PARENTING PLAN

This Parenting Plan is being filed in good faith.
This parenting plan is agreed to by Muranda Muchmore and Rayce Layne Muchmore.

Children - custody

(Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 9, Part 3)

7. It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded Joint Legal and Joint Physical Custody. Muranda Muchmore is filing this Parenting Plan and verifies the plan is filed in good faith.

8. The children should reside in Muranda Muchmore's home 200 overnights each year and in Rayce Layne Muchmore's home 165 overnights each year.

9. The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule:

a. The parties agree to Joint Physical Custody of the minor child with the philosophy that the child should have frequent, meaningful, and continuing contact with both parents. While the parties aspire to a fifty-fifty (50/50) time-sharing arrangement, they acknowledge that the child's primary home base shall be with Petitioner. The parties commit to working collaboratively each month to create a flexible parenting schedule that maximizes each parent's time with the child while prioritizing the child's stability, school schedule, and extracurricular commitments. The parties shall develop a mutually agreeable monthly parenting schedule at least two (2) weeks before the beginning of each month. The schedule shall strive for approximately equal time with each parent to the greatest extent practicable, taking into account the child's school schedule, extracurricular activities, and each parent's work schedule. In the event the parties cannot agree upon a monthly schedule, the following default rotation shall apply: The child shall alternate weeks between the parents, with the exchange occurring on Sunday evenings at 6:00 p.m. The receiving parent shall be responsible for picking up the child. During the school year, if the child is with Respondent during the school week, Respondent shall ensure the child is transported to and from school in a timely manner. During the summer months, the parties shall strive for an equal division of time and shall create a summer schedule at least thirty (30) days before the last day of school.

Parent-time for special occasions

10. The parents will follow the schedule for special occasions below. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school. Parent-time transfers

11. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:
The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

12. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

13. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.
Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

14. The school the children will attend is based on Muranda Muchmore's home residence.
15. Muranda Muchmore and Rayce Layne Muchmore has authority to check the children out of school. Muranda Muchmore and Rayce Layne Muchmore has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Muranda Muchmore.

Communication with each other

16. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

17. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

18. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

19. Other terms about communication with the children: Communication: The parties shall communicate primarily through text message, phone call, or a co-parenting application regarding all matters related to the child. Both parties shall respond to parenting-related communications within twenty-four (24) hours. Communication on Important Issues: The parents promise to communicate directly with each other on all important issues affecting the child. Communication shall be timely, respectful, and focused on the child's needs. The parents shall keep each other informed of any significant events, concerns, or developments in the child's life, including but not limited to academic performance, health issues, behavioral concerns, and social activities. Direct Communication: The parents promise to communicate directly with each other regarding all parenting matters. Neither parent shall use the child as a messenger, intermediary, or go-between for communicating with the other parent. All scheduling changes, requests, and parenting discussions shall be conducted directly between the parents.

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.
22. If the children will be travelling for more than 14 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 20 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 10 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.
23. Other agreements about travel by the children: Other agreements about travel by the children: The parties shall annually plan their holiday parenting schedule, striving for a balanced and equitable sharing of holidays between both parents. The holiday schedule shall be agreed upon by November 1st of each year. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, the Utah statutory holiday parenting time provisions under Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-35 shall apply as the default. Holiday parenting time shall take priority over the regular parenting schedule. The parties agree to alternate major holidays (including but not limited to Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Easter, Independence Day, and each parent's birthday) on an annual basis, with Petitioner having first selection in odd-numbered years and Respondent having first selection in even-numbered years. Mother's Day shall always be spent with Petitioner and Father's Day shall always be spent with Respondent. The child's birthday shall be shared between the parents, with the parties cooperating to ensure each parent has meaningful time with the child on or near the birthday.

Child care

24. A child care provider for our children must be:
    A licensed child care provider.
    A relative, friend, or neighbor.
25. Other terms about child care: Other terms about child care: If either parent will be away from the child for a period exceeding four (4) consecutive hours during their scheduled parenting time (excluding school hours and regular childcare), that parent shall first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the child during the absence before making alternative childcare arrangements. The offered parent shall respond within one (1) hour of receiving the offer. If the offered parent declines or does not respond, the requesting parent may make alternative childcare arrangements.

