Attorney for Tammie Stapp

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF TAMMIE STAPP And JARED STAPP	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901312 Judge: Jason Nelson Commissioner: Brandon Richards

Tammie Stapp ["Tammie"] having filed a Petition for Divorce against Jared Stapp ["Jared"], and the parties having reached a final resolution by filing a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement resolving all issues; and the Court having entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law with this Decree;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

1. DIVORCE: That the parties should be granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.

2. NAMES: Because the parties share the same last name, they are referred to by their first names to avoid confusion, meaning no disrespect by the apparent informality to-wit: Petitioner ["Tammie"] and Respondent ["Jared"]. Janson v. Janson, 2019 UT App 106.

3. CHILDREN: These orders pertain to the following children born to the parties, to-wit:

   a. A.T.S. born on October 1, 2009,

   b. B.G.S. born on July 28, 2013; and

   c. G.D.S. born on May 14, 2019.

1. CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME:

   a. Legal Custody: Tammie and Jared shall be awarded joint legal custody, care and control of the minor child.

   b. Physical Custody: Tammie and Jared shall be awarded joint physical custody, care, and control of the child subject to the parent time outlined herein.

   c. Parent time:

      i. Jared shall exercise parent time each week on Tuesdays and Fridays, commencing at the time the minor child's school is regularly dismissed and continuing until 9:00 p.m.

      ii. In addition, Jared shall exercise parent time on alternating weekends, commencing on Friday at the time the minor child's school is regularly dismissed and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

      iii. If the minor child is not in school on a scheduled parent-time day, Jared’s parent-time shall begin at 5:00 p.m., unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing.

      iv. The parties acknowledge that Tammie's work schedule may change from time to time. In the event Tammie's regular workdays change, the parties shall adjust Jared's weekday parent time to correspond with Tammie's workdays while maintaining the same parenting-time structure of two weekday periods each week and alternating weekends.

v. The parties have three minor children. As each child reaches the age of sixteen (16), they may freely travel between the parties' respective homes without adherence to a fixed parent-time schedule, provided that they keep both parents reasonably informed of their whereabouts and overnight plans. The parties acknowledge that this flexibility is intended to accommodate the child's age and maturity and is not intended to modify physical custody.

vi. Parent-Time Flexibility. Jared may pick up the minor children earlier than the regularly scheduled commencement of his weekday or weekend parent-time when he is available and the children are available, provided he gives Tammie reasonable advance notice. Jared may also exercise overnight parent-time during his regularly scheduled weekday or weekend parent-time by reasonable advance notice to Tammie, provided the overnight does not materially interfere with the children's school attendance, activities, or previously scheduled commitments.

d. Holiday Parent Time. The parties are awarded holiday parent-time consistent with Utah Code Ann. §81-9-304(15) as follows:

e. Summer-Parent time:

i. Summer parent-time shall be exercised as the parties mutually agree, taking into consideration the children's activities and schedules. If the parties are unable to agree, each party shall be entitled to two (2) consecutive weeks of extended summer parent-time each year.

ii. In odd-numbered years, Jared shall have first priority in selecting his extended summer parent-time and shall provide written notice of his selected dates to Tammie no later than May 1. Tammie shall then provide written notice of her selected dates no later than May 15. In even-numbered years, Tammie shall have first priority in selecting her extended summer parent-time and shall provide written notice of her selected dates to Jared no later than May 1. Jared shall then provide written notice of his selected dates no later than May 15.

iii. During either party's extended summer parent-time, that party may use reasonable childcare while working or otherwise temporarily unavailable. The right of first refusal contained elsewhere in this Agreement shall apply only if the exercising parent will be unavailable overnight.

iv. The regular weekday and weekend parent-time schedule shall be suspended during either party's extended summer parent-time and shall resume immediately upon its conclusion. Holiday parent-time shall take priority over extended summer parent-time.

