Attorneys for Respondent

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF SHILO HAYS, Petitioner, and ANTHONY ROBBINS-MINTER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 234905507 Judge Charles Stormont Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

The above-captioned matter is submitted to the Court pursuant to Rule 7 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Petitioner, SHILO HAYS (hereinafter "WIFE" or "MOTHER"), having filed a Petition for Divorce against Respondent, and Respondent, ANTHONY ROBBINS-MINTER (hereinafter "HUSBAND" or "FATHER"), having been properly served notice of the same, participated in good faith negotiations and having entered into a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement (hereinafter "Stipulation") resolving all remaining issues in their divorce, and the Court having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGE

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

GROUNDS AND JURISDICTION

1. Divorce. The parties are granted a divorce based upon their irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. Section 81-4-405.

2. Children. As a result of the marriage the parties had born to them two (2) children, to wit:

   a. B.R. born July 2020; and

   b. E.R. born January 2022.

3. The parties are not expecting any additional children.

4. UCCJEA Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction over custody and parent-time because Utah is the home state of the child. Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act under Utah Code § 81-11-101(6) and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code § 81-11-201(1), 207, and 208.

5. Rule 100 Information. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code § 81-11-101 et seq. and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code § 81-8-101 et seq., the parties state upon information and belief, that:

   a. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time or visitation concerning the child which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.

b. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency or protective order cases involving a party or the child.

c. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the child and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights.

6. Legal Custody. It is in the best interest of the child that the parties share joint legal custody of the children consistent with the parenting plan as outlined herein.

7. Physical Custody. It is in the best interest of the minor child that the parties share physical custody based upon the parent-time schedule set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-303. If the parties are unable to agree on parent-time, the parties shall follow the following parent-time schedule:

	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
WEEK 1	MOTHER	MOTHER	FATHER	MOTHER	FATHER	FATHER	FATHER
WEEK 2	MOTHER	MOTHER	FATHER	MOTHER	MOTHER	MOTHER	MOTHER

8. Holiday Parent-time. The parties are awarded holiday visitation as they mutually agree, if they do not mutually agree then in accordance with Utah Code § 81-9-303.

9. Extended Parent-time. During the summers, when the children are not in school, the parties shall follow the extended parent-time provisions of Utah Code § 81-9-303.

10. Modification of Parent-time. In three (3) years, the parties shall attend mediation to discuss ramping up to a 50/50 parent-time schedule. A Petition to Modify and substantial change of circumstances shall not be required to modify parent-time to a 50/50 parent-time schedule after three (3) years from the date of the Stipulation.

11. Relocation. Should either party seek to relocate more than 150 miles from their current residence, the parties shall abide by the notice requirements set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-209.

12. Travel. When the child travels with either parent out of state, all of the following will be provided to the other parent.

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination(s);

c. Places where the child or travelling parent can be reached; and

d. The name and telephone number of an available third-person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

PARENTING PLAN

13. Decision Making. Each parent has authority to make day-to-day decisions concerning the children while the children are in the care of that parent. Each parent also has authority to make emergency decisions concerning the children while the children are in the care of that parent.

14. The parties shall share all major decisions concerning their children's health, education, religious upbringing and general welfare. The parties shall identify and discuss the issue/concern together. If they cannot agree, then they shall consult professionals with expertise in the area of concern and shall follow the recommendations of the professionals.

15. Resolving Miscellaneous Disputes. If significant child-related issues arise and that are not specifically resolved by designated professionals as set forth herein and cannot be resolved by the parties after discussions, then the parties shall participate in mediation or other alternative dispute resolution process. The parties shall split cost of alternative dispute resolution equally. If they are unable to come to a consensus in alternative dispute resolution, they may seek court intervention. The Court shall resolve the disputed child-related issues using the "best interests of the child" standard.

16. Therapy. Bethany shall continue to see her current therapist as her therapist recommends. The parties shall follow the recommendations of Bethany's therapist(s) at Unified Family Therapy. The parties shall split all out-of-pocket costs for therapy equally. If Bethany's current therapist can no longer see her, then the parties shall follow the therapist's recommendations for a new therapist.

17. Medical. Dr. Garvin at the U of U shall remain the children's pediatrician. The parties shall follow the recommendations of the children's pediatrician. If Dr. Garvin cannot continue treating the children, the parties shall follow Dr. Garvin and the U of U's recommendations for a new pediatrician.

18. Education. The parties shall enroll Bethany at Summit Academy in Draper. The parties will apply for a fee waiver and will split any fees equally. Everett shall attend Summitt Academy in Draper beginning the 2027-2028 school year. The parties shall follow the school/teacher recommendations regarding education decisions, including but not limited to, recommendations around IEPs and 504s. Mother shall not work at any of the schools the children attend as to avoid any issues with the Continuous Protective Order.

19. Both parents may attend parent-teacher conferences and communicate with the children's teachers and school administrators as needed. However, they shall not attend parent-teacher conferences together, they will each have to schedule their own time when the other parent is not present.

