IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of AMANDA BAER KOVAR Petitioner, and KAREL KOVAR, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264900605 Judge Reuben Renstrom Commissioner Brandon Richards

WHEREFORE, the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, and previous pleadings submitted to the Court. Based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

1. Residency: Amanda and Karel are bona fide residents of Weber County, State of Utah, and/or have been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-4-402 and 78A-5-102(1). Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-203.

2. Marriage Information: The parties married on July 7, 2002 in Slovakia.

3. Grounds. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other based on the grounds of irreconcilable differences which have made it impossible for the marital relationship to continue.

4. Children. The parties have one minor child born to them as issue of their marriage, to wit: M.M.K., born July 2009. The parties also have one adult child born to them as issue of their marriage, to wit: K.K.J.K.

5. Home State. Utah is the Home State of minor children, pursuant to the Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act and there are no other proceedings involving the custody of the minor children that are pending or that have been filed in this court or any other court.

6. Legal Custody. The parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of their minor child pursuant to the provisions of the parenting plan set forth herein.

7. Physical Custody. The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the parties' minor child, with each parent designated as having equal parent-time as set forth in the default parent-time schedule below, subject to the priority provisions of paragraph 8.

8. Parent Time. Parent-time with the minor child shall be as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, then parent time shall be as follows:

a. Child-Centered Co-Parenting. The parties acknowledge that they have successfully co-parented the minor child for many years and have together built their lives around supporting her activities, education, and development. Both parties are figure skating coaches and are uniquely familiar with thae demands of the minor child's training and competition schedule. The parties intend that their joint legal and joint physical custody be exercised cooperatively and flexibly, with the minor child's best interests, activities, schedule, and reasonable preferences governing the day-to-day allocation of time, rather than a rigid parent-time schedule. The default parent-time schedule in subsection (f) is intended to operate only as a baseline that applies when the minor child's activities, commitments, and preferences do not otherwise dictate where she spends her time. The parties shall at all times work together in good faith to support the minor child's continued participation in the activities and relationships described in this Section.

b. Minor Child's Age and Maturity. The parties acknowledge that the minor child is seventeen (17) years of age, is in her senior year of high school, and is approaching the age of majority. Consistent with her age and maturity, the parties shall give substantial weight and deference to the minor child's reasonable preferences regarding the scheduling of her time, where she stays on a given night, and how she balances her commitments, provided that both parties retain meaningful involvement in her life. Neither party shall compel the minor child to adhere to the default parent-time schedule in a manner that conflicts with her figure skating activities, school obligations, other extracurricular activities, employment or volunteer commitments, or reasonable social and personal activities.

c. Priority of the Minor Child's Activities and Schedule. Notwithstanding the default parent-time schedule in subsection (f), the following shall at all times take precedence over that schedule, and the default schedule shall apply only during periods when the minor child does not have a conflicting commitment or preference described below:

i. the minor child's figure skating activities, as provided in subsection (e) and in Paragraph 11, if applicable;

ii. the minor child's school schedule, school-related events and extracurricular activities, study and academic obligations, and the requirements of the educational program described in Paragraph 11;

iii. the minor child's other extracurricular activities, performances, and events to which the parties have consented or in which the minor child is already established;

iv. the minor child's reasonable social activities, friendships, and personal commitments; and

v. the minor child's reasonable preferences regarding the use of her time, consistent with subsection (b).

d. No parent shall unreasonably interfere with, discourage, or impede the minor child's participation in any of the foregoing, and the parties shall cooperate and exercise reasonable flexibility so that the minor child may continue the activities and relationships she has historically maintained without disruption caused by the parent-time schedule.

e. Figure Skating Activities. The parties acknowledge that the minor child has been heavily involved in competitive figure skating for many years and that her participation in training, competitions, performances, travel, camps, exhibitions, coaching sessions, and other figure skating-related activities ("figure skating activities") is a significant and important aspect of her life. The parties agree that if the minor child desires to continue participating in these activities that both parents shall continue to encourage, support, and facilitate her involvement. As long as the minor child remains involved in figure skating, the minor child's figure skating activities, including associated travel (domestic and international), shall take precedence over the default parent-time schedule set forth in subsection (f). The default parent-time schedule shall apply only during periods when the minor child does not have scheduled figure skating activities or other priority commitments described in subsection (c).

f. Default Parent-Time Schedule. Subject to subsections (a) through (e), parent-time shall be as the parties and the minor child can agree. When the minor child's activities, commitments, and preferences do not otherwise dictate her schedule, the following default schedule shall apply on an equal, alternating basis, consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-305 unless otherwise stated herein:

i. Amanda shall be entitled to parent-time starting Monday morning and ending Wednesday morning.

ii. Karel shall be entitled to parent-time starting Wednesday morning and ending Friday morning.

iii. The parties shall alternate weekend parent-time starting Friday morning and ending Monday morning.