b. Relocation: Tammie's residence shall remain the children's primary residence for school enrollment purposes. Tammie shall stay in the house until Berrett graduates. If at any point after Berrett gradates Tammie wishes to move, she can move within 45 minutes of Jared. Each party shall provide the other with at least thirty (30) days' written notice before changing residences. A change in residence shall not modify the custody or parent-time schedule unless the parties agree in writing or the Court orders otherwise. If either party's move creates additional transportation expenses or responsibilities, the relocating party shall be responsible for them. Any relocation governed by Utah Code § 81-9-209 shall comply with that statute.

c. Parent-Time Exchanges:

i. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, the parent beginning a period of parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the minor children at the commencement of that parent-time.

ii. If either party is unable to personally transport the minor child and intends to have a third party provide transportation, they shall notify their co-parent in advance and provide the third party's full name, telephone number, and relationship to their co-parent.

2. DECISIONS FOR THE MINOR CHILD.

a. Day-to-day decisions: With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the child during his or her designated parent time shall have the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the child without consulting with the other parent. As pertaining to the day-to-day decisions the parties recognize that each parent may have their own parenting style their own rules, and their own style of discipline. As long as such decisions do not threaten the health, safety and wellbeing of the child, each parent will respect the decisions of the other parent and give each other the due deference that they equally deserve.

b. Major Decisions: With respect to major decisions such as those matters pertaining to the health, education, and religion of the child, the parties shall confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters. Should a dispute arise relating to these matters (i.e. the health, education, or religion of the child), the parties shall adhere to the following dispute resolution procedure:

c. Notice: The parties shall notify one another no later than forty-eight (48) hours of being made aware of an issue that requires a decision pertaining to these matters to be made.

d. Information: The parties shall exchange all relevant information and/or documentation pertaining to the matter in dispute.

e. Joint Discussion: The parties shall discuss the matter in good faith, considering each other's perspectives, the best interests of the child, and, when appropriate, the child's own views. Communication regarding the issue shall occur promptly, and the parties shall engage in ongoing discussion within no more than 48 hours of the matter arising.

f. Consultation: The parties shall then consult with a relevant professional or expert in the area of dispute, or other mutually agreed third party.

g. Mediation: If the parties still cannot come to an agreed upon final decision they shall attend mediation.

h. Court Review: If the parties still cannot come to an agreed upon final decision, they can take the matter to the Court for review to determine what is in the best interests of the minor child.

3. PARENTING PLAN: The following parenting plan is only for the purposes to help the parties, as the parties have joint physical and legal custody. The parties shall use the Parenting Plan as a guide to-wit:

a. COMMUNICATION:

ii. Both parties shall update the other party of any basic travel updates, child related matters, parenting arrangements, right of first refusal notices, educational or medical information directly relating to the child.

iii. If one parent chooses to not acknowledge a question, voice an opinion, or respond then the parent asking the question, or asking for an opinion shall interpret no response as the other party does not have an opinion on that specific matter.

iv. Communication about Adult Issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties have a significant other/marry, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse or any other third party. In the event that communication with our child regarding Adult Issues becomes necessary, it shall be done jointly with my Co-parent.

v. Communication with my Co-parent shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.

vi. Communication with my Co-parent shall only be about our child and any concerns or issues relating to our child.

vii. Communication with our child shall not disparage, harm or alienate my Co-parent. Communication with our child shall positively reinforce the good qualities of my Co-parent.

viii. I shall Confer with my Co-Parent on Major Decisions and Moderate Decisions and utilize Advance Notice and Reply Notice.

ix. I shall create my own relationships with our child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends. I shall obtain Child related information for myself and freely exchange this information with my Co-parent.

x. I shall notify my Co-parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency. I shall notify my Co-parent when our child is ill and shall not utilize it as a means to interfere with parent-time. My Co-parent is competent to care for our child during illness. Nevertheless, our child's comfort should be placed ahead of my desires. I will give details on medication for our child and any dosages necessary. I will administer properly prescribed medication as instructed.

xi. Our child has one life and two homes. He will reap the benefits from knowing that both of us know about, and are involved in, his significant life events, whether those are positive or negative. To foster consistency, predictability, stability and continuity of care for Child, we will communicate regularly regarding his routines, activities and experiences. I know that in order to make this situation as beneficial as possible for our child, I will not be verbally abusive in any way while communicating with my Co-Parent.

