12. Upon reasonable suspicion of alcohol use, Kassidy may request Braeden take a breathalyzer test. Braeden shall complete the test within an hour of request and shall pay the upfront cost. If the test comes back negative, Kassidy shall reimburse Braeden for the entire amount of the test. If Minor Children are recipients of Temporary Aid to Needy Families, any agreement by Parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

F. Pursuant to Utah Code, Sections 81-6-104 and 81-6-205, each parent's child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes. The child support obligation of the father shall be $910. The child support obligation of the mother shall be $1,181. (Exhibit 1.)

G. If a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent may move the Court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there is a non-temporary difference of at least ten percent between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's new support amount that would be required under the guidelines and the new order adjusting the ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines.

H. A parent may at any time petition the Court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial, non-temporary, change in circumstances, resulting in a difference of fifteen percent or more between the payor's ordered support amount and the new support amount that would be required under the guidelines.

I. Braeden shall provide Kassidy information regarding his bonuses each year to determine if a change in child support is appropriate.

PROVISIONS REGARDING EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

B. Both Parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for Minor Children and actually paid by Parties.

C. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

D. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

E. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent’s share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with subparagraphs C and D above.

F. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half of the