20. Dental. Kaleidoscope Dental shall remain the children's dentist. The parties shall follow the recommendations of the children's dentist. If Kaleidoscope Dental can no longer see the children, the parties shall follow the recommendations of Kaleidoscope for finding a new dentist.

21. The parties will likely have different rules at different households. The parties will not impose their rules on each other's household during the other parent's parent-time but shall be respectful of the rules in respective homes and not undermine or dismiss discipline of the children imposed by the other parent.

22. Children's Records. Both parties shall be listed as parents and/or guardians on all of the children's records, including but not limited to school, daycare, preschool, medical Respondent shall be listed as "Father" for the minor children in all medical, school, and all other records for the children. Father will be listed as an emergency contact alongside Mother for the children in all records. No third parties will be added to the children's records as parent or guardian without the written consent of both parties.

23. Communication. The parties shall communicate in writing using a co-parent communication application. Currently, the parties utilize Talking Parents. The parties may only change the co-parent communication application upon mutual agreement in writing. The parties shall send any significant information regarding the children to the other parent within 24 hours of receiving the information. The parties shall update the shared calendar with all events, appointments, extra curriculars, and other significant events involving the children within 24 hours of learning of the event.

24. The parties shall keep each other informed about all significant events and matters concerning the minor child as outlined above. This includes, but is not limited to, school activities, religious events, extracurricular programs, awards or recognitions, and any other occasions where the child may be honored or participate. Each parent shall provide notice in a timely manner so that the other parent has a reasonable opportunity to attend or be involved. Both parents shall create and utilize independent access to the children's school, administrators, physicians, therapists, activity groups, medical providers, and any other child-related service providers and administrators. It is not the job of either parent to be the source of information regarding the children when direct and independent access is available.

25. The parties shall not send harassing or intimidating communication. The parties need not respond to harassing or intimidating communication.

26. For extracurricular activities, school, and social events, both parents may attend all events. However, they shall not communicate with each other and shall keep as much physical distance as possible between them during events.

27. Virtual Parent-time. There shall be no virtual parent-time during regular parent-time. However, if the children shall be with one parent for seven (7) consecutive days or longer (i.e. during winter break or summer parent-time), then the parent without the children will be entitled to virtual parent-time on Wednesdays at 6 p.m. for a reasonable duration of time.

28. Exchanges. Whenever possible, all exchanges shall occur through the children's school. That until the minor child E.R. is school age exchanged for him shall occur at Respondent's mother's residence. If the parties cannot exchange the children through school or at paternal grandmother's residence, the receiving parent will facilitate exchanges at the Draper Police Station at the times outlined above. The parties shall park at least four (4) parking spaces away from each other. During parent-time exchanges, the parties must comport themselves like adults. The parties may bring one other adult person to exchanges, but that adult must remain in the party's vehicle. The parties shall not communicate during parent-time exchanges and shall remain within arm's reach of their vehicles. The parties will leave their phones/recording equipment on the dashboard of their vehicles during the exchanges. If the children are being watched by their paternal grandmother and Father is not present, then Mother shall pick the children up from paternal grandmother's home. When the children are not in school, pick up and drop off at the paternal Grandmother's home for all parent time shall occur at 3:00 pm unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties in writing.

29. Mutual Restraining Orders. The parties are restrained from disparaging the other party to or in the presence of the child and are to instruct third-parties to also be so restrained. The parties are restrained from discussing this legal action or any adult topics with or in the presence of the child and are to instruct third-parties to also be so restrained.

30. The parties shall restrict their communication to reasonable times and shall limit such communication to effectuating the terms of this agreement, orders of the court, or the parties' child(ren). In the event of an emergency, the parties may communicate with each other via text message.

31. The parties are restrained from making comments, posts about, or sharing photos of the other party or this litigation on social media including, but not limited to, Facebook, Instagram, Snap Chat, etc.

32. Protective Order. The Continuous Protective Order in Case No. 231909126 will be modified to match the orders in this agreement, as well as allow Father to attend the children's significant events, including but not limited to school events, extracurriculars, religious events, awards, etc. Mother shall initiate this process and shall sign any paperwork and shall attend any hearings required to make this change.

CHILD SUPPORT

33. The parties shall pay child support in compliance with the Uniform Child Support Guidelines. Mother's income for the purposes of child support if $1,941. Father's income for the purposes of calculating child support is $4,200. Father's support obligation is $662.00 per month. This child support is based on Mother having 220 overnights and Father having 145 overnights each year. This obligation shall begin on September 1, 2026.

34. Child support for each child shall terminate at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

35. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support.

36. Any Office of Recovery Service fee(s) shall be paid by parent opening the case.

37. Child Support Arrearages. Father is current on his child support obligations from January 2024 through the date of the Stipulation. The issues of potential child support arrears prior to January 2024 are reserved for further determination.