Relocation of a parent

26. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 150 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

27. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parties as follows: If either parent intends to relocate their primary residence more than one hundred fifty (150) miles from their current residence, or out of the State of Utah, that parent shall provide the other parent with written notice at least sixty (60) days prior to the intended relocation date. The notice shall include the intended new address, the reason for the relocation, and a proposed revised parenting schedule. If the non-relocating parent objects to the relocation or the proposed revised parenting schedule, the parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation before petitioning the court for a determination. In the event of a relocation, the parties shall modify the parenting schedule to ensure the child maintains frequent and meaningful contact with both parents. The relocating parent shall bear the majority of transportation costs associated with the relocation unless the parties agree otherwise or the court orders a different allocation.

28. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

29. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

30. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

31. Other agreements about resolving disputes:

b. In the event of a dispute regarding the parenting schedule, exchanges, or any other aspect of parenting time that the parties cannot resolve through direct communication, the parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation with a qualified family mediator. Each party shall bear their own costs for mediation. If mediation is unsuccessful, either party may petition the court for resolution. Pending resolution of any dispute, the existing parenting schedule shall remain in effect.

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

32. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Muranda Muchmore) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

33. Muranda Muchmore's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1750. Muranda Muchmore receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Rayce Layne Muchmore) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

34. Rayce Layne Muchmore's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $6500. Rayce Layne Muchmore receives the following gross monthly income:
35. The adjusted gross monthly income for Rayce Layne Muchmore is $6500.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

36. Muranda Muchmore believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:
The reason(s) for deviation are The parties have agreed to an upward deviation from the guideline-calculated child support obligation. The Utah Child Support Guidelines, as applied to the parties' incomes and corrected joint-physical-custody overnight allocation (Petitioner 200 / Respondent 165), produce a presumptive monthly obligation of $641.00. The parties have stipulated to $707.00 per month — an upward deviation of $66.00. The deviation is supported by: (a) the significant disparity between the parties' respective gross incomes, with Respondent earning $6,500.00 per month and Petitioner earning $1,750.00 per month; (b) the designation of Petitioner's residence as the minor child's primary home base for purposes of school enrollment, mail, and general stability, which causes Petitioner to bear a greater share of the fixed household costs supporting the minor child; and (c) the parties' good-faith assessment of the minor child's actual reasonable needs. Both parties enter this stipulation voluntarily, with full disclosure of their respective financial circumstances, and agree that the stipulated amount is in the best interest of the minor child..
37. It is in the best interest of the children that Rayce Layne Muchmore be ordered to pay child support to Muranda Muchmore as follows:
    a. $707.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.
    b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:
        - a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
        - a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).
38. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

39. Child support will be paid as follows:

Respondent (Rayce) shall pay child support bi-weekly in the amount of $326.00 per pay period. Payment shall be made by direct deposit, Venmo, or other mutually agreed-upon electronic transfer method. Payments are due within two (2) business days following Respondent (Rayce)'s receipt of each paycheck.

40. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

41. Rayce Layne Muchmore will pay any ORS fees. If Muranda Muchmore is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Muranda Muchmore, Rayce Layne Muchmore will reimburse Muranda Muchmore.

42. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

43. The parties will do the following for child related support or expenses:

a. Respondent (Rayce) shall pay child support bi-weekly in the amount of $326.00 per pay period. Payment shall be made by direct deposit, Venmo, or other mutually agreed-upon electronic transfer method. Payments are due within two (2) business days following Respondent (Rayce)'s receipt of each paycheck.

