Petitioner shall notify Respondent of her dates for uninterrupted time by April 15 in odd numbered years and by May 1 in even numbered years. Respondent shall notify Petitioner of his dates for uninterrupted time by April 15 in even numbered years and by May 1 in odd numbered years. If a party fails to timely notify the other of their dates for uninterrupted time, s/he shall lose their preference for that year and shall accommodate the other party's dates for uninterrupted time. Neither party shall schedule uninterrupted time to conflict with a holiday to which the other party is entitled.

7. Effective September 1, 2026, Petitioner shall pay Respondent base child support in the amount of $449.00 per month pursuant to the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines. This amount is calculated using the parties' incomes as outlined herein on a joint custody worksheet, awarding Petitioner with 182 overnights per year and awarding Respondent with 183 overnights per year.

8. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child shall terminate at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code 81-6-213.

9. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

10. If the physical living arrangements of a child changes from what is ordered (not including temporary changes for parent-time or visitation), then pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-205 a parent whom the child is not residing with is required to pay to whoever the child is residing with the amount of support set out above for that parent and described as "the base child support amount." The parent shall automatically begin paying this base support amount without the need to modify this child support order.

11. The base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. The base child support award shall be reduced by 25% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days. Normal parent-time and holiday parent-time with the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement for the non-custodial parent. If the dependent child is a recipient of cash assistance from the state of Utah through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

12. The person entitled to receive child support shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 26B-9-303, and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payers. All withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere. Should mandatory income withholding be implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month.

13. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-212, the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if: (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-212, if the child receives TANF funds at the time and adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

14. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-212, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petitions if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of (1) material changes in custody; (2) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (3) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (4) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (5) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (6) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. The change in (1) though (6) must result in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference must not be of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

15. The parties shall equally divide daycare expenses for the minor children pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-209. A parent who incurs a reasonable work-related child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

Reimbursement shall occur within 30 days of receipt. In addition to any other sanctions imposed by the Court, a parent incurring reasonable work-related child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of expenses if that parent fails to comply with the 30-day requirement.

16. The parties shall equally divide medical expenses for the minor children pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-208. Petitioner currently provides medical insurance for the minor children through her employer. Petitioner shall continue to do so as long as the coverage is available at a reasonable cost. If the coverage is no longer available in the future, the party who can provide the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall provide coverage. The parties shall equally divide the children's portion of the premiums. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case (2). The parties shall equally divide the cost of the children's non-covered medical expenses (including medical and dental care) actually incurred on behalf of a minor child. A parent who incurs the medical expense for the benefit of a child shall provide written verification thereof to the other parent within 30 days of payment. Reimbursement shall be due within 30 days of receipt. In addition to any other sanctions imposed by the Court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expense or to recover the other parent's share of expenses if that parent fails to comply with the 30-day requirement.

17. If the parties choose to double cover the minor children, they shall each pay their own monthly premiums without contribution from the other.

18. If the parties choose to double cover the minor children, Petitioner's policy shall be considered primary coverage for the minor children and Respondent's policy shall be considered secondary coverage for the minor children.

19. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child.

20. The parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have health insurance but another member of the parent's household provides health insurance for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

21. During the course of the marriage, the parties have incurred certain debts and obligations. It is fair and reasonable that each party be ordered to assume and pay the following:

a. Petitioner shall pay: 100% of the mortgage associated with the marital home, after she takes possession of the home; 100% of the credit card debt(s) in her own name; 100% of any debt she incurs after the date of separation;

b. Respondent shall pay: 100% of the credit card debt(s) in his own name; 100% of any debt he incurs after the date of separation.

22. The parties shall notify all joint creditors of the Court's division of debt, obligations or liabilities regarding those joint debts the other is ordered to assume, pay upon and hold the other harmless.

23. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain items of personal property. Personal property of the parties is distributed as follows:

a. Petitioner is awarded: 2014 Subaru Forester, Rusty the dog, her clothing and personal effects;

b. Respondent is awarded: 2007 Dodge Ram, Daisy the dog, his clothing and personal effects;

c. All remaining personal property is awarded to each of the parties as they agree.

24. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources is awarded to the party from whose family it came.

25. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a home located at 556 East 10375 South, Sandy, UT 84070 (“marital home”). Petitioner is awarded the marital home, subject to Respondent’s interest in the equity. Respondent’s portion of the equity shall be determined after completing an appraisal on the home. Respondent’s portion of the equity shall not exceed $99,000.00.

26. The parties shall equally divide the cost of the appraisal on the marital home. The parties shall each pay their half within 14 days of signing this Stipulation. Both parties shall be entitled to a copy of the appraisal.

27. Petitioner shall refinance the mortgage on the marital home to relieve Respondent of his liability thereon within six months of entry of the decree.

28. Payment of Respondent’s portion of the equity in the marital home shall be completed within six months of completion of the appraisal.

29. Respondent shall sign a quit claim, warranty, or other such deed necessary to relinquish his interest in the marital home at the time he receives his portion of the equity.

30. The parties do not own any interest in any business.

31. Neither party is awarded alimony.

32. The parties have joint and separate financial (checking, savings, certificate of deposit, and the like) accounts. The parties shall cooperate to close all joint account(s) and equally divide the balance therein. The parties are awarded the separate accounts in their own names.

33. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired interest in retirement accounts. Respondent is awarded the retirement accounts in his name. Respondent is awarded $125,000 from Petitioner’s retirement account. Petitioner is awarded the remaining balance in her retirement account.

34. The parties shall equally divide the cost of dividing Petitioner’s retirement account. The parties shall pay their half of the expense within 30 days of entry of the divorce decree.

35. The parties shall be entitled to claim an equal number of children each year when there is an even number of children to be claimed, with Petitioner claiming A.W. and Respondent claiming W.W. If there is an odd-number of children which may be claimed for any particular tax year, Petitioner shall receive the extra dependency exemption for the first tax year, and the parties shall alternate years thereafter.

36. Consistent with Utah Code Ann. 81-6-210(4), a party's right to claim any minor child as a dependent for income tax purposes shall be conditioned upon his/her being current in all support obligations by December 31 of the year in which s/he otherwise is entitled to claim a child.

37. Petitioner shall be restored the use of her maiden name if she so desires.

38. Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Divorce Decree entered by the Court.

39. The parties shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees in connection with this action.
