IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,
IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: CANDACE RACQUEL LEE, Petitioner, and CHADD MICHAEL LEE, Respondent,	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264900923 Judge CONKLIN Commissioner RICHARDS

This matter came before the Court upon the Stipulation of the parties, executed by Candace Racquel Lee and Chadd Michael Lee on June 24, 2026. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and papers on file and the parties' Stipulation, having found the same to be fair, equitable, and reasonable and in the best interests of the minor children, and good cause appearing, now enters the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

JURISDICTION

1. Candace is a resident of Weber County, State of Utah, and has been for at least 90 days prior to the commencement of this action. The parties were married on June 10, 2011 and have since remained husband and wife.

MINOR CHILD STATUS

2. The parties have two minor children: B.L.L. (April 2015) and M.R.L. (Nov 2024). The parties will dispose of the remaining embryos upon the entry of the divorce.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

3. Candace shall be granted a divorce from Chadd on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

4. There is two protective order matters involving the minor children case #2649000356 and #265900713. Furthermore, there is a companion divorce attention filed with Chadd as the petitioner, case #264900863, which will be merged with this matter.

CHILD CUSTODY

5. The parties shall be awarded joint legal and physical custody.

6. The parties understand and agree that it is in the best interests of a child to have constant, frequent and continuing parent-time with each parent.

7. If joint parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree, parent-time shall be minimally as follows:

2-2-5-5 (81-9-305)
Week	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat	Sun
1	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
2	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad
3	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Mom	Mom	Mom
4	Mom	Mom	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad	Dad

8. The parties agree to reevaluate this schedule and potentially adjust a different equal schedule as needed. If the parties cannot agree they will go to a special master or arbitrator to make that schedule change.

9. Chadd's 50/50 parent-time is subject to him completing a mental health and alcohol assessment, remaining sober, and possessing no weapons during parent-time while subject to any protective order or the use of the breathalyzer. Chadd will submit to a breathalyzer like Soberlink or BACtrack to prove his sobriety for two years. Chadd will continue with his AA meetings. In addition, the Chadd will have his first three visits supervised with Mend and Bloom.

PARENTING PLAN

Pick-up and Drop-offs

10. Exchanges will be primarily at school or day care, if not as agreed. If at home, exchanges will be curbside once Max is able to get himself in/out of the car. While a child needs a car seat, the parent that is starting parent-time will retrieve the child from the car seat or put the child into the car seat. Both parents shall behave maturely during exchanges of a child. The parties will not talk about issues concerning the children or the divorce at exchanges. The parents shall also prepare a child for each parent-time exchange by having a child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging a child to spend time with the other parent.

Virtual Parent-Time

11. Both parents shall encourage liberal phone visitations. A child's request to call a parent shall be reasonably accommodated. However, a child shall not unreasonably call or communicate with the parent not exercising parenting-time. If a specific virtual schedule is necessary, the parties will refer this to a special master or arbitrator.

12. Should a parent buy a cell phone for a child to use, a child shall always be able to use this phone to contact that parent. Either parent may restrict the phone's use to that purpose only, but the non-purchasing parent may not take the phone away completely.

Decisions Regarding Raising a Child

13. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of a child shall be made by the parent with whom a child is residing at the time. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of a child. Emergency communication can occur by telephone and will not violate any protective.

14. The parties shall discuss the significant decisions regarding a child, including, but not limited to, a child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. The parents shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child, and where possible, confer before making decisions concerning any of these areas. If the parties cannot reach a mutual decision, the parties shall attend mediation. If after mediation the parties still cannot reach an agreement, Candace will have final say.

Communication between Parties

15. Neither party shall attempt to have a child transfer verbal or written messages between the parties.

16. The parties shall primarily discuss child-related issues through text messages or if necessary, a co-parenting application. All calls, text messages, or emails shall be responded to as soon as possible but no less than 24 hours.

Extended Overnight Trips

17. Both parties shall notify the other whenever they intend to take a child on any overnight away from their parent's home. The parties will provide an emergency contact during these overnight trips.

Contact Information and Records

18. Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

School Functions and Social Activities

19. Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions the child attends.

Illness

20. The parties shall notify the other when the child is ill. Prior to the exchange of a child who is ill, the parties shall discuss regular parent-times and shall reasonably accommodate the sick child. If the parties cannot agree, regular parent-time shall not be affected. A parent shall not use the child's illness to frustrate parent-time.

Parent-Time Respect

21. The parties shall not schedule or promote an activity that falls on the other party's parent-time without first obtaining permission from that party in writing.

Non-interference with the Parties' Personal Lives

22. Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority, and control of the other party, except as doing so impacts the care of the child, as set forth herein.

23. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other party.

Relatives

24. Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued. Any visitation by relatives shall be done during the scheduled parent-time of the parent to which they are related.

Relocation of a Parent

25. The parties will need to seek a petition to modify if either parent is going to move any distance that makes 50/50 parent-time not workable.

Right of First Refusal

26. If either parent has to leave a child with a babysitter, caretaker, or any other person for more than three (3) hours, that parent shall allow the other parent the right to care for a child during that time. However, neither party anticipates the need for daycare since neither party is working.

Mutual Restraining Orders

27. It is fair and reasonable that both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent, or speaking to a child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of a child for the other parent.

28. Both parties shall also be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

29. The parties shall not do drugs or drink alcohol in excess while in the presence of a child. The Respondent and Petitioner shall not be drunk, high, or hung-over while in the presence of a child.

30. It is fair and reasonable that both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations or shall remove a child from such circumstances.

Adjustments or Modifications

31. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes can be made whenever the parties agree.

Child support shall continue until a minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during their normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

45. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of (Chadd) shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of (Candace) shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

Child Care Expenses

46. The parties shall share the equal division of childcare expenses, and such expenses shall be reimbursed by the notified party within thirty (30) days of receipt of childcare invoices, receipts, and/or bills.
