Attorney for Jennie Summer-Nelson

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: JENNIE KATHERINE SUMMER-NELSON and KRISTOPHER NELSON	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901560 Judge: Camille Neider Commissioner: Brandon Richards

Jennie having filed a Petition for Divorce against Kristopher; Jennie and Kristopher having worked together to reach a mutually agreeable stipulation prior to the need for Kristopher to file an Answer; and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

·1 DIVORCE: That the parties are granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.

·2 NAMES: Because the parties share the same last name, they are referred to by their first names to avoid confusion, meaning no disrespect by the apparent informality to-wit: Jennie Summer-Nelson [“Katie”] and Kristopher Nelson [“Kristopher”]. Janson v. Janson, 2019

UT App 106.

·3 CHILD: These orders pertain to the following child born to the parties, to-wit: C.N., born August 04, 2015.

·4 LEGAL CUSTODY:

·5 Legal: The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the child, more particularly described in the parenting plan herein.

·6 PHYSICAL CUSTODY AND PARENT TIME: Katie is the primary custodian of the minor child. The parties agree to the following parent time schedule:

·7 Kristopher shall have the minor child every Wednesday from 5:30 PM to 8:30 PM. In addition to the weekday visit, Kristopher shall have every other weekend, starting Friday at 5:30 PM and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 PM.

·8 The parent whose parent time is beginning shall retrieve the minor child from the home of the parent whose parent time is ending.

·9 The parties acknowledge that the minor child is of a sufficient age to be given some autonomy regarding the parent time schedule and shall respect the minor child's preferences. Moreover, neither parent shall use the minor child's preference on parent time or the fact that the parents do not follow the parent time schedule as a means to file a contempt action, or seek a contempt action, against the other parent.

·10 At the conclusion of each parent's time with the minor child, that parent shall ensure that the minor child has her backpack, school supplies, lunches, or whatever else is reasonably necessary for the minor child to attend and have what they need during school without any significant disruption.

·11 During the school year, each parent is responsible to ensure that the minor child's homework is completed during their respective parent time.

·12 Holiday Parent Time: Holiday parent time shall be consistent with the chart below:

·13 Transportation of the child: The parties shall share equally in transportation for parent-time as set forth above. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, parent-time exchanges shall take place at the parties' residences. Unless otherwise agreed upon by both parties in writing, parent time exchanges shall be curbside.

·14 PARENTING PLAN:

·15 COMMUNICATION/INFORMATION:

·16 Communication about Adult Issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that regardless of marital status, the parties shall continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse or any other third party. In the event that communication with our child regarding Adult Issues becomes necessary, it shall be done jointly with my Co-parent.

·17 Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by both parents, all communications shall occur via text message. In case of a medical emergency involving the minor child, the parties shall immediately communicate the circumstances of the emergency, where they are taking the minor child for emergency medical care, and all other reasonably relevant information that is necessary to keep the other parent informed. Regardless of whose parent time during which a medical emergency occurs, each parent has the right to be present as the minor child received emergency care.

·18 Even after the parties' minor child emancipates, all communication between the parents shall be civil, free of profanity, harassing comments, or other comments aimed to annoy, bother, or create turmoil.

·19 All communications between the parents shall strictly limited to issue directly regarding the minor child.

·20 Once the parties' minor child emancipates, unless otherwise agreed in writing, the parties shall not communicate unless it matters strictly related to the Financial Issues in the Decree of Divorce. All such communications are subject to all relevant provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan.

·21 Communication with our child shall not disparage, harm or alienate my Co-parent.

·22 Under no circumstances shall the parents speak negatively about the other parent to the minor child, or within earshot, of the minor child. Neither parent shall allow any third party to engage in conduct of which is prohibited by the Parenting Plan and each parent has an affirmative obligation to remove the child from any situation in which any third party is violating any provision of the Parenting Plan.

·23 Each parent shall create their own relationships with the minor child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends and shall obtain child related information directly from the third party.

