Attorney for Petitioner

DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: MELISSA KAYE BROWNING, Petitioner and NEIL KURT PIRWITZ, Respondent	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264905080 Judge: Kara Pettit Commissioner: Michelle Blomquist

The above-entitled matter came before the Court on the Petitioner's Request to Submit for Decision and Affidavit of Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce in accordance with Rule 104 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The parties have submitted all of the appropriate pleadings to the Court. The Court has reviewed the file in this matter and has determined that based upon the Respondent's Acceptance of Service, Appearance, Consent, and Waiver, the Court can proceed to enter this final Decree of Divorce. Having reviewed the applicable laws, and all pleadings, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES:

DIVORCE

1. The parties are awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences. The Petitioner and the Respondent have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making it impossible for the marriage to continue.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

2. The Petitioner is awarded all items of personal property that she currently has in her possession, and the Respondent is awarded all items of personal property that he currently has in his possession.

MOTOR VEHICLES

3. The parties own a 2004 Toyota Camry. There is no debt associated with such vehicle and the vehicle is currently titled jointly in both parties' names. The Petitioner is awarded the 2004 Toyota Camry as her sole, separate, and exclusive property. The Respondent shall sign any documents necessary to transfer title of such vehicle into the Petitioner's name alone.

4. Prior to the marriage, the Respondent acquired a 2019 Toyota Tundra. There is no debt associated with such vehicle and it's currently titled in the Respondent's name alone. The Respondent is awarded the 2019 Toyota Tundra as his sole, separate, and exclusive property.

5. The Respondent owns a 2004 Honda Accord. There is no debt associated with such vehicle and the vehicle is currently titled in the Respondent's name alone. The Respondent is awarded the 2004 Honda Accord as his sole, separate, and exclusive property.

ALIMONY

6. Both parties are fully and completely capable of supporting themselves. In addition, this marriage has been of short duration. Therefore, neither party is awarded alimony from the other.

BANK ACCOUNTS

7. Prior to and during the course of the marriage, the parties maintained separate bank accounts. There is no bank account that is jointly titled. The Petitioner is awarded all bank accounts that are titled in her individual name alone, and the Respondent is awarded all bank accounts that are titled in his individual name alone.

RETIREMENT AND INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS

8. Both parties have retirement and investment accounts through their respective employers, and neither party is making any claim against the accounts of the other. Each party is awarded the retirement and investment accounts that are titled in his or her individual name alone, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

DEBTS

9. Prior to and during the course of the marriage, the parties incurred various debts and obligations including but not limited to student loans and credit card debts. The Petitioner is ordered to pay and be solely responsible for the debts and obligations that are in her individual name alone, and the Respondent is ordered to pay and be solely responsible for the debts and obligations that are in his name alone.

MISCELLANEOUS

10. If either party fails in the performance of any of his or her obligations under this Decree of Divorce, the aggrieved party shall have the right to sue for damages for the breach thereof, or to seek such other legal remedies that may be available to him or her, including attorney's fees being awarded for the breach.