xii. All communications, written or otherwise, will be child-focused, cordial and to the point about the child. We will remain courteous and polite in communications with each other at all times. In addition, we will refrain from including information that reflects our personal opinions and feelings about the other parent and concentrate on deciding what is in our child's best interests. Any concerns or questions are permitted and will be presented neutrally without blame or criticism. There will be mutual respect for differences in parenting style and approach between the homes.

xiii. I shall allow our child to have liberal phone and other contact with my Co-parent during reasonable hours. This shall not be abused by either parent (a short phone call or contact a day is plenty for our child so it will have to be plenty for me too). I shall not take away the phone my co-parent and I have agreed to provide for our child without first discussing doing so with my co-parent.

4. PASSPORTS FOR THE CHILD

a. Jared shall provide all current passports for the minor children to Tammie within seven (7) days after signing this Stipulation. Tammie shall maintain possession of the passports.

b. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining or renewing passports for the minor children as needed. Tammie shall complete the applications and obtain any required photographs. Jared shall timely provide any required information, signatures, or personal appearance and shall return any documents requiring his signature within seven (7) days after receiving them.

c. Jared shall pay the reasonable fees associated with obtaining or renewing the minor children's passports.

d. Tammie shall make the passports reasonably available to Jared when needed for approved travel with the minor children. Jared shall promptly return the passports to Tammie after the travel is completed.

2. SCHOOL DECISIONS.

a. The child shall continue to attend his school and feeder schools based on Tammie's residence as the primary residence.

b. Both parties are to refrain from talking negatively about the other parent to any teacher or school administrator.

6. MEDICAL DECISIONS.

a. Dental:

i. Tammie will be responsible for continuing to set up the child's regular six month check ups with the dentist.

ii. If there is any specialty dental work that needs to be done for the child then Tammie is responsible for relaying all of the information to Jared, and for any specialty work the parties will work together to ensure that both parties can participate in any follow up care for the child.

b. Orthodontics:

i. If at any point the child is need of orthodontics, either one of the parties can inform the other party if they feel this is an issue.

ii. Tammie and Jared will both have an input on orthodontists. Tammie will have the final say on who the orthodontist will be based upon location and convenience for the appointments, but will give weight to Jared's opinion and reasons for who he wants the orthodontist to be.

iii. The parties shall also work together on any appointments the child will have. No matter whose parent time the appointment falls on that party will make sure that the child makes it to his appointment.

iv. If it works out best, and both parents have a desire to be involved in the orthodontic procedure then the parents can alternate who takes the child making it every other appointment they trade off.

v. If this becomes a problem, then Tammie will be the responsible party for all orthodontic appointments until the issues can be resolved.

c. Medical:

i. Tammie shall be responsible for the yearly checkups for the child.

ii. If the appointment is for something more serious than a yearly checkup for the common cold or flu, the parties will work together to ensure that both parents can be involved in the child's care if they desire.

iii. For any major decisions such as tonsils, broken bones, cancer, the parties will discuss the options, communicate with the professionals and then work together for the best benefit of the child.

iv. If Jared disagrees with the final decision, he will have the right to take Tammie to mediation to try and resolve the issue prior to taking her to court.

7. SPECIAL EVENTS: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, vacations, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule. I shall not abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission.

8. MISCELLANEOUS PARENTING PROVISIONS:

a. Alcohol During Parent-Time:

i. Through June 1, 2028, neither parent shall consume alcohol during that parent's parent-time, while in the presence of the minor children, or while otherwise responsible for the care, supervision, or transportation of the minor children.

ii. No later than May 1, 2028, the parties shall confer in good faith regarding whether the alcohol-related provisions of the Decree should be modified after June 1, 2028.

iii. Any agreed modification shall be set forth in a written stipulation signed by both parties and submitted to the Court for approval. Unless and until a modification is approved by the Court, the existing alcohol-related provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

iv. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, they shall participate in mediation before either party seeks relief from the Court, except in the event of an emergency or other circumstance requiring immediate judicial intervention.

