Petitioner

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SALT LAKE, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: TERRENCE A. STRUNA, Petitioner, and FAISULY SANDOVAL ALZATE, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264901886 Judge: JAMES GARDNER Commissioner: RENEE BLOCHER

The above-entitled matter comes before the Court, the Honorable Judge James Gardner presiding. Petitioner is appearing pro se; Respondent is pro se. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, hereby orders as follows:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED

1. The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce severing the bonds of matrimony between the parties on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, effective immediately upon entry.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO REQUIRED CLASSES

2. The divorce orientation class and the parenting class were waived for both Petitioner and Respondent by the Court's Order on Motion to Waive Required Classes entered June 12, 2026.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CHILD OF THE PARTIES

3. There has been one child born as issue of this marriage, to wit: R.B.S., born April 2022.

4. Upon information and belief, there are no proceedings for custody of the minor child filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT TIME, AND PARENTING PLAN

5. Joint Legal Custody: In the best interest of the child, the parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child.

6. Joint Physical Custody: In the best interest of the child, the parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child.

7. Parent Time: Parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305.

8. Holiday Provisions: The parties may agree on a holiday schedule. If the parties do not agree, the parties shall follow the holiday schedule in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-304 until the child turns five years old, and the holiday schedule in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302 after that, as provided in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305(4). In odd-numbered years, Petitioner shall exercise the holidays that statute lists for odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall exercise the holidays it lists for even-numbered years. In even-numbered years, the allocation reverses. This allocation is only to identify which parent has each holiday and does not alter the parties' award of joint legal and joint physical custody.

9. Pickup and Delivery for Parent Time: The parties shall make arrangements for pickup, delivery, and return of the child prior to each scheduled parent time. The parent or person dropping off or picking up the child may accompany the child to the other parent or person when parent time transfers are made.

10. Virtual Parent-Time: The parties shall be entitled to untethered access to the minor child during the other party's parent time. It shall be of reasonable duration and at reasonable hours. Neither party shall interfere with the other party's virtual parent time. Telephone, Skype, FaceTime, texting, and other forms of electronic communication are acceptable to exercise virtual parent time. All communication between a parent and the child shall be uncensored, unmonitored, and unrecorded.

11. Relocation: If either party intends to relocate 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent, the relocating parent shall provide the other parent at least 60 days' advance written notice, consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

12. Advisory Guidelines: The parties shall follow the advisory guidelines set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202, with the exception that, to the extent Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202 conflicts with any provision of this Decree, the provisions of this Decree shall be the controlling provision. These guidelines govern all parent-time arrangements between the parties. The Court further orders as follows:

a. Mutual Restraining Order: The parties shall be restrained from disparaging the other party to or in the presence of the child, and are to instruct third parties to also be so restrained. Both parties shall be restrained from discussing the legal action or any adult topics with or in the presence of the child, and are to instruct third parties to also be so restrained. The parties shall be permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, and/or harming the other party at any time or in any place. The parties shall further cause any third parties, including relatives, not to disparage the other party or the parties' child. The parties shall be responsible for preventing any unfair treatment of the minor child by third parties. The parties shall be further permanently restrained from going near the other party's residence, car, or place of employment, without consent from the other party, except as reasonably necessary to exercise parent time, exchange the minor child, attend the child's activities or appointments, or as otherwise mutually agreed.

b. Communication: Each party shall communicate directly with the other and not through third persons. The minor child shall never be used as a messenger. Communication shall be respectful and, at no time, sarcastic or derogatory. Communication shall be limited to matters involving the minor child, such as their health, activities, and well-being. In the event of a medical emergency involving the child, each party shall promptly notify the other.

c. Emergency Medical Decisions: The parent who has the child at the time they suffer a medical emergency has the authority to make any initial decision regarding emergency medical care. That parent shall notify the other parent of the emergency immediately.

d. Day-to-Day Decisions: Whichever parent has the child in their physical custody may make minor, day-to-day decisions regarding them and their care.

e. Address and Phone Number: The parties shall keep each other informed of their contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 24 hours upon knowledge of any change.

f. Medical Information: Both parties shall have the right to obtain medical information for the minor child from healthcare providers directly, without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission. The parties shall keep each other updated on all medical information regarding the child.

g. Educational Information: Both parties shall have the right to obtain educational information for the child directly from educators and counselors without the necessity of going through the other party or getting their permission. Each party shall be listed as a parent for the purposes of school contact or medical care provider contact. The parties shall keep each other updated on all educational information regarding the child. Both parties shall be listed as parents of the child, and both parents may pick up the child from school, not to interfere with regular school hours, except in cases of bona fide appointment that necessitate early check out, or in case of emergency.

h. Safe Environment: The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the minor child.

i. Stability: The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the minor child consistency and stability.

j. Notice of Activities: Both parties shall be required to notify the other party in a timely manner of major events in the child's life that they otherwise would not be aware of, so that they can have enough advance notice to attend. This includes, but is not limited to, all extra-curricular activity schedules, school events, etc. Each party shall provide the other party with these schedules as soon as they receive them and shall make best efforts to immediately provide an electronic copy or notification of the events. Both parties shall have direct access to the minor child's activity schedules.

