/s/ MATTHEW J HANSEN
District Court Judge

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH WEBER COUNTY
In the matter of the marriage of: DEVIN ANDREW SCHOW, Petitioner, and ASHLI MARIE SCHOW, Respondent.	BIFURCATED DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254900441 Judge Matthew J. Hansen Commissioner Brandon Richards

This matter came before the Court, the Honorable Matthew J. Hansen presiding, for a trial on the parties' competing petitions for divorce on April 17, 20, and 22, 2026, and a ruling hearing on May 18, 2026. There was also a clarification hearing on August 4, 2026.

Legal Custody & Parenting Plan

12. The parties are hereby granted joint legal custody of their child B.M.S.

13. The parties must communicate openly with each other and make decisions jointly. They shall give each other adequate information. Communication must be effective. It must be more than simply communication.

14. The parties are to continue to use OurFamilyWizard or a comparable alternative if OurFamilyWizard is not available. They will continue to pay for their own subscription.

15. Dispute Resolution Process: Ashli is the final decisionmaker for major medical decisions. There should be advance discussion first. If there is no agreement after discussion, then Ashli may decide. If Devin disagrees with the final decision, Devin may request and the parties will be required to work with a professional to resolve that disagreement, whether it be with a professional in the relevant field or a mediator.

16. If Devin still disagrees after the mediation or meeting with a professional with expertise relevant to the dispute, the dispute may be submitted to the Court.

17. The parents are to put the child first and be considerate about funerals and other family events.

18. The parties shall work together to stipulate and implement by court order a parenting plan more detailed than the one the Court provides herein. The question of whether the Court should include more provisions in the parenting plan is reserved for further decision of the Court.

19. In relation to any relocation of 150 miles or more, the provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 will apply.

Child Support

20. Effective May 2026, Devin owes Ashli $280 per month for child support.

21. Effective September 2026, Devin owes Ashli $148 per month for child support.

22. Child support continues so long as the child is not emancipated, married, or a member of the armed forces of the United States.

23. Child support terminates upon the later of the child attaining 18 years of age and graduating from high school in the normal and expected year of graduation.

24. The child support obligor is subject to income withholding through ORS, consistent with Utah Code Ann. Sec. 26B-9-101 et seq.

25. This child support order may be modified in accordance with Utah Code Ann. Sec. 81-6-212.

Child Support Arrears

26. Devin owes (and is ordered to pay) Ashli $333 for child support arrearages.

Health Insurance and Uncovered Medical Costs

27. The parents are required to provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their child. If health insurance is available to the parents at reasonable cost, they are to provide that for the child.

28. The statutory requirements for health insurance and out-of-pocket costs should be included in the divorce decree. The parties have agreed that government benefits are superior. If those benefits are available to Ashli, that is the plan that should be used for the child. Otherwise, whichever party has insurance through employment should provide that insurance for the child. In the event of double coverage, the birthday rule should apply, which makes Devin's coverage primary.

29. Ashli and Devin are to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid for the child's health insurance.

30. Each parent is to equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, therapy, and orthodontic expenses incurred for the child, including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles.

31. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child.

32. The parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium. If the parent does not have health insurance but another member of the parent's household provides health insurance for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

33. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for a child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

34. The parent maintaining health care coverage or insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the child, and after initial enrollment on or before January 2 of each calendar year.

35. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

36. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The court may deny a parent incurring medical expenses the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with this paragraph.

37. The parent seeking reimbursement for medical expenses or insurance premiums is entitled only to half of the amount of money that actually came out of pocket or was deducted from pay.

Childcare

38. Each party will pay their own childcare expenses.

Taxes

39. The parties are to alternate claiming the child for tax purposes. Devin may claim the child for even-numbered tax years beginning with tax year 2026. Ashli may claim the child for odd-numbered tax years, beginning with the 2025 tax year. Each party will be responsible for signing any necessary paperwork to effectuate this arrangement. The party claiming the child must be current on child support for the tax year in question as of December 31 of that tax year. Otherwise, the child support payor forfeits that right, and the child support payee may claim the child for the tax year.

Personal Property and Assets

40. The parties are hereby awarded their personal property as already divided and in their possession or control. Devin will receive the car (Nissan) and any associated indebtedness or responsibility therefor. He shall remove Ashli's name from the car and from any indebtedness on the car within sixty (60) days of the date of this Decree.

41. Each party is hereby awarded their own financial accounts and retirement.

42. There is no real property.

Debt

43. The parties are to be responsible for their own debts in their own names as presently divided, except as otherwise noted herein and except for their child's medical bills or debts. Ashli is responsible to forward any bills of Devin's that may have inadvertently been sent to her, and Devin is to act promptly to ensure that no creditors are sending bills to Ashli or to the prior marital home.

44. Except as otherwise noted herein, Devin and Ashli will pay or resolve and otherwise be responsible for the medical debts in their own names, if any.

Retirement

45. Each party is hereby awarded his or her own retirement accounts, if any.

Attorney Fees

46. Each party is to pay his or her own attorney fees in relation to this matter.

Alimony

47. There is to be no alimony award now or in the future.

Maiden Name

48. Ashli is hereby restored to her maiden surname of Hjorten.

Restraining Order

49. The parties are hereby restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming each other and are also under obligation to prevent or discourage others from doing what they are not allowed to do.

Not Final Order

50. This is not the final order of the Court. Either by stipulation or adjudication, an updated parenting plan will be ordered.

End of order. Electronic signature appears atop the first page.***