Parent Time	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun

Week 1	Amanda	Amanda	Karel	Karel	Amanda	Amanda	Amanda
Week 2	Amanda	Amanda	Karel	Karel	Karel	Karel	Karel

iv. Holiday Parent Time. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the holiday parent time shall be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9-302 with Amanda as the custodial parent and Karel as the non-custodial parent, for the holiday schedule only. The parties shall coordinate holiday parent-time around the minor child's figure skating and other priority activities described in subsection (c).

v. Extended Parent Time. Each party shall be entitled to up two weeks of uninterrupted parent-time with the minor child, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break. Extended parent-time shall be scheduled so as not to conflict with the minor child's figure skating activities and other priority commitments; if a conflict arises, the parties shall resolve it consistent with subsection (vi)(5) and Paragraph 8(c).

vi. Notice of Extended Parent Time. Both parents shall provide notification extended parent-time with the child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302(4), as follows:

1. In odd-numbered years, Karel shall provide notice to Amanda by May 1; and Amanda shall provide notice to Karel by May 15.

2. In even-numbered years, Amanda shall provide notice to Karel by May 1; and Karel shall provide notice to Amanda by May 15.

3. If a parent fails to provide notification within the time periods described herein, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the non-complying parent.

4. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described herein, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

5. If conflicts arise with the child's scheduled activities, the parties shall work together to resolve them in a way that allows the child to participate in scheduled activities while ensuring each parent receives their designated extended parent time.

9. Transportation and Exchange. Unless mutually agreed otherwise, transportation and exchange shall be as follows:

a. The exchange shall take place at the child's school at the time the child's school begins. If school is not in session, the party who is to begin parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the child for parent-time at the other parties residence at 9:00 a.m. Each party shall provide reasonable notice to the other parent if they will be unable to be on time for the pickup.

10. Reasonable Accommodations. The parties shall reasonably accommodate schedule changes in the event of unforeseen circumstances related to parent time and shall reasonably accommodate adjustments to the default parent-time schedule necessitated by the minor child's figure skating activities, school schedule, other extracurricular activities, social commitments, and reasonable preferences as described in Paragraph 8. Adjustments to the schedule made to accommodate the minor child's activities or preferences shall not constitute a denial of or interference with parent-time by either party.

11. Parenting Plan.

a. Figure skating Activities. As long as the minor child is involved with figure skating, the following shall apply:

i. The parties shall cooperate in good faith and exercise reasonable flexibility in implementing parent time so that the minor child may fully participate in her figure skating activities without unnecessary conflict or disruption. Neither party shall unreasonably interfere with, discourage, or impede the minor child's participation in any scheduled figure skating activity.

ii. Consistent with the parties' historical practice, both parents shall continue to participate in transporting the minor child to and from training sessions, competitions, performances, camps, exhibitions, coaching sessions, and other figure skating-related events, including events requiring out-of-state or international travel, as reasonably necessary and as mutually coordinated between the parties.

iii. The parties shall timely communicate regarding all known figure skating schedules, including competitions, travel itineraries, training schedules, and related events, and shall share all reasonably available information with one another upon receipt.

iv. Parent time missed due to the minor child's figure skating activities shall not constitute a denial or interference with parent time by either party and shall not automatically entitle either party to make-up parent time unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing by the parties.

v. The parties acknowledge that decisions relating to the minor child's competitive figure skating constitute joint legal custody decisions. The parties shall jointly confer and attempt to reach agreement regarding significant decisions affecting the minor child's participation in competitive figure skating, including, but not limited to: (a) whether the minor child shall continue participating in competitive figure skating; (b) the selection of coaches; (c) the selection of training facilities; (d) participation in competitions; and (e) international travel related to competitive figure skating. In the event the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding any such issue, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in this Stipulation shall apply before either party seeks court intervention.

vi. The costs and expenses associated with the minor child’s competitive figure skating activities, if any, shall be handled pursuant to paragraph 11(n) herein. Shared expenses may include, but are not limited to, coaching fees, ice time, costumes, equipment, competition fees, travel expenses, lodging, meals, passport expenses, visa expenses, and any other reasonable expenses directly related to the minor child's participation in competitive figure skating.

