Parenting Plan

9. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-203 et seq., the following parenting plan is proposed by the parties and the parties verify that this Parenting Plan is being filed in good faith.

a. The parents shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the minor children.

b. The parents shall discuss with each other and mutually make the significant decisions regarding the minor children, including, but not limited to, the children's present and future physical care, support, education, health care, and religious upbringing.

c. The parties shall refrain from contacting each other in a repetitive, threatening, or harassing manner, or about topics unrelated to the care of the minor children or their mutual financial obligations to one another.

d. Each parent shall allow, encourage, and assist the minor children in communicating with the other parent via phone, Facetime, video conferencing and any other reasonable method to encourage bonding with the parent not currently exercising parent-time. Neither party shall unreasonably or unduly restrict the minor children from communicating with the parent not exercising parent-time.

e. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the children.

f. Decisions made by the parents either mutually or individually shall minimize the disruption of a children's attendance at school and other activities, the children's daily routine, and the children's association with friends.

g. Parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a court-imposed solution.

h. The parent-time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the children's life.

i. The children shall spend holidays, birthdays of family members, vacations and other special occasions with the parties as per the parties' mutual agreement. If the parties are unable to agree to a schedule with regard to holidays and other special occasions, the parties shall follow the guidelines as per Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303, with Jessica acting as the custodial parent and Antonio acting as the non-custodial parent, as set forth herein.

j. The parties agree to refrain from driving under the influence while intoxicated per Utah laws on the subject.

k. The parties agree that if either party reasonably suspects the other of a substance abuse issue, the suspected party shall submit to requested drug or alcohol testing and/or monitoring at their own expense. This provision shall not be used to unreasonably monitor, harass, or interfere with the parent-time of the other party.

l. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents.

m. The parties shall negotiate disagreements in good faith between them and if they are unable to reach an agreement, they shall mediate before resorting to litigation.

n. Shall either parent feel that a decision made under this parenting plan is contrary to the best interests of the minor children, that parent may arrange for mediation of the matter through a mutually agreed upon mediator or mediation service. Should the parents be unable to agree upon a mediator or mediation service, the parent requesting mediation shall arrange for mediation through a Court-approved mediator or mediation service. A written stipulation shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation which shall be signed by both parents and a copy provided to each parent. The parents shall share the costs of mediation equally.

o. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through mediation, unless both parents agree in writing on a different method of dispute resolution, which may include counseling, arbitration, or court review.

p. If the Court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the Court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing party. If a dispute is brought before the Court and there is no finding of "use or frustration of the dispute resolution process without good reason," the Court may order that costs be shared equally and that each parent pay his or her own attorney's fees, or in the Court's discretion the Court may award costs and attorney's fees to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from the mediation or counseling.

q. Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein requiring mediation prior to litigation, if a party requests mediation in writing twice and the other party does not respond or refuses to mediate, the requesting party may proceed to Court.

Child Support

10. The parties' income for child support purposes is as follows:

a. Jessica: $10,219.73/month from her employment at the University of Utah.

b. Antonio: $6,189.58/month from his employment at Takashi.

11. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-204 et seq., Antonio would be obligated to pay Jessica $445 per month child support. However, because Jessica maintains two sources of employment, Antonio agrees to help with the minor children when Jessica has work obligations and, as such, Jessica agrees to an upward deviation of child support calculated at a 50/50 parent time split, resulting in Jessica owing Antonio $257/month child support.

12. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code Ann. 78A-6-801 et seq. The monthly child support shall be paid one- half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month, unless the custodial parent uses the Office of Recovery Services to collect support. Child support due and not paid on or before the 5th day of the month is delinquent on the 6th day of the month. Child support due and not paid on or before the 20th day of the month is delinquent on the 21st day of the month.

13. The person entitled to receive child support shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 62A-11-502 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments shall be sent elsewhere. Should mandatory income withholding be implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month.

14. Child support shall commence beginning the first month following parent-time commencing as detailed in Paragraph 12 herein.

Medical Expenses for Minor Children

15. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-208 et seq., Jessica and Antonio shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor children. The party able to provide the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall do so. Further, Jessica and Antonio shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The parent who provides the insurance coverage shall receive credit against the base child support award for the other parent's portion of the premium, or recover the other parent's share of the premium in addition to the child support obligation. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered by the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

16. Currently, Jessica covers the minor children on her health insurance and intends to do so for the foreseeable future. The amount currently owed to Jessica by Antonio is $100/month for his half of the minor children's health insurance premiums.

17. Jessica and Antonio shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, and therapy expenses of the minor children which are not covered by insurance.

18. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208 et seq.

19. The parent that incurs medical expenses, may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification and payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208 et seq.

20. The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

21. Jessica and Antonio shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated 81-6-208 et seq.

22. Jessica has agreed to insure the minor children for the time being and shall notify Antonio of any necessary changes to that arrangement.

Childcare Expenses

23. Childcare expenses shall be shared pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-6-209.

If the parties share joint physical custody at the time of the proposed relocation, the relocating party must also file a Petition to Modify Custody before seeking any change in the existing custody arrangement.

Tax Exemption for Dependent Children

25. Jessica shall claim both minor children as dependents for the 2026 tax year.

26. Following the 2026 tax year and while both children remain dependents each party shall claim one minor child every year for tax purposes.

27. As such time as only one child remains eligible as a dependent, the parties shall rotate claiming that child, with Jessica claiming the child in even tax years and Antonio claiming the child in odd years.

28. In the event either party does not receive any benefit from claiming the minor child during their tax election year or the other party is in a position to benefit more, the parties may agree to have the party who stands to benefit more claim the minor child(ren) and the parties shall split the realized tax benefit.

29. Jessica shall not be eligible to claim the minor children for tax purposes if any child support obligation is delinquent as of December 31st of the applicable year.
