1. Action: Approval of October 2023 Minutes

Nathalie Skibine

The committee reviewed the October 2023 minutes. No changes were noted.

After that review, Debra Nelson moved to approve the October 2023 minutes as they appeared in the committee's materials. Tera Peterson seconded that motion, and it passed without objection by unanimous consent.

2. Action: Rule 52

The committee's discussion has focused on the nature of the deadline applicable to motions to reinstate the time for an appeal. Mary Westby expressed comfort with the current proposal. Alexandra Mareschal cautioned that adjudications may present more complicated circumstances and expressed skepticism that any parent participating in an adjudication would deliberately delay in an effort to "game the system." Ms. Westby pointed out that the proposed change from 15 days to 45 days already provides additional flexibility for parents in that situation.

After further discussion regarding how this rule change would apply to adjudication proceedings, the committee resolved to address the remainder of the proposed rule, while setting aside further discussion regarding how these changes would apply to adjudication decisions.

Following that discussion, Ms. Westby moved to approve the amendments as they appeared on the screen at the committee's meeting. Lisa Collins seconded that motion, and it passed without objection by unanimous consent. In presenting the approved amendment to the Supreme Court, Chris Ballard will convey that while the committee has resolved the issue the court asked it to address, a lurking issue related to adjudications remains unaddressed.

Nathalie Skibine

3. Action: Rule 11

Ms. Skibine introduced proposed language. Ms. Westby observed that the term "sealed" is often misused—parties often mean "protected" or "private"—and noted the proposed language risks tying the courts' hands with respect to how to handle mischaracterized documents under those circumstances. The committee discussed proposed language, including sharpening language and considering additional revisions.

Following that discussion, Ms. Skibine moved to approve the amendments as they appeared on the screen at the committee's meeting. Ms. Nelson seconded that motion, and it passed without objection by unanimous consent.

Tera Peterson

4. Action: Rule 22

The committee discussed clarifying language for the rule and discussed, more broadly, the practice of seeking and granting extensions in Utah's appellate courts. The committee also considered and refined an amendment to the Advisory Committee Note to square that note with the proposed amended rule.

Following that discussion, Ms. Westby moved to approve the amendments (both to the rule and the note) as they appeared on the screen at the committee's meeting. Stan Purser seconded that motion, and it passed without objection by unanimous consent.

5. Action: Rule 10

With the month's time exhausted, the committee resolved to table the proposed amendments to Rule 10 until the committee's next meeting.

The committee also resolved to table discussion regarding bail orders until the committee's next meeting.

7. Discussion: Old/New Business

The committee noted that it will likely cancel the January, July, and August 2024 meetings, in accordance with past practice.

8. Adjourn

Following the business described above, Emily Adams moved to adjourn, and Ms. Nelson seconded. The committee adjourned. The committee's next meeting will take place on December 7, 2023.

6. Update: Bail Order

Proposed Amendment to RAP 27

RAP 27(d)(4) states in part, "The clerk will retain one copy of the noncomplying brief and the party must file a brief prepared in compliance with these rules within 5 days." As written, the rule fails to set out the precise event that starts the clock for this 5-day deadline. Is it the actual date of the notice of deficiency? Is it the receipt of the notice? Something else?

It would be useful if the rule were revised to clearly specify the trigger that starts the 5-day deadline. For instance, the rule could be revised to state, "The clerk will retain one copy of the noncomplying brief and the party must file a brief prepared in compliance with these rules within 5 days after receipt of the clerk's notice of deficiency.

Thank you for your time.

(a) Appeal as of right. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(1) or (a)(2), in a case in which an appeal is permitted as a matter of right from the trial court to the appellate court, the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 must be filed with the clerk of the trial court within 30 days after the date of entry of the judgment or order appealed from. If the trial court enters a judgment or order on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the date of entry will be deemed to be the first day following the trial court's entry that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. (1) When a judgment or order is entered in a statutory forcible entry or unlawful detainer action, the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 must be filed with the clerk of the trial court within 10 days after the date of entry of the judgment or order appealed from. (2) When an order is entered denying, in whole or in part, a motion to dismiss under Utah Code section 78B-25-103, the notice of appeal must be filed with the clerk of the trial court within 21 days after the date of entry of the order appealed from. (b) Time for appeal extended by certain motions. - (F) A motion or claim for attorney fees under Rule 73 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure; or
- 30 (G) A motion for a new trial under Rule 24 of the Utah Rules of Criminal

To appeal from a final order 35 disposing of any motion listed in paragraph (b), a party must file a notice of appeal or 36 an amended notice of appeal within the prescribed time measured from the entry of 37 the order. If multiple motions in paragraph (b) are timely filed and the court decides 38 any motion by separate order, the time to file a notice of appeal runs from the entry 39 of the last order. 40

41 (c) Filing prior to entry of judgment or order. A notice of appeal filed after the 42 announcement of a decision, judgment, or order but before entry of the judgment or order 43 shall-will be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof.

(d) Additional or cross-appeal. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 14 days after the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule, whichever period last expires.

48 (e) Motion for extension of time.

(1) The trial court, upon a showing of good cause, may extend the time for filing a notice of appeal upon motion filed before the expiration of the time prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule. Responses to such motions for an extension of time are disfavored and the court may rule at any time after the filing of the motion. No extension shallcan exceed 30 days beyond the prescribed time or 14 days beyond the date of entry of the order granting the motion, whichever occurs later.