v. If mediation does not result in an agreement, either party may file an appropriate request for the Court to determine whether the alcohol-related provisions should be modified.

vi. Regardless of any future modification, neither parent shall consume alcohol to a degree that diminishes that parent's judgment, coordination, alertness, reaction time, or ability to safely supervise the minor children. Neither parent shall transport the minor children after consuming alcohol or while impaired by alcohol, drugs, medication, or any other intoxicating substance.

b. Alcohol Storage During Parent-Time:

i. During either parent's parent-time, all alcoholic beverages and other intoxicating substances shall be stored in a secure location that is not readily accessible to the minor children.

ii. Neither parent shall leave alcohol or other intoxicating substances unattended in any location reasonably accessible to the minor children, including refrigerators, coolers, vehicles, countertops, cabinets, garages, or outdoor areas.

iii. Any violation of this provision shall constitute grounds for immediate suspension of parent-time pending further Order of the Court and may be considered evidence that the violating party has placed the minor child's safety and welfare at risk.

c. Travel And Local Relocation:

i. Traveling out of State: If I travel with our children out of state, I will give my Co-parent at least 14 days or as soon as possible advance notice and provide them with a phone number and address for emergencies. When travelling I will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with my Co-parent and provide the following information to my co-parent prior to the travel taking place:

1. Travel dates;

2. Destination;

3. Where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and,

4. The name and telephone number of an available person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

d. Local Address Change: I shall provide my Co-parent current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address as long as an active Protective Order is not in place against the other party.

e. Activities:

i. Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of our child.

ii. If I have joint physical custody of our child then it is my duty to ensure that our child has the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. If I am selfish in how my parent-time is spent this cannot occur—as I enjoy a substantial portion of our child's time. If I do not have joint physical custody of our child then it is still my duty to ensure our child has the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. If I am selfish in how my parent-time is spent this is less likely to occur. Therefore, it is encouraged that I cooperate and listen to our child's wishes and desires regarding the activities our child would like to participate in.

iii. I realize that there will be times that activities and/or events will fall on my parent-time. We recognize the importance of Child being able to celebrate special occasions with family and good friends and every effort will be made for him to attend. This applies when either of us would like to have the Child for a special occasion when the scheduling of this occasion is out of our control.

iv. I will not withhold fun activities our child would like to participate in just because it is my parent-time. I acknowledge that if I do so it is more about me than our child and will correct the decisions to reflect what is in the best interest of our child.

v. I will not withhold birthday parties, family parties, school parties, activities or events our child would like to participate in just because it is my parent-time. I acknowledge that our child wants to have friends and with friends comes social activities including events, activities, extracurricular activities and parties.

vi. I can enroll our child in activities that do not require involvement of my Co-parent. By doing so I recognize my Co-parent will not be sharing the cost and understand that the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

vii. When Child participates in "public events" and both of us and/or our guests attend, Child will be directed by the resident parent to connect with the non-resident parent before and after the event. The resident parent will communicate to Child that he can take a few minutes after the event to speak to his non-resident parent and the resident parent will be waiting for him. Both parties will be cordial whether it is verbal or non-verbal.

viii. I shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with my Co-parent prior to talking with our child about any activity that I want them to be involved in.

ix. I shall help our child to complete any homework our child has received during my parent-time.

x. I shall make our child's activities comfortable and enjoyable for our child, and remember that my own needs are inferior.

f. Graduation Trips for the Children:

i. Jared shall pay up to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) toward a graduation trip for each of the parties' children upon that child's graduation from high school.

g. Environment:

i. While caring for our child I shall not consume any intoxicant or other substance to impairment nor permit third parties to do so.

ii. I shall not smoke in the presence of our child nor permit third parties to do so.

iii. While caring for our child I shall not have any inappropriate or explicit viewing material available or on while the child is in my care. This is to include but not limited to unacceptable materials based on the age of the child that could be viewed on the television, computer, laptop, cellphone, IPAD or any other electronic device. I will also not have any inappropriate materials within reach such as book, pictures, etc.

