parties shall continue working together and utilize the other as a resource for the successful rearing of the children.

q. Travel with the Minor Children. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann § 81-9-202(19), for emergency purposes, whenever the minor children travel out-of-state and/or overnight with either party, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent: (i) an itinerary of travel dates; (ii) destinations; (iii) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (iv) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. Each party will notify the other party in advance of all upcoming out-of-state planned travel.

r. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles away, the parties shall comply with the provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, as it pertains to parent-time and travel expenses, including providing 60 days' advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent. The written notice shall contain statements affirming that (i) the parties' parent time schedule as set forth herein will be followed, and (ii) neither parent will interfere with the other's parental rights as set forth herein. Prior to instituting court action regarding the relocation, the parties shall comply with the dispute resolution provisions provided herein. Neither parent anticipates a move at this time.

s. Education. The parties agree that the children will continue to attend the current schools where they are enrolled and the feeder schools within their current school boundaries. Elizabeth's home shall be designated the children's primary residence for purposes of determining which school the child(ren) shall attend.

t. Therapy. In the event the children participate in therapy or counseling, the parties shall attempt to agree in writing to a safe harbor therapist. Both parties shall support the minor children in therapy and will follow the recommendations of the child's respective therapists, including frequency of visits, termination of therapy, etc. If the children are enrolled in therapy, neither party shall terminate the agreed upon therapist without the written agreement of the other parent.

18. Mutual Restraining Orders. The parties shall comply with the following mutual restraining orders:

a. A restraining order shall be entered enjoining each party from making disparaging comments about the other party, or permitting a third party from making disparaging comments about the other party, in the presence of the minor children.

b. A restraining order shall be entered enjoining each party from discussing the issues of this divorce action or the terms of this Agreement with the minor children.

c. In the event the parties have to communicate about the children, the parties shall at all times and in all communications remain civil with each other and not harass, threaten, demean or belittle each other. The parties shall refrain from making derogatory or disparaging comments about or to the other parent at all times, and especially when within the hearing of the children.

d. The parties shall ensure the children are insulated from adult-related matters and adult-related decisions and will not include the children in the decision-making process.

e. The parties shall never act or speak in a way that might diminish the love and affection of the children toward the other parent, regardless of the truthfulness of the allegation. The parties shall not allow third parties to do that which they themselves are prohibited from doing.

f. Neither parent shall permit any person whom the parent is engaged in a romantic or intimate relationship ("Romantic Guest") to stay overnight in the same residence during that parent's exercise of parent-time while the minor child(ren) are present. This restriction shall not apply to a long-term, committed relationship where the parent has been in an exclusive relationship with the individual for a continuous period of at least six (6) months and has provided advance written notice to the other parent of the individual's identity. Upon satisfaction of these conditions, the individual shall not be considered a "Romantic Guest" for purposes of this provision.

19. Our Family Wizard. Each parent shall download and maintain the Our Family Wizard application, using the premium subscription. All communication between the parents shall be through Our Family Wizard, unless it is an emergency. The parents shall utilize all features of Our Family Wizard, including but not limited to, communication, shared calendars, expense reimbursement log, phone/video calls, etc. The parties are required to keep notifications turned on, and messages shall be responded to within 48 hours.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

HEALTH INSURANCE

20. Medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage shall be provided by the party who can obtain the best coverage, if available at a reasonable cost. In the event there is coverage provided by both parties, Dustin's insurance shall be primary health insurance for the children and Elizabeth's insurance shall be the secondary insurance and each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical and dental insurance premium actually paid for the children's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code Am. § 81-6-208.

21. Currently, Dustin carries the health insurance policy on behalf of the children. The parties shall equally divide the cost of the premium actually paid for the children.

22. The parties shall equally pay any out-of-pocket medical, dental or vision costs including co-payments, deductibles, and uninsured costs incurred for the benefit of the minor children until the minor children attain majority age as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

23. The party who incurs the medical expense shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing verification of the cost and payment to the other party as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208. In the event there is coverage provided by both parties, neither shall be required to reimburse the other.

24. The party who incurs the medical expense may be denied the right to receive credit for the expense, or to recover the other party's share of the expense, if that party fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment within thirty (30) days of payment as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

25. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, if, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Dustin shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Elizabeth shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

26. Moreover, the parties shall provide each other with executed claim forms, medical cards, insurance information, and other assistance necessary to insure the prompt payment of the insured portions of such claims within one (1) week of any change of those policies or within one (1) week of receipt of said materials.

27. The party obtaining insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent child and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, as set forth in UCA 81-6-208.