vii. Because the minor child participates in international competitions and travel, both parents shall cooperate in obtaining, maintaining, and renewing the minor child's passport and any visas or other travel documents that may be necessary. Each parent shall timely execute any consent forms, travel authorizations, or other documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the minor child's international travel associated with her competitive figure skating activities and shall not unreasonably withhold or delay such authorization.

viii. The parties acknowledge that the minor child's figure skating commitments may evolve over time and agree to cooperate in good faith to adjust scheduling arrangements as necessary to accommodate her changing needs and opportunities while preserving substantial and meaningful involvement by both parents in the minor child's life.

b. The parties further agree that parent-time missed because of the minor child's figure skating activities, school obligations, other consented-to extracurricular activities, or reasonable social or personal commitments shall not constitute a denial of or interference with parent-time by either party and shall not automatically entitle either party to make-up parent-time unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

c. Day to Day Decisions. The party with the parent-time shall have the authority to make all of the day-to-day decisions for the child.

d. Records. Both parties shall have access to the child's school, church, medical, and other records involving the child and shall include the other party as the parent on such records, unless otherwise stated herein.

e. Medical Decisions. The parties shall continue to use the child's current physicians and specialists that her physicians recommend. Either parent shall be allowed to enroll the child in therapy and/or counseling, after having a conversation with the other parent. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. In case of emergency, the parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

f. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges, text messages, phone calls and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

g. Travel. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor child travels with a parent, the parent shall provide the following information required by Utah Code 81-9-202(19):

i. an itinerary of travel dates;

ii. destinations;

iii. places where the minor child or traveling parent can be reached; and

iv. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor child's location.

h. International Travel. For international travel with the minor child, the parties shall provide each other with at least thirty (30) days' advance written notice, if possible, and shall work together to ensure that passports and other travel documentation are obtained and/or exchanged in a timely and efficient manner. International travel with the child shall require the mutual written agreement of both parties, with consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

i. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other, if that information is not readily available to the other parent. However, each party has an affirmative duty to sign themselves up for the parent communication systems that may be available through the school or activity. Each parent is entitled to be at and participate in the child's events, regardless of who is exercising parent time.

j. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

k. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the residence of the other parent, the parties shall follow Utah Code §81-9-209.

l. Mutual Restraints:

i. Personal Conduct Order. The parties shall not commit, try to commit or threaten to commit any form of violence against the other. This includes stalking, harassing, threatening, physically hurting, or causing any other form of abuse.

ii. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes her best interest.

iii. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult matters in the presence or hearing of the child and shall not permit any third party to do so. The parties shall further refrain from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in the presence or hearing of the child, and shall not question, interrogate, or otherwise attempt to elicit information from the child regarding the other parent's home, activities, or personal life. The parties shall not permit any other person to engage in such conduct iv. The parties shall not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at the child's activity.

v. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, or threatening the other party.

vi. Both parties are restrained from using the name, likeness, image, identification, or credit of the other party for any purpose.

vii. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

m. Advisory Guidelines. The parties shall abide by the advisory guidelines set forth at Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the advisory guidelines and the specific terms and orders set forth in this Stipulation, the terms of this Stipulation shall control and govern.

n. Extracurricular Activities (Non-School Related Activities). The parties shall share, equally, the out of pocket costs of any extracurricular activities in which a child participates provided that both parties give prior written consent. In the absence of prior written consent, the party enrolling a child in an extracurricular activity shall be solely responsible for the cost of that activity. Where an extracurricular activity has been consented to, or where the minor child is already established in the activity, the activity shall take precedence over the default parent-time schedule as provided in Paragraph 8(c), and both parties shall ensure the minor child attends and has appropriate transportation regardless of whose parent-time would otherwise apply. A party may still enroll a child in extracurricular activities without the other party's consent, so long as said extracurricular activity does not unreasonably interfere with the other party's parent-time and the party enrolling the child in said extracurricular activity pays the entire expense of the extracurricular activity.

o. Education Plan. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties in writing or ordered by the Court, the minor child shall continue to attend St. Joseph's Catholic High School in Ogden, Utah. Both parents shall have access to the child during school and authority to check the child out of school. Disputes about education decisions shall be governed by the dispute resolution process herein.