iv. While caring for our child I shall prevent a rotating door of the opposite sex meeting our child, staying in the home overnight including having sleepovers with a partner. I acknowledge that our child is young and impressionable and meeting multiple partners/friends of his parents can be confusing and teach him values that we do not want to instill in our child.

v. I shall prevent anybody from disparaging my Co-parent or other individual significantly bonded to our child. I shall control my own extended family and make sure that their conduct and behaviors are consistent with these terms.

h. Clothing, Belongings And Cellphones:

i. We will each have toiletries, pajamas and as many belongings as possible for Child in our own homes. These items will not travel back and forth.

ii. We will ensure that any clothing, electronic devices or toys that move between the two homes rotate freely and are returned promptly.

i. School Supplies, Backpacks, Homework:

i. We shall ensure that any school supplies, backpacks for school, and homework move between the two homes freely and are returned promptly.

ii. The parent with the parent time on school days shall ensure that the child completes all necessary homework, projects and reading assignments so the child does not get behind, and so the other parent is not doing all of the homework.

j. Social Media:

i. We shall protect the privacy and safety of Child and each other by limiting Child's exposure on social media:

1. The privacy settings shall be adjusted so that only family and/or close friends can view the photographs of Child.

2. Neither of us shall post on social media comments about our co-parent or disputes between us. This includes any derogatory references about coparenting or suggestions our co-parent is incompetent, incapable, unsafe, and/or unstable.

3. Family members and friends shall be expected to comply with the above terms.

k. Daycare/Surrogate Care/Right Of First Refusal:

i. If either parent will be unavailable to personally care for the minor children overnight during that parent's scheduled parent-time, that parent shall first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the children. The parent exercising the right of first refusal shall be responsible for transportation.

ii. If the co-parent is unable to take advantage of the right of first refusal, if the child is left with surrogate care, each parent shall provide:

2. Provide the other parent with the name, current address and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the court for good cause orders otherwise.

l. Vehicles/ Insurance/ Cellphone:

i. Vehicle:

2. The parties shall work together when the child is ready to have a vehicle of his own to purchase him a vehicle.

3. The parties shall mutually agree before purchasing a vehicle for any minor child. Jared shall be solely responsible for the vehicle's insurance premiums, registration expenses, maintenance, and reasonable repairs. No vehicle shall be purchased in either party's name, or create a financial obligation for either party, without that party's prior written consent.

4. Jared shall maintain the vehicle's insurance coverage through his insurance provider and all registration expenses, and shall ensure that the updated insurance card is in the vehicle.

5. The child's vehicle shall be allowed to be driven by the child to and from both homes for his parent time with both parents.

6. Both parents shall help the child pay for gas if he does not have employment of his own.

ii. Auto Insurance For The Minor Child: Jared shall provide proof of the auto insurance every six months to Tammie and shall ensure that the child's vehicle has an up-to-date insurance card in it.

iii. Cellphone:

1. We acknowledge that facetime and telephone communication are alternate forms of access that can be beneficial for Child. Child shall not be provided an actual cell phone until Tammie feels that he is of age to have one, whether it be a gab phone or a cell phone.

2. Jared shall pay all phone expenses including the cost of the phone and the phone plan.

3. Neither parent shall take away the child's phone for any period long enough making it so the other parent cannot communicate with the child.

4. All phone calls with the child shall be left up to the child, the child's age to be considered, attention span and how long he wants to talk for.

5. The parents shall give the child privacy when he is speaking to the other parent, and neither party shall monitor the phone calls.

m. Stepparent/Partner: I understand that a stepparent is likely to be involved at some point with our child—whether by myself or through my Co-parent. I will value the positive aspects of any stepparent introduced into the relationship. I shall ensure any stepparent I introduce to the relationship does not overstep their limited role. The role of a stepparent is to support, not supplant, a Co-parent.