MEDICAL AND OTHER EXPENSES/CREDITS

38. Division of Accounts. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7, each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate billing accounts.

39. Health Insurance/Expenses. The parties are ordered to maintain medical, dental and vision insurance for the child so long as it is available to them at a reasonable cost. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical and dental insurance premium actually paid by the covering parent for the child's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code § 81-6-208. In the event the child is covered by both parents, the parents shall pay their own premium without contribution of the other.

40. A party carrying medical insurance on behalf of the minor child shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent will notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date that he/she first knew or should have known of the change.

41. If, at any point in time the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, and/or dental insurance plan of Father will be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, and/or dental insurance plan of Mother will be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and their dependent child is covered by that parent new spouses' health, hospital, and/or dental insurance, that insurance will have the same designation as if it were the insurance policy of the parent to whom the person the step-parent is married. If the children are ever covered by Medicaid and private insurance, then Medicaid will be considered the secondary insurance.

42. The parties shall share equally in all uninsured routine medical and dental expenses for the child including expenses for surgery, orthodontic care psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, physical therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma as well as other reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses, in accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-208.

43. A parent who incurs medical or dental expenses on behalf of the child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent with thirty (30) days of payment for such expense. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208, the parent who fails to comply with this paragraph may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses. The parent reimbursing the other parent shall make payment within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of the expense with proof of payment.

44. Unless there is written agreement between the parties otherwise, they will utilize "in-network" providers who are covered by insurance whenever possible.

45. Child Care. Each parent is in charge of child care during their respective parent-time and each parent shall pay their own costs for child care during their parent-time. Both parties have family members who are available to provide work-related child care free of charge. The parties shall attempt to utilize biological family members for child care before utilizing third parties or incurring costs for child care. All child care provided by family members shall be assumed to be of no cost. Neither party shall have the right of first refusal if the other parent is not available to provide personal care for the minor children. If either parent is unavailable to provide care then the unavailable parents shall be obligated to find appropriate family care for the children.

46. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall equally share the cost of extracurricular activities that they mutually agreed upon in writing. The parties shall be responsible for the costs associated with any extracurricular activities they sign the children up for, unless they agree in writing to the activity as well as splitting the cost. The parents shall not sign-up the child for activities that imposes on the other parent's parent-time without their express written consent.

47. School Fees. The parties shall split the costs of the children's expenses including school fees, school lunches, school uniforms, etc. with Mother paying 50% and Father paying 50%. This does not apply to private school tuition. Reimbursement for these expenses will be completed consistent with medical expenses as described herein.

48. Child Tax Credit/Exemption. For tax purposes (State and Federal) Mother will claim E.R., and Father will claim B.R. for all child tax credits and exemptions. When there are an odd number of children, the parties will rotate who will claim the child with Mother claiming the child in odd-numbered tax years and Father claiming the child in even-numbered tax years. The "tax year" refers to the year preceding the year in which the tax return is filed.

49. Each parent may only claim the child tax credit or exemption if that parent is current on their child support obligation by December 31st of the tax year in question. If a parent is not current on their child support obligation by December 31st of the tax year in question, then the other parent may claim the child(ren).

50. Both parties shall sign and execute any forms required by the IRS to allow the other party to claim the child tax credit/exemption on their designated year, including but not limited to a Form 8332.

DIVISION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

51. Separate and Premarital Property. Each party is awarded their separate and premarital property, including property or monies in their possession at the time of marriage or received from inheritance, unless stated otherwise herein.

52. Personal Property. Prior to and during the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various personal property, such as furniture, electronics, household goods, recreational equipment, artwork, jewelry, and other items. The parties have already divided all personal property and are awarded all property in their possession.

53. Titled Vehicles/Assets. During the marriage, the parties obtained interest or ownership of certain vehicles. These vehicles have already been divided and are awarded along with all liability and maintenance thereof to the party who currently has possession of that vehicle.

54. Financial Accounts. During the marriage both parties have either obtained interest in or contributed marital funds to financial accounts including, but not limited to, savings and checking accounts. All financial accounts have already been divided, and the parties are awarded all accounts in their respective name free and clear of any claim by the other party. No joint financial accounts exist.

55. Retirement and Other Investment Accounts. During the marriage both parties have either obtained interest in or contributed marital funds to their respective retirement and other investment accounts. The parties are awarded all accounts in their respective names free and clear of any claim by the other party.

56. Debts and Obligations. All debts and obligations were already divided by the parties. The parties shall be solely responsible for any debt in their respective name. The parties do not have any joint debts.

57. Real Property. The parties do not have real property.

58. Alimony. Both parties are capable of providing for themselves and neither have a need for alimony. No alimony is awarded.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

59. Duty to Sign Documents. Both parties are ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of their divorce decree. Should a party fail to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the entry of their divorce decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

60. Attorney Fees. The parties are responsible for their own attorney's fees in this action.