p. School Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. tuition, registration, fees, school sports, books, required supplies, lab fees, school lunch, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school for the minor child. This includes any school related extracurricular activities the minor child may be involved in, including but not limited to school sports such as volleyball, golf, etc. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible.

q. Dispute Resolution. In the event that the parties are unable to agree to major issues related to the joint legal custody of their child and this parenting plan, the following shall apply: (1) the parties attempt to resolve the issue together; (2) if the parties cannot resolve the issue together, then the parties shall rely on a person knowledgeable regarding the issue, such as a school teacher/administration or physician; (3) if the parties still cannot agree, the parties are required to attend mediation and split evenly the cost associated with mediation; (4) If the parties are still unable to agree, then Amanda shall have the presumptive final say on any issues in dispute. If Karel feels that Amanda's decision is not in the best interest of the child, then he may have ten (10) business days to seek review thereof through the court. If Karel seeks review through the court, Amanda's decision on the issue shall be put on hold, absent written agreement or court order. Karel shall have the burden to demonstrate that the decision is contrary to the child's best interest. It shall not be sufficient to demonstrate that an alternative decision may also have been in the interest of the child.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

12. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code §81-6-208 et seq.

a. Amanda's gross monthly income is $5,186 per month. Karel's gross monthly income is $5,186 per month. Based upon a joint custody worksheet and equal parent time, neither party shall owe child support to the other, based on the following:

i. When Amanda has 183 overnights and Karel has 182 overnights, Karel shall pay Amanda $10 in monthly child support

ii. When Amanda has 182 overnights and Karel has 183 overnights, Amanda shall pay Karel $10 in monthly child support

b. Neither party owes retroactive child support to the other.

13. Medical Expenses for the Minor Child. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208 et seq., the parties shall provide a policy of health care coverage for the parties' minor child, as defined by Utah Code § 81-6-101, for the medical expenses of the dependent child.

a. Amanda currently carries the health insurance policy for the minor child and shall maintain said coverage as long as it remains available at a reasonable cost.

b. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor child of the parties in this case. The parent who provides the health insurance may receive an offset or credit against child support that they pay.

c. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.

d. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

e. A parent who incurs medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

f. A parent incurring medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the notice and deadline requirements herein.

g. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

h. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Amanda shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Karel shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

i. Double coverage is not necessary but may be used if mutually agreed to by the parties. If double coverage occurs, then each shall be responsible for their own insurance premium.

14. Child Care Expenses. The minor child is 17 years old and paid childcare is not anticipated. The parents shall make reasonable efforts to personally care for the child during their respective parent time. If childcare is necessary, the other parent is preferred, then unpaid family members are preferred over paid childcare providers where reasonably available. If paid childcare is required during a parent's parent time, that parent shall be solely responsible for the associated costs, absent mutual written agreement otherwise.

15. Allocation of Child-Related Tax Benefits. Beginning with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall be entitled to claim the parties' minor child for federal and state income tax purposes, and any other federal or state income tax benefits, either currently in existence or that may be enacted by future law, including the Child Tax Credit, or similar benefits, in alternating years with Amanda claiming the child in even numbered years and Karel in odd numbered years.

a. If a party is not current in all child support obligations and all other financial obligations herein by December 31st of each tax year, the other party shall be entitled to claim the parties' minor child for federal and state income tax purposes, including any available Child Tax Credit or similar benefits

b. Both parties shall cooperate in assisting one another in claiming the tax deductions awarded to them by executing IRS Form 8332 and any other forms required by the IRS in order to release the tax exemption to the other party for the year(s) which they are entitled to claim. Any such form(s) shall be completed by the parties and exchanged on or before February 15th of each year.

16. Taxes. For 2026 and future tax years, the parties shall be responsible for filing their own tax returns.

17. Postnuptial Agreement. The parties acknowledge that they previously entered into a valid and enforceable Postnuptial Agreement during the marriage and agree that the Postnuptial Agreement shall remain in full force and effect according to its terms. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, neither party waives any rights or obligations arising under the Postnuptial Agreement, and the parties intend for the terms of the Postnuptial Agreement to be incorporated by reference and enforced consistent with its terms.

Amanda shall use good-faith, diligent efforts to secure suitable housing and shall vacate the Marital Home as soon as she is reasonably able to do so after securing such housing.

e. Until Amanda has vacated the Marital Home, the parties shall continue their current living arrangements as follows:

i. Amanda shall continue to reside in and use the upstairs of the Marital Home as her living area;

ii. Karel shall continue to reside in and use the downstairs of the Marital Home as his living area;

vi..