44. The Office of Recovery Services (https://ors.utah.gov/) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

45. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

46. Muranda Muchmore may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Rayce Layne Muchmore may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

47. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Heath care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

48. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:
- Muranda Muchmore's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Rayce Layne Muchmore's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:
- Muranda Muchmore's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Rayce Layne Muchmore's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

49. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

50. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

51. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Additional provisions

60. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

Additional Provision: New Significant Others: Neither party shall introduce a new significant other to the child until at least three (3) months after the entry of the Decree of Divorce, with both parties agreeing that a waiting period of six (6) months is preferable. Prior to any introduction, the introducing parent shall notify the other parent and provide reasonable information about the new significant other.

Additional Provision: All remaining household items and furnishings have been divided to the parties' mutual satisfaction, and each party shall retain all household items currently in their possession. Equalization Payment: Respondent shall pay Petitioner the sum of Twenty-Two Thousand Dollars ($22,000.00) as an equalization payment. This payment shall be made from the proceeds of the refinance of the marital home.

c.

Additional Provision: The parties have agreed that no life insurance requirement shall be included in this Parenting Plan. Each parent may independently choose to maintain life insurance for the benefit of the child, but shall not be required to do so.

Additional Provision: Privacy & Personal Space: Each parent promises to respect the other parent's need for personal space, privacy, and autonomy in their household. Neither parent shall interrogate the child about the other parent's personal life, relationships, or household activities. United Front: The parents promise to present a united front to the child on all major parenting decisions. The parents shall not undermine, contradict, or disparage the other parent's authority or decisions in the presence of the child. When disagreements arise, the parents shall discuss them privately and reach resolution before communicating any changes to the child. Affirmative Support: Each parent promises to affirmatively support the other parent's relationship with the child. Neither parent shall make negative, derogatory, or disparaging remarks about the other parent in the presence of or within hearing distance of the child. Each parent shall encourage the child to love, respect, and maintain a strong relationship with the other parent. Joint Decision-Making: The parents promise to endeavor to make joint decisions on all major issues affecting the child. In the event the parents cannot agree on a major decision after good-faith discussion, the parties shall utilize the Rotating Decision Maker process as outlined herein. Mutual Respect: The parents promise to treat each other with mutual respect in all interactions, whether in person, by telephone, by text message, by email, or through any other form of communication. The parents shall refrain from hostile, confrontational, or disrespectful behavior toward each other, particularly in the presence of the child. Relationships with Relatives: Each parent promises to foster and support the child's relationships with both extended families, including grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins from both sides. Neither parent shall interfere with or discourage the child's relationships with the other parent's family members. Extracurricular Information: Each parent promises to share all information regarding the child's extracurricular activities, including but not limited to practice schedules, game schedules,recitals, performances, and any other events. Both parents shall have equal access to attend and participate in all of the child's extracurricular activities regardless of which parent has physical custody at the time of the event. Logistics Information: Each parent promises to share all logistically important information with the other parent in a timely manner, including but not limited to school schedules, medical appointments, prescription medications and dosages, emergency contact information, and any other information necessary for the proper care and welfare of the child.

Additional Provision: Utility & Subscription Accounts — Each party has 60 days post-decree to establish individual accounts in their own name and is responsible for costs from date of separation forward. Insurance Policy Separation — Each party has 60 days to separate jointly-held insurance policies and obtain individual coverage. Mediation Requirement (from Parenting Plan) — Parties must attempt mediation before filing any motion to modify the Parenting Plan; each party bears their own costs.