·24 The parents acknowledge and agree that the parties' child has her own cell phone and the parties agree to equally share the cost of her cell phone and cell phone services until she graduates from high school.

·25 Until the minor child graduates from high school, the parents shall equally share the cost of the minor child's automobile insurance and both shall equally contribute to providing gasoline in her vehicle.

·26 The parties shall equally divide the costs of the minor child's school registration, school lunches, club and drama fees, and any other reasonable school related expenses and fees.

·27 DECISION MAKING/DISPUTE RESOLUTION:

·28 Each of us shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, we shall seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both of us shall be provided with such input.

·29 If we cannot agree after making a good faith effort to come to an agreed upon decision Katie shall have the presumptive decision-making authority. This level of authority shall allow Katie the right to make a preliminary decision that shall be communicated to Kristopher.

·30 If Kristopher believes that the decision is contrary to the best interests of the child, he has the right to seek review thereof through court. Kristopher has the burden to demonstrate that the decision is contrary to the child's best interests. It shall not be sufficient to demonstrate that an alternative decision may also have been in the interest of the child.

·31 TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL AND LOCAL RELOCATION:

·32 I shall have our child ready and able to leave with my Co-parent at the scheduled time for pick-up. I understand that my Co-parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. I shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness. I shall make the transition quickly, without fanfare or drama. If either party is more than 60 minutes late to retrieve the child then parent time for that is waived and that parent's visitation shall begin the next day at the conclusion of school, or, if there is no school then at 9:00 AM.

·33 If I travel with our child and will be away from home for an overnight period, I shall give my Co-parent at least 72 hours advances notice and provide them with a phone number and address for emergencies. When travelling I shall make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with my Co-parent. If our child requires a passport for travel, we shall both assist in obtaining our child's passport.

·34 I shall provide my Co-parent current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address (change not affecting parent-time or transportation).

·35 ACTIVITIES:

·36 Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of our child. The parent shall retrieve this information directly from the source and shall not rely on the other parent to provide such information.

·37 I shall make reasonable efforts for our child to attend special family functions. The term “special family functions” means activities that are outside normally scheduled family activities or events such as funerals of close family members, weddings of close family members, family reunions, and other similar unique events. I shall not abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission.

·38 I shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with my Co-parent prior to talking with our child about any activity that I want them to be involved in.

·39 I shall make our child’s activities comfortable and enjoyable for our child, my own needs are inferior.

·40 ENVIRONMENT:

·41 While caring for the minor child, Kristopher shall not consume any alcohol.\

·42 During parent time, neither party shall ingest any substance to the point of impairment.

·43 I shall prevent anybody from disparaging my Co-parent or other individual significantly bonded to our child. I shall control my own extended family and make sure that their conduct and behaviors are consistent with these terms.

·44 CHILD SUPPORT:

·45 That for child support purposes Katie’s gross monthly income, which includes bonuses, call back time, and overtime is $4,000.

·46 That for child support purposes Kristopher’s gross monthly income, which includes bonuses, overtime, and per diem is $12,000.00.

·47 Child support is calculated based on the parent time schedule set forth above.

·48 That Kristopher's child support obligation to Katie is $1,046.00 per month.

·49 That the child support obligation shall commence October 1, 2026.

·50 The child support is due ½ by the 1st and ½ by the 15th of each month.

·51 That the child support obligation shall continue until i) a minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18); or ii) until the child has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation - whichever occurs later.

·52 HEALTH INSURANCE AND UNINSURED HEALTH EXPENSES:

·53 Kristopher shall continue to provide health insurance coverage on behalf of the minor child for so long as coverage is available to him through employment at a reasonable cost. In connection with this policy, Katie shall be allowed to communicate directly with the health insurance company and receive all documents or information regarding the minor child's health insurance, bills, policies, or any other information regarding the minor child available to the insurance company. Kristopher shall complete and sign any forms necessary in order to effectuate this authorization.

·54 If a party is unable to insure the child as a result of a job loss, job change, disability or the cost of insurance becomes unreasonable, the parties shall determine which parent will insure the child in the most reasonable cost effective manner.

