Attorney for Suzanne Giambrone

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: SUZANNE GIAMBRONE, Petitioner, and PAUL GIAMBRONE III, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264900184 Judge: Richard Daynes Commissioner: Michelle Blomquist

In accordance with Utah Code 81-4-401(2), the above-captioned matter came before the court for consideration absent a hearing. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. Suzanne Giambrone is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Paul Giambrone on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

2. Residency. Mother is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on December 2, 2011, in Mandeville, Louisiana, United States and are presently married.

4. Grounds. The parties are presently married and are obtaining a divorce. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

5. Children. The following are minor children of the parties.

Name	Date of Birth
P.G.IV.	December 2013
C.D.G.	May 2015
C.E.G.	November 2017
E.L.G.	November 2017

PARENTING PLAN

6. Custody/Parent time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

a. Commencing October 2, 2026, for six consecutive weeks, regular parent time shall be as follows:

i. The Father's alternating weekend shall extend Friday after school, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, until Monday morning with drop off to school or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

ii. The Father shall have a midweek visit each Monday from after school, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, until 8:30 p.m.

b. Commencing November 13, 2026, regular parent time shall be as follows:

i. The Father's alternating weekend shall extend Friday after school, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, until Monday morning with drop off to school or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

ii. The Father shall have a midweek overnight after school, or 9 a.m. if school is not in session, on Monday until Tuesday morning with drop off to school, or 9 a.m. when school is not in session.

c. Extended Parent Time During Summer. Extended parent time during the summer shall be as the parties agree or according to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-303.

7. PGAL and Revisit Parent Time. The parties agree the PGAL will continue on the case and will check in with the children upon request of either party. The parties agree to adjust parent time by June of 2027 according to the recommendations of the PGAL. At that time the parties stipulate that either party may Petition the Court to modify parent time without showing a change in circumstance. The parties will follow the status quo parent time until the parties agree otherwise or further order of the court. If and when the parties reassess parent time they will also reassess child support.

8. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years, and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

9. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-303 as follows:

10. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate. After mediation, if the parties still cannot agree Mother shall have presumptive decision-making authority subject to Father's option to have court review based on the best interests of the children. Both parties shall have the authority to make emergency and routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the children and specialists that their pediatrician recommend, when needed.

b. Dental. The parties will use their current dentist as the dentist for the children and specialists that their dentist recommends, when needed.

c. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

d. Educational Plan. The children shall continue to attend school in their current school district, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

e. Therapy. C.D.G. will continue to attend therapy with his current therapist until released by the therapist or mutually agreed upon by the parties. The parties agree to enroll C.E.G. or E.L.G into therapy with a mutually agreed upon female therapist in Odyssey House (or another mutually agreed upon center recommended by the Jordan School District). The parties will defer to the female therapist(s) at Odyssey House the children like. Both parties will engage with the chosen therapist and work to enroll the children in by November 1, 2026. Each party shall ensure the children get to therapy on their respective parent-times. The parties shall participate in therapy as recommended by the therapist. Each party shall pay one-half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. The parties will follow the recommendations of the child's therapist. Any communication to or from the therapist shall be emailed to both parties. Any emails or parent communication that the therapist charges for shall be paid by the parent who initiates the contact.

f. Changing Parent-Time. The parties agree to trade parent time up to three times per calendar year per party with 14-days written notice. Otherwise, there shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing through Our Family Wizard. The parents shall not talk to the children about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change.

11. Relocation. If either party moves more than 40 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209.

12. Our Family Wizard. The parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate and calendar and exchange receipts. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties shall respond within 48 hours of any communication and if a party fails to respond within 48 hours, barring exigent circumstances, the lack of response shall be implied consent. The parties will exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be civil and limited to issues regarding the children. The parties shall abide by the recommendations of the tone meter. The parties will only communicate by text, email, or phone in the event of an emergency, or to handle last-minute changes in exchanges.

13. Co-Parenting Therapy. The parties agree to participate in Co-Parenting Therapy upon request of either party. Each party shall pay one-half of the cost.

14. High Conflict Co-Parenting Course. Both parties will complete the Bill Eddy online high conflict co-parenting course within 6 months of signing this stipulation and will provide verification of the same.

15. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. The children shall be able to contact the parents during reasonable hours for a reasonable duration. Child-initiated communication shall be unrestricted by the parties. Parent-to-child communication shall be limited to once per week from 8:00-8:30 p.m. unless the parties agree otherwise.

16. Travel.

a. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

i. An itinerary of travel dates;

ii. Destination;

iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

17. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

18. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

19. Mutual Restraining.

a. Neither parent shall make disparaging comments about the other parent's household members in front of the child.

b. Neither parent shall smoke or vape with a child indoors or in a vehicle.

c. Both parents shall be prohibited from using illegal or unprescribed drugs.

d. Both parents should be required to properly store medications in a place where children cannot access them.

e. Neither parent shall consume alcohol in excess of the legal driving limit during their respective parent-time.

f. Both parents shall be supportive of the other parent's role as a parent.

g. Both parents shall have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes the children's best interest.

h. Parents shall be restrained from discussing major decisions, parenting issues, or other adult topics in front of the children.

i. Parents shall not discuss any of the children's relationship with the other parent in front of the other children, nor should a parent question, interrogate, or otherwise "pump" the child for information regarding what occurs during the other parent's parent-time.

j. Parents shall not use the child to deliver co-parenting messages to the other parent.

k. The parents shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to the child about the other parent, either verbally, in writing, or some other medium that may be reasonably accessed by a child (such as social media).

l. Both parents shall be mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, surveilling, or threatening the other parent.

m. The parents shall make best efforts not to jump to negative conclusions about the other parent or what is occurring during the parents' time.