Additional Provision: 6.1 Stipulated Alimony Amount The parties have agreed that no monthly periodic alimony shall be ordered. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-501 through §81-4-504, the parties stipulate that monthly alimony shall be Zero Dollars ($0.00), in consideration of the lump sum buyout set forth in Section 6.2 below. 6.2 Lump Sum Alimony Buyout Respondent (Rayce) shall pay Petitioner (Muranda) a lump sum alimony buyout in the amount of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00). The parties have negotiated this buyout in good faith and acknowledge that it is fair, equitable, and supported by adequate consideration. 6.3 Source of Payment The Thirty Thousand Dollar ($30,000.00) lump sum buyout shall be paid from the proceeds of the refinance of the marital residence located at 3917 S 2625 W, Roy, UT 84067. Respondent (Rayce) shall complete the refinance within sixty (60) days of entry of the Decree of Divorce. Payment of the lump sum buyout shall be made to Petitioner (Muranda) at the closing of the refinance, by cashier's check, wire transfer, or other secured form of payment mutually agreed upon by the parties. 6.4 Permanent and Irrevocable Waiver Upon receipt of the Thirty Thousand Dollar ($30,000.00) lump sum payment, both parties permanently and irrevocably waive any and all future claims to spousal support, spousal maintenance, or alimony from the other party. This waiver shall apply regardless of any change in circumstances of either party, including but not limited to changes in income, employment, health, marital status, cohabitation, or any other circumstance that might otherwise support a claim for spousal support. This waiver shall survive the death of either party and shall not be subject to modification by any court. 6.5 Termination Events (For Reference Only) Notwithstanding the lump sum buyout structure, and solely for the avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge that any spousal support obligation otherwise contemplated under this Stipulation shall be deemed fully satisfied upon receipt of the lump sum payment. No termination event shall give rise to any reimbursement, refund, or claw-back of the lump sum buyout. Without limiting the foregoing, the lump sum buyout shall not be subject to refund upon: (a) the death of either party; (b) the remarriage of Petitioner (Muranda); (c) cohabitation by Petitioner (Muranda) in a marriage-like relationship as defined under Utah law; or (d) any other event that might otherwise terminate a periodic alimony obligation. 6.6 Cohabitation (Definitional) For all purposes under this Stipulation, "cohabitation" shall be defined consistent with Utah law as a relationship in which an individual resides with another individual in a relationship analogous to marriage, including but not limited to shared residence, financial interdependence, and a romantic or intimate relationship. 6.7 Tax Treatment The parties acknowledge that pursuant to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, alimony payments — including the lump sum buyout described herein — for divorces finalized after December 31, 2018, are not deductible by the payor and are not includable in the taxable income of the recipient, unless otherwise required by law. The parties shall report this transaction in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state tax law. 6.8 Equitable Considerations Supporting the Buyout The parties acknowledge and agree that the lump sum buyout amount reflects, among other factors: (a) The nineteen (19) year duration of the marriage; (b) The significant disparity between the parties' respective gross monthly incomes (Respondent $6,500.00; Petitioner $1,750.00); (c) Petitioner's part-time employment status and her ongoing efforts to obtain full-time employment; (d) Petitioner's waiver of any claim to the value, equity, goodwill, accounts, or interest in Rayce Performance, LLC; (e) The parties' mutual desire to achieve financial separation and avoid ongoing financial entanglement; (f) The avoidance of future modification disputes regarding alimony. 6.9 No Alimony from Petitioner to Respondent Respondent (Rayce) hereby waives any and all claims to spousal support, spousal maintenance, or alimony from Petitioner (Muranda), now or in the future, regardless of any change in circumstances. 6.10 Enforcement In the event Respondent (Rayce) fails to pay the lump sum buyout in accordance with this Article, Petitioner (Muranda) may pursue any and all remedies available under Utah law, including but not limited to entry of judgment for the unpaid amount, income withholding, contempt proceedings, and any other lawful collection remedies. The non-payment of the lump sum buyout shall not be construed as reviving any periodic alimony obligation; Petitioner's remedy shall be limited to enforcement of the lump sum. 6.11 No Modification This Article VI may not be modified by any court, agreement, or any other means. The parties expressly waive any right to seek modification of the alimony provisions of this Stipulation, and they waive the protection of any statutory or common law principle that might otherwise permit such modification. 6.12 Independent and Voluntary Agreement Each party acknowledges that they have entered into this alimony arrangement voluntarily, after full disclosure of the other party's financial circumstances, with the opportunity to seek independent legal counsel, and without coercion or duress. Each party further acknowledges that the lump sum buyout structure was negotiated through mediation and represents a fair compromise.

Duty to sign documents

61. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