k. Special Consideration for Events: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the minor child available to attend family functions (which does not include regularly occurring weekly family dinners or events), including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule. The parties shall make every effort to schedule their activities during their parent time.

l. Tattooing, Body Piercing, and Permanent Cosmetics: Neither parent shall allow others to permanently change the appearance of the child's body, including but not limited to body piercing, tattooing, permanent cosmetics, and other cosmetic procedures, without the written consent of the other parent.

m. No Illegal Use of Drugs, Prescription Drugs, or Use of Alcohol to Excess: Each party shall refrain from the use of illegal drugs or prescription drugs used in a non-prescribed manner or from using alcohol to the level of intoxication when the child is present. Each party shall be prohibited from exposing the child to harmful substances such as drugs and alcohol.

n. No Exposure to Pornography: The parties shall not expose the minor child to pornographic material of any kind.

o. School: The child is not currently enrolled in school. If and when school enrollment or another educational placement becomes appropriate, the parties shall jointly determine the appropriate school or educational placement based upon the child's developmental needs, professional recommendations, available services, and best interests. Neither parent's residence shall automatically control the child's school enrollment. If the parties cannot agree, they shall attend mediation before either party seeks a court order.

p. Decision-Making and Dispute Resolution: All major decisions concerning the child, including health, education, general welfare, religion, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy, shall be discussed. In the event that the parties are unable to agree on these major decisions, the parties shall consult with an expert in the field and follow their recommendation and/or select a third party upon whom they mutually agree to serve as a mediator to seek to resolve the parties' inability to agree. If they remain unable to resolve their differences in said mediation, they may seek court assistance.

q. Cooperation in Maintaining Child's Needs: Both parties shall cooperate in maintaining the child's needs. This includes, but is not limited to, maintaining his established therapies, medical care, developmental services, and educational services. The parties shall promptly share evaluations, treatment plans, therapy reports, diagnoses, recommendations, and appointment information. The parties shall use their best efforts to ensure the child attends all scheduled appointments during their parent time, regardless of who scheduled the appointment. Neither party shall unilaterally discontinue or materially change an established therapy, treatment plan, medication, or major developmental service without consultation with the other parent, except in an emergency. Both parents shall have direct access to and may communicate directly with the child's medical, therapeutic, developmental, and educational providers and obtain records from those providers.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SUPPORT PAYMENTS

13. Child Support: Child support for the minor child is calculated on a joint physical custody worksheet using 182 overnights for Petitioner and 183 overnights for Respondent. Petitioner's gross monthly income is $3,000. Respondent's gross monthly income is $0, and no income is imputed to Respondent for purposes of child support pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-203(6)(e)(iv), because the child's unusual emotional and physical needs require Respondent's presence in the home. Petitioner shall pay $247 per month in child support to Respondent. The Child Support Worksheet (Joint Physical Custody) attached to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A is incorporated in this Decree.

a. Child support shall continue until the child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated.

b. Child Care: Neither party currently incurs work-related child care expenses for the child, and the present work-related child care expense is $0. The Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation has approved the child for child care services under an inter-tribal arrangement, based on the child's Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood (CDIB) submitted by Petitioner. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related child care expenses actually incurred and paid out of pocket by a party, after deducting any amount paid or reimbursed by the Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation or any other third party. A party incurring child care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the provider to the other party upon initial engagement and on request, and shall notify the other party of any change within 30 days. If the Decree of Divorce is entered on or after January 1, 2027, Petitioner shall also pay Respondent a minimal child care award calculated under Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209(5), unless Petitioner's obligation is calculated using the low income table, and each party shall file a proposed minimal child care award as required by § 81-6-209(5)(a).

14. Alimony: Neither party is awarded alimony, now or in the future.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE

15. Petitioner and the child are tribal members of the Eastern Shoshone Tribe. They are not enrolled members and do not receive tribal income. The child currently receives health care coverage and services through Indian Health Service and Medicaid.

16. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(4), and based on the Court's finding of good cause, the requirement to obtain health insurance is deviated from while the child remains eligible for Medicaid and Indian Health Service coverage, because that coverage currently meets the child's health care needs. While the child remains eligible for Medicaid, neither party shall be required to obtain additional health insurance for the child. If either party elects to obtain additional health insurance for the child during this time, that party shall be solely responsible for the associated premium.

17. Neither party currently maintains private or employer-sponsored health insurance for the child, and nothing in this paragraph implies that any such plan currently exists. If the child loses Medicaid eligibility, the parties shall comply with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 regarding health insurance coverage for the child. If health insurance is available to either party, the parties shall comply with the requirements of § 81-6-208 regarding the maintenance of coverage and payment of premiums. If, at any point in time, a child is covered by the health insurance plans of both parents, the health insurance plan of Terrence A. Struna shall be primary coverage for the child and the health insurance plan of Faisuly Sandoval Alzate shall be secondary coverage for the child. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child.