·55 The parties shall equally share the cost of the minor child's health insurance coverage consistent with Utah Code Ann. 78B-12-212, or its equivalent updated statute.

·56 Each parent shall make arrangements to pay their portion of the minor child's out of pocket medical, mental health, dental, optical, orthodontic, or therapy expenses directly to the provider. If, and only if, the provider fails or refuses to allow each parent to make direct payments to them, shall the parents pay the other parent's portion to the provider.

·57 If either party incurs any out-of-pocket health, mental health, dental or vision care, orthodontic, therapy or other such expense on behalf of the child, he or she shall submit proof of payment and a billing statement to the other party within thirty (30) days of incurring the costs. The other party shall have thirty (30) days to reimburse his or her share of the bill to the other parent.

·58 Each year, the insuring party shall provide the other person with a written copy of the insurance policy(ies) and insurance cards for the child.

·59 EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: The parties agree that the minor child may continue to participate in fencing and that the parents shall equally divide all reasonable costs for her participation in fencing, including equipment, meets, matches, or the like, and necessary uniforms. For extracurricular activities beyond fencing, the parties shall equally divide the cost of the minor child's participation as long as the parties both agree in writing prior to the minor child participating in the extracurricular activity. Each parent shall directly pay the league/organizer their half of the fees and costs in a timely fashion for all agreed upon extracurricular activities. If a parent does not agree to an extracurricular activity, and the minor child's participation in the activity does not interfere with the other parent's parent time, that parent may enroll the minor child in the new extracurricular activity but shall bear 100% of the cost associated with minor child's participation. Each parent shall support the minor child in their extracurricular activities by transporting them to practices, games, recitals, or other team planned functions during their respective parent times.

·60 SCHOOL LUNCHES, FEES AND CELL PHONES: The parties shall equally divide the out-of-pocket costs of the minor child's school lunches, school registration fees, and any club or other fees related to the minor child's participation in school or school sponsored activities.

·61 TAXES:

·62 Commencing in 2026 and each year thereafter, the parties shall file separate state and federal tax returns.

·63 The tax deductions for the minor child shall be handled as follows:

·64 Commencing the 2026 tax year, and in all even years thereafter, Kristopher is awarded the state and federal tax deductions for the minor child. Starting in 2027 tax year, and in all odd years thereafter, Katie may claim the minor child for all state and federal deductions. The parties shall follow this rotation until the minor child can no longer be claimed as a tax dependent.

·65 REAL PROPERTY: The parties own a home and real property, located at 3266 N. 100 E., North Ogden, Utah 84414 (hereafter "Marital Home").

·66 Katie is awarded the sole and exclusive use and possession of the Marital Home.

·67 As part of a global settlement, as outlined in all the sections below, Katie is awarded 100% of the equity in the Marital Home.

·68 Within 270 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce, Katie shall remove Kristopher form the mortgage associated with the Marital Home through "assuming the loan" via the parties' current lender. Kristopher shall promptly cooperate with any reasonable request from the relevant financial institutions or Katie, to facilitate Katie assuming the loan. The parties agree that Katie is the Successor in Interest and that Katie has met all legal requirements to assume the mortgage on the Marital Home. The parties agree to take any action reasonably necessary, including but not limited to amending the Decree of Divorce, to ensure that the Decree of Divorce has any language reasonably necessary for Katie to assume the loan on the Marital Home.

·69 Upon Katie assuming the loan, Kristopher shall promptly sign any document reasonably necessary to transfer ownership of the Marital Home to Katie.

·70 Starting October 01, 2026, Katie shall be solely and exclusively responsible to make all mortgage payments, utilities, and other expenses directly related to the Marital Home.

·71 PERSONAL PROPERTY:

·72 Kristopher is awarded his 2005 Lexus LX470, free and clear of any interest of Katie. Within 30 days of the entry of the Deree of Divorce, Katie shall executive any document, or take any action reasonably necessary, to transfer ownership of the above items to Kristopher.