9. HEALTH INSURANCE: Tammie shall maintain available medical, dental, and vision insurance for the minor children and shall be solely responsible for all premiums and all reasonable uninsured or unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, prescription, deductible, copayment, and other health-care expenses incurred for the minor children.
10. INCOME TAXES: Each party may file separate income taxes for 2026 and every year afterwards.
11. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS: Tammie is awarded the right to claim all of the children every year.
12. CHILD SUPPORT DEVIATION:

    a. The parties acknowledge that, under the Utah Child Support Guidelines and based upon the parties' respective incomes and the custody arrangement established herein, Jared would ordinarily have a monthly child-support obligation payable to Tammie, as reflected on the Child Support Obligation Worksheet attached hereto.

    b. The parties knowingly and voluntarily agree to deviate from the presumptive child-support obligation. The parties agree that Jared's child-support obligation shall be

Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month, representing One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month for each of the parties' three minor children.

c. Jared is presently obligated to make monthly settlement payments to Tammie pursuant to the terms of this Decree. In lieu of Jared making a separate monthly child-support payment, Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) of each monthly settlement payment made by Jared to Tammie shall be specifically allocated and deemed paid as child support for the parties' minor children.

d. Upon receipt of each monthly settlement payment listed in paragraph 17(f), Tammie shall transfer Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) allocated as child support into separate accounts maintained for the benefit of the parties' minor children, with One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) deposited monthly into each child's respective account. The funds shall be maintained and used for the respective child's needs and benefit, including personal, educational, extracurricular, transportation, clothing, entertainment, and other reasonable child-related expenses.

e. In addition to the foregoing, each parent shall remain responsible for providing appropriate financial support for the minor children during that parent's respective parent-time and for payment of the children's expenses as otherwise specifically allocated between the parties under this Decree.

f. The parties agree that the foregoing deviation is appropriate and in the best interests of the minor children based upon the parties' overall financial circumstances, the allocation of the children's expenses under this Decree, the property and financial obligations allocated to each party, and the financial resources available to each parent.

g. The parties respectfully request that the Court approve the foregoing deviation from the Utah Child Support Guidelines and incorporate the deviation into the Decree of Divorce. 4. ALIMONY: Neither party is awarded alimony. Tammie waives any claim for alimony from Jared, and Jared waives any claim for alimony from Tammie. The parties intend these mutual waivers to be final.

5. GLOBAL BUSINESS AND PROPERTY SETTLEMENT: The parties acknowledge that various business entities, business interests, business accounts, and other marital assets were established, acquired, or maintained during the marriage. The parties have negotiated the following global settlement to resolve Tammie’s claims to Stapp Construction and the other business and marital-property interests awarded to Jared under this Agreement.

i. $250,000.00 on or before January 1, 2027;

Her remaining rights shall be limited to enforcement of Jared's payment obligations under this Agreement.

d. Continued Payment Obligation. Jared's sale, transfer, dissolution, merger, refinancing, restructuring, or other disposition of Stapp Construction shall not terminate, reduce, delay, or otherwise affect his obligation to make the payments required under this paragraph.

vi. Nature of Obligations. The payments required under this paragraph constitute a contractual division and settlement of marital property. They are not child support or alimony and shall not terminate or be reduced because of the emancipation of a child, Tammie's remarriage or cohabitation, Jared's retirement, or a change in either party's income or financial circumstances.

vii. Modification. The obligations contained in this paragraph may be modified only by a written agreement signed by both parties.

viii. Prepayment. Jared may prepay all or any portion of the obligations without penalty. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, a partial prepayment shall be applied to the payments due at the end of the applicable payment schedule and shall not alter the amount or due date of the next regularly scheduled payment.

ix. Enforcement. If Jared fails to make a payment required under this paragraph, Tammie may enforce the obligation under the Payment Mechanics and Enforcement provisions of this Agreement.