n. Both parents shall be restrained from exposing the child to major emotional instability, continuous outbursts, erratic behavior, or involving the child in allegations against the other parent.

o. Both parents shall make best efforts to avoid emotional outbursts in front of the children and/or professional providers for the children (such as doctors, therapists, teachers, etc.).

p. The parents shall ensure any weapons and ammunition are properly locked and stored away so the children cannot access them.

q. Neither parent shall restrict the other from attending school, church, or community activities or programs in which a child is participating, regardless of which parent is exercising parent-time.

r. Neither parent shall record a child for purposes of litigation or ask anyone else to do so unless instructed otherwise by law enforcement, medical professionals, mental health providers, etc.

s. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

t. Both parties shall be restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

u. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

20. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not personally available four hours or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers, activities, playdates and the like that a child chooses to participate in when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

21. Limitations.

a. The people in the respective households and the parties will not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner, or consume alcohol in an amount that exceeds the legal driving limit during their respective parent time.

b. Upon reasonable suspicion, either party shall submit to random alcohol or drug testing at the request of the other party. If a blood test, is requested, the test shall be completed within 18 hours and shall be at a professional facility. The party requesting the test will pay for the cost of the test. If the test is positive or "dirty", the party taking the test shall be responsible to reimburse the requesting party the cost within 30 days. For the purposes of alcohol consumption, "positive" means above the limits previously stated herein. The results of the drug or alcohol test need to be provided within 24 hours of receiving the results. Failure to take the test shall be considered a positive or "dirty" test. If there is a dirty test the parties can take action to ensure the safety of the children up to and including court action. Furthermore, if either party's blood test is positive for meth, alcohol above the stated limit, or other illegal substances, that party will submit to random quarterly hair follicle tests, or PEth tests, at his or her expense for a year.

22. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical, or in the case of an enforcement action.

23. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's new extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Our Family Wizard Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

24. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any internally school-generated costs requiring out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lunch, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

25. Curbside Transportation for the Children. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If the exchange occurs at the residence, the parties shall have a curbside exchange, and the parent with the children shall ensure the children are ready for the exchange in a timely manner. The receiving parent shall pull up in front of the residence and text to announce the arrival. The receiving parent may wait inside the vehicle for the children to come out, but shall remain in a position where he or she can make physical contact with the vehicle at any time. The non-receiving parent shall remain in a position where he or she can touch the front door at all times during the exchange. Neither party will linger or prolong exchanges unnecessarily and expect most exchanges shall be completed in 15 minutes or less.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

26. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $8,411.00 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $5,200.00 per month. Mother has 220 overnights and Father has 145 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation should be $523.00 per month. Child support shall commence October 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

27. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. The Mother is currently providing said insurance.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

28.Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code Annotated §81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children. Surrogate care provided by family members shall not be considered a reimbursable expense. The parties will provide the full name, date of birth and contact information for any surrogate care providers.

29. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are four minor children, the parties will each receive two children as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother will claim the oldest two children and Father will claim the youngest two children.

b. While there are three minor children, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children. Mother will claim 2 oldest children in odd-numbered tax years and the oldest child for even-numbered tax years and Father will claim 2 youngest children in even-numbered years and youngest child for odd-numbered tax years.

c. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Mother will claim the oldest child and Father will claim the youngest child.

d. The party with a child support obligation is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he or she is current on his or her child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

30. Real Property. The parties are selling their home for a reasonable market value price and shall split any proceeds from the home according to the terms of this agreement. The Mother is awarded use of the home until it sells and will make mortgage payments. The parties shall follow the advice of the Real Estate Agent with respect to accepting reasonable offers. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

i. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;

ii. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;

iii. Thereafter, the equity is equally divided between the parties with the exception that Mother shall be awarded $10,000.00 from Father's share. For example, if the remaining net equity is $100,000.00 and each party is awarded $50,000.00 then Mother shall be awarded $60,000.00 (her ½ portion plus $10,000.00 from Father's share) and Father shall be awarded $40,000.00 (his ½ portion minus $10,000.00 from his share to Mother).

31. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties should be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2021 Tesla	Father
2021 VW Atlas	Mother

a. Paul will remove his name from the title on the VW Atlas within 30 days of the signing of this agreement.

b. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation within 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce. After 90 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce or as mutually agreed upon in writing otherwise, each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

32. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
All Debts in Mother's Name Only	Mother
All Debts in Father's Name Only	Father

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

33. PGAL Retainer: Any costs associated with private Guardian Ad Litem shall be divided equally between the parties. The funds withdrawn by Father should be used to pay for the Guardian Ad Litem. Said funds will cover both parties' share of the Guardian Ad Litem.

34. Checking And Saving Accounts. Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts. There are not to open joint accounts at the time of this stipulation.

35. Retirement Accounts. Each party will be awarded the retirement accounts in their own respective name and will waive all claim to the other party's retirement.

36. Business Interest. Father shall be awarded 100% of the business interest in Next Level Performance Training, and 100% of the business interest in Giambrone Cards & Collectibles and all associated income, assets, intellectual property, debts, liability, and tax consequences.

37. Name. Mother will have the option of restoring her name to Suzanne Lee Yingst.

38. Alimony. Neither party should be awarded alimony. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

39. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

40. Divorce Education. The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

41. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of this stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of this Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. This Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

42. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

43. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

44. Final Stipulation. This Stipulation is entire and complete and embodies all understandings and agreements between the parties. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or matters outside of this Stipulation shall have any force or effect. The parties are aware that they have a right to proceed to trial in this matter to present all of their evidence and witnesses, but waive this right. The parties are satisfied that the Stipulation is fair and reasonable. There are no questions the parties have to ask or unresolved issues that need to be addressed. All issues either party wishes to raise have been incorporated in this stipulation.