(2) The trial court, upon a showing of good cause or excusable neglect, may extend 55 the time for filing a notice of appeal upon motion filed not later than 30 days after the 56 expiration of the time prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule. The court may 57 rule at any time after the filing of the motion. That a movant did not file a notice of 58 59 appeal to which paragraph (c) would apply is not relevant to the determination of good cause or excusable neglect. An No-extension shallmay not- exceed 30 days 60 beyond the prescribed time or 14 days beyond the date of entry of the order granting 61 the motion, whichever occurs later. 62

1 Rule 5. Discretionary appeals from interlocutory orders.

(a) Petition for permission to appeal. Any party may seek an appeal from an 2 interlocutory order by filing a petition for permission to appeal from the interlocutory 3 order with the appellate court with jurisdiction over the case. The petition must be filed 4 and served on all other parties to the action within 21 days after the entry of the trial 5 court's order. If the trial court enters an order on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, 6 the date of entry will be deemed to be the first day following the trial court's entry that is 7 8 not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. A timely appeal from an order certified under Rule 54(b), Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, that the appellate court determines is not final 9 may, in the appellate court's discretion, be considered by the appellate court as a petition 10 for permission to appeal an interlocutory order. The appellate court may direct the 11 appellant to file a petition that conforms to the requirements of paragraph (c) of this rule. 12

(b) Fees and filing of petition. The petitioner must file the petition with the appellate court clerk and pay the fee required by statute at the time of electronic filing or within seven days of filing by email, mail, or in person. The petitioner must serve the petition on the opposing party and notice of the filing of the petition on the trial court. If the appellate court issues an order granting permission to appeal, the appellate court clerk will immediately give notice of the order to the respective parties and will transmit the order to the trial court where the order will be filed instead of a notice of appeal.

20 (c) Content of petition.

21 (1) The petition must contain:

(A) A concise statement of facts material to a consideration of the issue presentedand the order sought to be reviewed;

(B) The issue presented expressed in the terms and circumstances of the case but without unnecessary detail, and a demonstration that the issue was preserved in the trial court. Petitioner must state the applicable standard of appellate review and cite supporting authority;

(C) A statement of the reasons why an immediate interlocutory appeal should be permitted, including a concise analysis of the statutes, rules or cases believed to be determinative of the issue stated; and 31 (D) A statement of the reason why the appeal may materially advance the32 termination of the litigation.

(2) If the petition is subject to assignment by the Supreme Court to the Court of Appeals, the phrase "Subject to assignment to the Court of Appeals" must appear immediately under the title of the document, i.e. Petition for Permission to Appeal.
Petitioner may then set forth in the petition a concise statement why the Supreme Court should decide the case.

(3) The petitioner must attach a copy of the trial court's order from which an appeal is sought and any related findings of fact and conclusions of law and opinion. Other documents that may be relevant to determining whether to grant permission to appeal may be referenced by identifying trial court docket entries of the documents.

(d) Page limitation. A petition for permission to appeal must not exceed 20 pages, excluding table of contents, if any, and the addenda.

(e) Service in criminal and juvenile delinquency cases. Any petition filed by a defendant in a criminal case originally charged as a felony or by a juvenile in a delinquency proceeding must be served on the Criminal Appeals Division of the Office of the Utah Attorney General.

(f) Response; no reply. No petition will be granted in the absence of a request by the court for a response. No response to a petition for permission to appeal will be received unless requested by the court. Within 14 days after an order requesting a response, any other party may oppose or concur with the petition. Any response to a petition for permission to appeal is subject to the same page limitation set out in paragraph (d) and must be filed in the appellate court. The respondent must serve the response on the petitioner. The petition and any response will be submitted without oral argument unless otherwise ordered. No reply in support of a petition for permission to appeal will be permittedunless requested by the court.

(g) Grant of permission. An appeal from an interlocutory order may be granted only if 57 it appears that the order involves substantial rights and may materially affect the final 58 59 decision or that a determination of the correctness of the order before final judgment will better serve the administration and interests of justice. The order permitting the appeal 60 may set forth the particular issue or point of law that will be considered and may be on 61 such terms, including requiring a bond for costs and damages, as the appellate court may 62 determine. The appellate court clerk will immediately give the parties and trial court 63 notice of any order granting or denying the petition. If the petition is granted, the appeal 64 will be deemed to have been filed and docketed by the granting of the petition. All 65 proceedings after the petition is granted will be as and within the time required, for 66 appeals from final judgments except that no docketing statement under Rule 9 is required 67 unless the court otherwise orders, and no cross-appeal may be filed under Rule 4(d). 68

(h) Stays pending interlocutory review. The appellate court will not consider an application for a stay pending disposition of an interlocutory appeal until the petitioner has filed a petition for interlocutory appeal.

(i) Cross-petitions not permitted. A cross-petition for permission to appeal a non-final order is not permitted by this rule. All parties seeking to appeal from an interlocutory order must comply with paragraph (a) of this rule.

(j) Record. If the petition is granted, the trial court will prepare and transmit the record under Rule 11 or 12. Any transcript(s) must be ordered in compliance with Rule 11.

The petition must specify the parties seeking review and must designate the respondent(s) and the order or decision, or part thereof, 9 to be reviewed. In each case, the agency must be named respondent. The State of Utah is 10 a respondent if required by statute, even if not designated in the petition. If two or more 11 persons are entitled to petition for review of the same order and their interests are such 12 as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint petition for review and may thereafter 13 proceed as a single petitioner. The agency must electronically file the record within 20 14 days of the request of the appellate courts. 15

(b) Filing fees. At the time of filing any petition for review or cross-petition for review, 16 the petitioner or cross-petitioner must pay the filing fee established by law, unless waived 17 by the appellate court. The appellate court clerk must accept the petition or cross-petition 18 for review regardless of whether the filing fee has been paid. Failure to pay the required 19 filing fee within seven days may result in dismissal of the petition or cross-petition. If a 20 petition or cross-petition for review is filed by email, by mail, or in person without 21 payment of the filing fee, the required filing fee must be paid within seven days or the 22 petition or cross-petition may be dismissed. 23
