IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT,

Petitioner, Julie Lyle, by and through counsel, hereby submits the following Divorce Decree based on evidence provided in support thereof by the Stipulated Settlement Agreement of the parties. The Court, having received, reviewed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and now being fully advised in the premises, does HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. DIVORCE GRANTED: The parties are hereby granted a Decree of Divorce, thereby severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties. Said Decree is to become final upon entry in the official records of the clerk of Weber County, State of Utah, automatically and without further action by the parties.

2. JURISDICTION: This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter as a result of the following:
    a. RESIDENCY: Petitioner was a bona fide resident of Weber County, Utah, for at least three (3) months immediately preceding the commencement of this action.
    b. MARRIAGE STATISTICS: Petitioner and Respondent were married on 08/06/2006.
3. GROUNDS: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.
4. REAL PROPERTY: The parties have no real property.
5. CHILDREN: The parties have no children.
6. DIVORCE: The parties agree that their marriage shall be dissolved and that a Decree of Divorce may be entered consistent with the terms of their Agreement.
7. PERSONAL AND MARITAL PROPERTY: Except as specifically provided below, the parties represent that they have already divided their personal and marital property to their mutual satisfaction. Each party shall retain as his or her sole and separate property all property currently in that party's possession or previously distributed to that party. Neither party shall have any further claim to property retained by the other, except for the specific items identified in Section 8 below. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own property and shall execute any documents reasonably necessary to confirm the division of property reflected in their Agreement and this Decree.

8. SPECIFIC PROPERTY NOT CURRENTLY LOCATED:

    a. Petitioner's Winchester Rifle: The parties acknowledge that Petitioner is the owner of a Winchester pump-action rifle believed to be Model 1906 or Model 1890. The parties are not certain of the precise model number. The Respondent presently represents and warrant that they do not know the location of the rifle and have not sold or pawned the rifle. If Respondent later discovers, locates, receives, or comes into possession or control of the rifle, Respondent shall promptly notify Petitioner and shall make the rifle available to Petitioner for its lawful return or transfer. Nothing in this Decree shall require either party to possess, transport, or transfer the firearm in violation of any applicable law.

        i. Liquidated Damages: Respondent represents and warrants that he is not in possession of the Winchester rifle, has not sold the Winchester rifle, has not pawned the Winchester rifle, or transferred the Winchester rifle. If it is later discovered and established in court upon clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent has sold, pawned, or transferred the Winchester rifle the Respondent shall pay the Petitioner a liquidated damages of $5,000. This liquidated damages provision shall not apply to any property that was located in the parties' storage unit and was subsequently sold as a result of a default in payment for the storage unit.

b. Respondent's Critical Mass Amplifiers: The parties acknowledge that Respondent is the owner of Respondent's Critical Mass and Kenwood amplifiers. The parties presently represent that they do not know the location of the amplifiers. If Petitioner later discovers, locates, receives, or comes into possession or control of the amplifiers, Petitioner shall promptly notify Respondent and shall return or make the amplifiers available to Respondent.

    i. Liquidated Damages: Petitioner represents and warrants that she is not in possession of the Critical Mass or Kenwood Amplifiers (Amplifiers), has not sold the Amplifiers, has not pawned the Amplifiers, or transferred the Amplifiers. If it is later discovered and established in court upon clear and convincing evidence that the Petitioner has sold, pawned, or transferred the Amplifiers the Petitioner shall pay the Respondent a liquidated damages of $5,000. This liquidated damages provision shall not apply to any property that was located in the parties' storage unit and was subsequently sold as a result of a default in payment for the storage unit.

c. No Representation Regarding Location: Neither party represents or warrants that he or she presently possesses, controls, or knows the location of the property identified above. The parties agree that the present inability to locate these items shall not delay entry of the Decree of Divorce. If either party locates the above identified items they shall promptly return the items to the other parties.

9. DEBTS: The parties represent that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no marital debts remaining that require division between them. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debt presently held in his or her own name or previously assigned to or incurred by that party. If any debt is later discovered that was not known at the time their Agreement or this Decree was entered, the party who incurred or created that debt shall be solely responsible for payment of the debt and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from that debt. Neither party shall incur any new debt or obligation in the name of the other party.
10. ALIMONY: Petitioner and Respondent each knowingly and voluntarily waive any claim for alimony or spousal support from the other. Neither party shall owe alimony or spousal support to the other. The parties intend this waiver to be permanent and to be incorporated into the final Decree of Divorce.
11. PROPERTY ACQUIRED AFTER SEPARATION/DIVORCE: Except as otherwise specifically stated in this Decree, property acquired by either party after the parties' separation or after entry of the Decree of Divorce shall be that party's sole and separate property.
12. PERSONAL EFFECTS: Except for the property specifically identified in Section 3, each party acknowledges that he or she has received his or her personal effects and property or is satisfied with the property presently in his or her possession. Neither party shall make any additional claim against the other for household goods, furnishings, electronics, tools, clothing, personal effects, or other tangible personal property.

13. TAXES: Each party shall be individually responsible for his or her own tax obligations arising after the divorce. Any previously filed tax return shall remain subject to applicable federal and state tax law.
14. FURTHER DOCUMENTS: Each party shall sign and deliver any additional documents reasonably necessary to carry out the terms of their agreement and this decree.
15. ENFORCEMENT: If either party fails to comply with the terms of their Agreement or this Decree, the other party may seek enforcement through the court as permitted by law.
16. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Decree shall become effective when signed and approved and incorporated into the Decree of Divorce by the Court.
17. NAME CHANGE: Petitioner shall have her last name changed and restored to her former name “Gallegos” if she so desires.