18. The parties shall comply with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 regarding covered and non-covered health care expenses. The parties shall divide equally all reasonable and necessary medical, dental, optical, orthodontic, and psychotherapeutic expenses incurred for the benefit of the child and not covered by insurance or other available coverage. Requests for reimbursement shall be subject to the verification and documentation requirements of Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208(10).

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SCHOOL FEES AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND EXPENSES

19. The parties shall equally share the cost of the minor child's school and extracurricular activities to which both parties agree in writing, and neither party shall unreasonably withhold this agreement.

20. The parties shall honor splitting the costs of current extracurricular activities already in place and into the future if the child so desires to maintain the activity. Any material increase in the cost of an existing extracurricular activity shall require mutual written agreement.

21. The parties shall allow the child to attend extracurricular activities even if it is on the parent-time day of the other party.

22. Neither party shall enroll the child in an extracurricular activity without mutual written agreement.

23. Proof of payment of said school fees and extracurricular activities shall be provided by the party enrolling the minor child in the activity to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment, with reimbursement to take place within the following thirty (30) days.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BANK AND FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

24. Each party is awarded the financial accounts in his or her individual name.

25. Respondent is awarded the USAA Checking Account ending in 9569, and all monies in the account.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PENSION AND RETIREMENT ASSETS

26. Each party is awarded all retirement, 401k, IRA, or any other retirement-like plans, benefits, or accounts currently held in his or her name.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BUSINESSES

27. Petitioner is awarded the business Project Angel of NWA, LC, including all membership interests, equity, assets, accounts, contractual rights, causes of action, proceeds, liabilities, appreciation, and other interests associated with the company, free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY

28. Petitioner is awarded the real property located at 6831 W Meadow Grass Dr., South Jordan, Utah 84009, and all equity therein, free and clear of any ownership, marital, equitable, reimbursement, lien, or other claim by Respondent.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERSONAL PROPERTY

29. With the exception of the following, each party is awarded the personal property currently in his or her possession.

a. Petitioner is awarded the 2022 Hyundai Palisade and the 2008 Mazda 3, and any equity or debt associated with them. Petitioner retains sole ownership and title to the 2008 Mazda 3. Any temporary use of the Mazda by Respondent shall be through a separate written vehicle-use agreement, does not create any ownership or equity interest in the vehicle, and Respondent shall return it to Petitioner upon reasonable written notice.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

30. Each party shall keep and pay the debt in his or her individual name.

31. Petitioner shall be solely responsible for all debts, claims, and obligations included in or addressed by Petitioner's Chapter 13 bankruptcy case and confirmed Chapter 13 plan, including all payments required under the plan. Petitioner shall indemnify and hold Respondent harmless from any liability or obligation arising from Petitioner's Chapter 13 bankruptcy case or plan, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

32. Petitioner shall be solely responsible for any private indebtedness, obligations, or liabilities incurred by the parties in connection with the acquisition, financing, improvement, or ownership of the real property awarded to Petitioner, including any obligations evidenced by any promissory notes or other private financing agreements. Petitioner shall timely satisfy all such obligations and shall indemnify, defend, and hold Respondent harmless from any liability, claim, demand, expense, or collection activity arising from such obligations, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Nothing in this provision is intended to alter the contractual rights of any third-party creditor.

TAXES

33. Petitioner shall claim the child each year for the purposes of filing federal and state tax returns for 2027, and Respondent shall claim the child for 2028, and Petitioner for 2029, and Respondent for 2030 and so on alternating each year thereafter, to the extent permitted by applicable federal and state tax law. For clarity, the year stated in this paragraph is the calendar year in which the tax return is filed. Petitioner shall claim the child for the 2026 tax year on the returns filed in 2027, Respondent shall claim the child for the 2027 tax year on the returns filed in 2028, Petitioner shall claim the child for the 2028 tax year on the returns filed in 2029, Respondent shall claim the child for the 2029 tax year on the returns filed in 2030, and the parties shall continue alternating in the same manner thereafter. Respondent shall execute any documentation reasonably necessary to effectuate this provision, including IRS Form 8332 if required.

ATTORNEY FEES

34. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MUTUAL NON-HARASSMENT

35. Both parties are restrained from harassing, harming, bothering, annoying, threatening, and committing violence against the other party.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

36. Insurance: Upon entry of this Decree, each party shall be responsible for his or her own policies of health, dental, vision, and automobile insurance.

37. Mediation: Prior to or concurrent with a Petition to Modify being filed to change any provision of this Decree, the parties must first make a good faith attempt to offer to resolve the issue through mediation, for which both parties shall share the cost equally.

38. Execution of Documents: Both parties are ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary to implement the provisions of this Decree within 60 days of its entry. If a party fails to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this Decree, the other party may apply, at the cost of the disobedient party, for the Court to appoint some other person to execute the documents so that, when so done, the execution has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party, pursuant to Utah R. Civ. P. 70.