·73 Katie is awarded her 2012 Honda Pilot and all property free and clear of any interest of Kristopher. Within 30 days of the entry of the Deree of Divorce, Kristopher shall executive any document, or take any action reasonably necessary, to transfer ownership of the above items to Katie.

·74 All other personal property shall be equitably divided.

·75 BANK ACCOUNTS: The parties' bank accounts shall be divided as follows:

·76 The following accounts, along with the balances set forth herein, shall be equally divided:

·77 U.S. Bank Account in both parties' names (there are 8 sub accounts), with a total of $24,914.84;

·78 CIT Bank Account ending in 9358, $5923.00

·79 All other accounts not set forth above shall be awarded to the party who is the owner of that account.

·80 After dividing all of the accounts, Katie shall have ownership of the U.S. Bank Account that the parties have traditionally used as their joint account. Kristopher shall promptly comply with any reasonable request necessary to transfer ownership of the bank account to Katie.

·81 DEBTS: The parties agree that there is no ongoing Marital Debt nor is there any marital debt to be divided. Each party is solely and exclusively liable for any debt that they incurred from September 11, 2026, regardless of whose name in which the debt was incurred. The parties agree that they shall not incur any debt in the other person's name or social security number as of September 11, 2026.

·82 RETIREMENT BENEFITS: As part of the global settlement agreement, Kristopher is awarded the following retirement accounts that are in his name: (1) Roth IRA; (2) Roth TSP; and (3) Traditional TSP.

·83 As it relates to Kristopher's FERS pension through the federal government, the parties shall divide this pension consistent with the Woodard formula, meaning, each party is entitled to 50% of said pension that was accrued from the date of marriage to the date of divorce. Katie is entitled to the survivor benefits, or survivor spouse's annuity. The parties shall equally divide the cost of Katie's survivor benefit/survivor's spouse's annuity. The parties shall cooperate to ensure that the Decree of Divorce, or any other

Court order, has all language necessary to facilitate and ensure that Katie receives the survivor benefit/surviving spouse annuity, including amending any Decrees, Orders, QDRO's or the same to ensure Katie receives this benefit.

·84 Katie shall receive 100% of the 401(k) and Roth IRA in her name.

·85 The parties shall cooperate in providing any documentation necessary to prepare any QDROS, COAPs, or similar documents necessary to facilitate the division of the retirement accounts.

·86 ALIMONY: Kristopher shall pay Katie alimony as follows:

·87 Starting September 1, 2026, Kristopher shall pay Katie $2200.00 per month in alimony and those payments shall through May of 2035.

·88 Unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing before the due date, Kristopher's alimony payments to Katie shall be made in full by the 15th of each month.

·89 Alimony payments shall terminate upon Katie's death, cohabitation, remarriage, or expiration of the time frames set forth herein, whichever is earlier.

·90 LIFE INSURANCE: For the next 84 months, Kristopher shall maintain, at his expense, a life insurance policy in an amount of no less than $500,000 with Katie as the sole and exclusive beneficiary. Upon the expiration of the 84 months, Kristopher may reduce the total amount of the life insurance policy to no less than $200,000 and shall maintain Katie is the sole and exclusive beneficiary, at his cost, of this life insurance policy for an additional 22 months.

·91 MAIDEN NAME: Katie is restored to her maiden name of Jennie Katharine Summer if she so desires.

·92 ATTORNEYS FEES: Each party shall pay their own attorney fees and costs incurred in this matter.

·93 TRANSFER OF PROPERTY/NOTICE TO CREDITORS:

·94 Each party shall immediately deliver all property awarded to the other party in their possession and execute all documents/titles necessary to effectuate a property transfer as set forth herein, including automobile titles, tax forms and/or any other instrument necessary to carry out these terms.

·95 Each party shall immediately notify their respective creditors of these terms, the party obligated to each specific debt and make other such reasonable arrangements to implement these terms.

·96 Unless otherwise agreed the foregoing shall be completed within 60 days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.