WORK RELATED CHILD CARE

28. The parties shall share equally the actually-incurred, reasonable work and education related childcare expenses performed by a licensed childcare provider. Each parent shall begin paying their half on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense as set forth in Utah Code § 81-6-209. Neither party shall change the current childcare provider for the minor children without the other parent's advance written consent.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

29. The parties shall discuss in advance the issue of any extra-curricular activity in which the minor children may participate, and must agree to enroll the children in new activities not identified herein. If there is no agreement to enroll the children in a new activity, the costs of the activity will not be shared and the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent time and there shall be no obligation for the non-consenting parent to take the children to the activity if it falls on their parent time.

CHILD SUPPORT AND RELATED PROVISIONS

30. For purposes of calculating child support, Dustin's gross monthly income shall be set at $6,483.

34. Pursuant to UCA 81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

35. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with UCA 78A-6-801.

36. Dustin shall pay his child support obligation to Elizabeth in no more than two equal installments payable no later than the 5th and 20th days of the month.

37. The amount of child support may be reviewed and modified pursuant to the provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212.

INSURANCE

39. Individual Insurance. During the marriage, the parties acquired various policies of health, dental, life, vehicle and other insurance. The parties shall be required to obtain and maintain their own separate insurance policies and pay any costs, premiums, and/or deductibles associated therewith within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce herein.

40. Life Insurance. Dustin shall obtain and maintain life insurance sufficient to replace expected child support obligations for as long as such obligations exist. Elizabeth's benefit shall be limited to the amount of Dustin's outstanding child support at the time of death.

42. Marital Home. The marital property, located at 763 W Montauk Lane, Stansbury Park, Utah, 84074 ("marital home"), will be awarded to Elizabeth without any claim from Dustin and holding Dustin harmless thereon, subject to the property settlement payment set forth below. Commencing November 1, 2026, Elizabeth shall be solely responsible for all costs associated with the marital home, including but not limited to the mortgage, insurance, maintenance and property taxes. Dustin shall have within 30 days of the parties' Agreement signed on September 23, 2026 to vacate the marital home and remove his personal property from the home

43. Elizabeth will remove Dustin's name from the home liability and refinance the loan into her own name no more than 150 days after entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties agree that the current fair market value of the marital home is $559,000 (and the home is encumbered by debt of $155,133.88 as of September 1, 2026). In connection with the refinance of the loan, Elizabeth shall pay Dustin a property settlement of $165,894.78 no later than 150 days after entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties agree to equally divide the cost of any and all closing costs associated with an assumption or refinance of the loan.

44. Upon receipt of the property settlement payment and the loan refinance being completed, Dustin will execute a Quit Claim Deed transferring his ownership interest in the marital home to Elizabeth.

45. In the event Dustin's name is not removed from the mortgage or the property settlement payment is not paid to Dustin within required time, the parties agree to immediately list the marital home for sale with a mutually agreed upon realtor. The parties shall follow the advice of the realtor with respect to the list price, price reductions, and necessary repairs. Upon the sale of the marital home, the parties will divide the proceeds as follows:

i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

iii. Thereafter, the remaining equity shall be divided so that Dustin receives $165,894.78 from the proceeds, with Elizabeth receiving the remaining proceeds.

46. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title of any of the property awarded to the parties herein which are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

47. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed on the market for sale within 30 days of the nonpayment in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt for which they are not responsible under the terms of this Agreement shall be paid first on the net equity before the parties divide the proceeds.

48. Personal Property. Each party shall be awarded his or her own separate personal property, including all personal property brought into the marriage or received during the marriage by gift, inheritance, or devise. Each party shall be awarded their own personal items and effects. All other items remaining shall be divided as the parties agree (including the firearms granted to Dustin, and the household furnishings, granted to Elizabeth with each having an estimated value of $10,000). If they cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

49. Vehicles. Dustin shall be awarded the following vehicles, along with any related debt or obligation, free and clear from any claim by Elizabeth, and he shall hold Elizabeth harmless therefrom:

a. 2006 Dodge Ram 2500 (Current Estimated Value $9,840)

51. The 2023 Coachman Catalina double bunk travel trailer (Current Estimated Value $16,000), is granted to Dustin, free and clear of any claim by Elizabeth. It is anticipated that Dustin will sell the trailer and use the sale proceeds to satisfy his portion of the marital debt.

52. The parties shall make available to each other for copying (the expense of which shall be equally divided), all family pictures, videos and other family memorabilia in his/her respective possession, the original copies of which shall be promptly returned to the party presently in possession thereof.

53. Financial Accounts.
