Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the matter of the marriage of RACHEL STUCKMAN and CODY SCOTT STUCKMAN	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901510 Judge: Reuben J. Renstrom Commissioner: Brandon Richards Tier 4

Petitioner "Rachel" having filed a Petition for Divorce against the Respondent "Cody"; the Respondent having filed an Answer and the parties having reached a final resolution by filing a Stipulation resolving all issues; and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

1. DIVORCE: That the parties should be granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.

2. MARRIAGE: Petitioner and Respondent are husband and wife and are lawfully married to one another.

3. GROUNDS: Irreconcilable differences have arisen during the marriage, making continuation of the marital relationship impossible and impracticable despite the parties' best efforts. The parties separated on December 28, 2014.

4. CHILD: The parties are the legal parents of one minor child, Jericho Asher Stuckman, born March 3, 2013. No other child is expected to be born to the marriage.

5. CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME:

a. Custody. It is in the minor child's best interest that the parties be awarded joint legal custody and that Petitioner be awarded sole physical custody. Except as specifically stated below, the parties should follow the advisory guidelines applicable to joint legal custody under Utah Code §81-9-202.

b. Regular Schedule. The minor child should be with Petitioner during the school week, except each Wednesday from 2:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m., when the child should be with Respondent. The child should spend alternating weekends with the parties from Friday at 3:30 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m., with Respondent receiving the first weekend following entry of the Decree of Divorce.

c. Changes. Changes to the regular or holiday schedule should be made only by mutual agreement of the parties.

d. One-Day Holidays. Labor Day, Columbus Day, Halloween, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, New Year's Day, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents' Day, Memorial Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Juneteenth National Freedom Day, Independence Day, Pioneer

Day, the child's birthday, and each parent's birthday should be divided equally each year through coordination between the parties, so long as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree they should follow the statutory guide.

e. School Breaks. Petitioner should have the child for spring break in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should have the child for spring break in even-numbered years. Petitioner should have the child for fall break in even-numbered years, and Respondent should have the child for fall break in odd-numbered years.

f. Winter Break. Petitioner should have the first half of winter break through December 26 at midnight in even-numbered years and the second half beginning December 27 in odd-numbered years. Respondent should have the first half of winter break through December 26 at midnight in odd-numbered years and the second half beginning December 27 in even-numbered years.

g. Summer. The regular parent-time schedule should continue during summer unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.

h. Transfers. The parties should make arrangements for the child's pick-up, delivery, and return before each scheduled parent-time period. Transfers need not be curbside, and the person dropping off or picking up the child may accompany the child to the other parent or designated person.

i. Day-to-Day and Emergency Decisions. Each parent should make day-to-day decisions during that parent's time with the child. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the child's health or safety but should notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

j. Education. Petitioner should have final decision-making authority concerning education if the parties cannot agree. The child's school should be determined by Petitioner's residence. Both parents should have authority to check the child out of school after notifying the other parent, access the child during school, and receive school records and information.

k. Health Care and Religion. The parties should make major health-care and religious decisions jointly. If they cannot agree then Petitioner shall have final say. If the Respondent does not agree then they should mediate where practical.

l. Communication. The parents may communicate with each other by any reasonable method. They should provide age-appropriate assistance for the child to communicate privately with the other parent and should not interfere with or monitor those communications. The child may communicate with either parent by any reasonable method whenever the child chooses.

m. Records and Providers. Both parents should have access to the child's education, child-care, and health-care records and may consult directly with the child's providers.

n. Travel. During a parent's time, that parent may consent for the child to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by himself, or with others. If travel will exceed three days, the arranging parent should give at least five days' advance notice and provide the itinerary, locations, and telephone numbers at least three days in advance, or as much notice as reasonably possible in an emergency.

o. Child-Care Providers. A child-care provider should be a licensed provider, a relative, friend, or neighbor, and should be over the age of fifteen (15).

p. Dispute Resolution. If a dispute concerning the child arises, the parties should first discuss it in good faith and attempt to reach an agreement based on the child's best interest. If they cannot agree, they should participate in arbitration before seeking non-emergency relief from the Court.

q. Relocation. Neither parent should relocate the minor child 150 miles or more from the other parent's residence without a written agreement signed by both parties or further order of the Court. A relocating parent should comply with the written-notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209. If the parents reside 150 miles or more apart, they should share the child's parent-time travel expenses equally, subject to any contrary order based on support delinquency or other statutory considerations. Reimbursement should be made within thirty (30) days after receipt of supporting documents.

6. CHILD SUPPORT:

a. Petitioner's Income. For child-support purposes, Petitioner is voluntarily unemployed and should be imputed gross monthly income of $3,000.00, based on an earning capacity of $17.31 per hour.

b. Respondent's Income. Respondent is employed by the United States Department of Defense at Hill Air Force Base and earns gross monthly income of approximately $6,959.00.

c. Agreed Deviation. Respondent should be ordered to pay Petitioner child support of $400.00 per month. This amount deviates from the Utah Child Support Guidelines because Respondent will maintain the minor child on this medical insurance plan and will pay 100% of the premiums for the minor child's medical insurance coverage. The parties agree that the deviation is fair, reasonable, and in the minor child's best interest.

d. Payment. Respondent should pay child support by deposit into Petitioner's America First Credit Union account on the first day of each month, beginning on the first day of the month following entry of the Decree of Divorce, unless otherwise ordered.

e. Duration. Child support should continue until the child turns eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, unless the obligation terminates earlier by law because of the child's death, marriage, military service, or emancipation.

f. Recalculation. When the child is no longer eligible for support, the obligation should terminate or be recalculated as required by Utah law.

g. Past-Due Support. Any issue concerning past-due child support should be reserved for later judicial or administrative determination.

h. ORS Fees and Income Changes. Respondent should pay any Office of Recovery Services fees attributable to his obligation and reimburse Petitioner for any such fee withheld from her payment. Each party should notify the other within thirty (30) days of a material change in income.

7. HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES:

a. Coverage. Under Utah Code §81-6-208, Respondent should maintain the minor child under Respondent's medical insurance plan. Respondent should be responsible for maintaining such coverage and ensuring that the minor child remains enrolled under Respondent's medical plan.

b. Premiums. Respondent should be solely responsible for and pay one hundred percent (100%) of the premiums attributable to the minor child's medical insurance coverage.

c. Uninsured Expenses. The parties should equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, prescription, deductible, coinsurance, and copayment expenses for the child.

d. Verification and Reimbursement. The party who pays health-care expense should provide written verification to the other within thirty (30) days, and reimbursement should be made within thirty (30) days after receipt. A party who fails to provide timely verification may be denied reimbursement or credit.

e. Double Coverage. If the child is covered under both parents' plans, Petitioner's plan should be primary and Respondent's plan secondary. A step-parent's plan should be treated as the remarried parent's plan for this purpose.

f. Annual Verification. The parent maintaining coverage should provide verification to the other parent and to ORS, if involved, on or before January 2 of each year and should give notice of any change in coverage within thirty (30) days.

8. CHILD-CARE EXPENSES: Under Utah Code §81-6-209, the parties should equally share reasonable work-, career-, or occupational-training-related child-care expenses. The paying party should provide written verification of the provider's identity and the expense, and the other party should promptly pay one-half. The paying party should disclose any change in provider or monthly expense within thirty (30) days.

9. INCOME TAX DEPENDENCY BENEFIT: Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child for federal and state income-tax purposes in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should be entitled to claim the child in even-numbered years, subject to Utah Code §81-6-210 and the parties' timely execution of any required IRS Form 8332.

10. REAL PROPERTY: The parties have no real property that is marital property and do not require an order dividing real property.

11. PERSONAL PROPERTY: All personal property not otherwise identified should be divided as the parties have already divided it, and each party should be awarded the personal property presently in that party's possession.

12. DEBTS: The parties are not aware of any marital debts. If any undisclosed debt exists, it should be assigned to the party who incurred it, and that party should indemnify and hold the other harmless from the debt.

13. ALIMONY: Neither party should be awarded alimony, whether past, present, or future.

14. RETIREMENT BENEFITS: Respondent should be awarded, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner, his Thrift Savings Plan held through the United States Department of Defense, opened approximately May 15, 2006, with a reported value of $291,844.16. The plan administrator is the Thrift Savings Plan, P.O. Box 1600, Newark, New Jersey 07101-1600. Each party should otherwise retain any retirement account held in that party's individual name.

15. ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS: Each party should pay that party's own attorney fees and costs if this matter remains uncontested. Petitioner reserves the right to seek reasonable attorney fees and costs as permitted by law if the matter becomes contested or enforcement is required.

16. TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AND DOCUMENTS: Each party should, within sixty (60) days after entry of the Decree of Divorce, deliver property awarded to the other and sign all documents reasonably necessary to implement the Decree. If a party fails to sign a required document, the Court may appoint another person to sign under Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

17. MUTUAL CIVIL RESTRAINTS: Each party should be restrained from bothering, harassing, threatening, or harming the other; maligning or defaming the other; interfering with the other's relationships; disparaging the other to or in the presence of the minor child; alienating the child from the other parent; or wasting, concealing, transferring, encumbering, or damaging any disputed marital asset pending final resolution.

18. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS:

a. Further Assurances. Each party should execute and deliver any document reasonably necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

b. Mandatory Courses. Under Utah Code §§81-4-105 and 81-9-103 and Code of Judicial Administration Rule 4-907, parties must complete the applicable divorce-orientation and parenting courses unless excused by the Court. A current notice is attached as Exhibit 1.

c. Mediation. If an Answer is filed, the parties should participate in at least one mediation session as required by Utah Code §81-4-403, unless excused. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, the parties should equally divide the mediator's fee.

d. Custody Evaluation. If custody is contested and the Court determines an evaluation is appropriate, the evaluation should proceed under Code of Judicial Administration Rule 4-903 and Utah Code §81-9-204, with costs allocated as the Court determines.

e. Disclosure and Discovery. The parties are notified of Rule 26.1 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The current text of the rule is attached as Exhibit 2 and must be served with the initial Petition.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment as follows:

1. Granting Petitioner a Decree of Divorce from Respondent consistent with the allegations and requested relief in this Verified Petition;
2. Entering the custody, parent-time, child-support, health-care, child-care, tax, property, debt, retirement, and other orders requested above;
3. Awarding attorney fees and costs as permitted by law; and
4. Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.