Tammie is hereby awarded one hundred percent (100%) of all retirement, pension, deferred compensation, annuity, brokerage, investment, and financial accounts presently titled in either party's name, whether individually or jointly held, including but not limited to all 401(k) accounts, IRAs, Roth IRAs, SEP accounts, pensions, profit-sharing plans, stock accounts, mutual funds, cryptocurrency holdings, employee retirement plans, and all other investment or retirement assets of any nature whatsoever.

d. Any gains, losses, interest, dividends, appreciation, or depreciation occurring after the date of this Agreement and/or Decree shall belong solely to Tammie.

e. Jared shall fully cooperate with the preparation of any Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO"), including promptly providing any information or documentation reasonably requested. Jared shall review and either approve the proposed QDRO or provide any objections in writing within seven (7) days of receipt. Any objections shall be limited to whether the proposed QDRO is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. Upon approval, Jared shall execute any documents necessary for the QDRO to be submitted to the Court and the applicable plan administrator without unnecessary delay.

f. To the extent necessary, the Court shall retain jurisdiction to enter additional orders and QDROs necessary to effectuate the intent of this provision.

7. VEHICLES: The parties acknowledge that a significant number of vehicles were purchased during the marriage. The parties agree to transfer any title or registration of a vehicle in their name awarded to the other party within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Decree.

8. LIFE INSURANCE SECURITY FOR PAYMENT OBLIGATION:

a. As security for Jared's unpaid obligations under Paragraphs 21 of this Agreement, Jared shall maintain life insurance naming Tammie as the irrevocable beneficiary in an amount equal to the total remaining unpaid balance of those obligations.

b. Jared shall maintain his existing life insurance policy with a death benefit of $2,000,000.00 for so long as the policy remains available. If the existing policy expires, terminates, or becomes insufficient to secure the remaining unpaid balance, Jared shall obtain replacement or supplemental coverage sufficient to secure that balance.

c. The required death benefit may be reduced as Jared makes payments and the outstanding balance decreases, but it shall not be reduced below the total amount then remaining due under Paragraphs 21.

d. Jared shall provide Tammie with proof of coverage and beneficiary designation annually and within ten (10) days after any written request. Jared shall not cancel, encumber, materially modify, or permit the required coverage to lapse while any secured obligation remains unpaid.

e. If Jared fails to maintain the required coverage, Tammie may obtain replacement coverage, to the extent reasonably available, and Jared shall reimburse her for the cost. Tammie may also seek immediate judicial enforcement, including injunctive relief, entry of judgment, attorney fees, and costs.

f. If Jared dies before all secured obligations are paid, the remaining unpaid balance shall become immediately due and payable from the life insurance proceeds and, to the extent those proceeds are insufficient, from Jared's estate.

9. PAYMENT MECHANICS AND ENFORCEMENT:

a. All payments required under Paragraph 21 shall be made by electronic transfer, cashier's check, or another traceable form of payment to an account or address designated in writing by Tammie.

b. A payment shall be considered timely when received by Tammie or deposited into the account designated by her. If a payment is due on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal holiday, it shall be due on the next business day.

c. If Jared fails to make a payment when due, Tammie shall provide him written notice of the missed payment. Jared shall have ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the notice to make the payment.

d. If Jared does not cure the missed payment within the ten-day period, Tammie may seek enforcement of the payment obligation, including entry of judgment for any past-due amounts and recovery of reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in enforcement.

e. Tammie's acceptance of a late or partial payment shall not modify the payment schedule or waive her right to require future payments to be made as provided in this Agreement.

f. Jared may prepay all or any portion of the remaining obligation without penalty. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, a partial prepayment shall reduce the remaining balance but shall not change the amount or due date of the regularly scheduled payments.

g. Each party shall maintain reasonable records of all payments made or received and shall cooperate in confirming the remaining balance upon written request.

10. DEBTS:

a. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each party shall be solely responsible for all debts and liabilities incurred in that party's individual name, together with all debts associated with any property, vehicle, account, or business awarded to that party. Each party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other harmless from all debts assigned to that party.

b. Any debt not specifically addressed in this Agreement shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred the debt or received the primary benefit from it. Any undisclosed debt shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred or failed to disclose it. This allocation shall not affect the rights of any third-party creditor.

11. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER:

This "non-negative, non-disparaging, non-derogatory" provision includes all communication between the parties or to third parties, whether by text message, email, direct phone calls, voice messages, live video, face-to-face communications, or social media.

g. Both parties shall be restrained from entering the other's residence without the other party's permission or knowledge.
