Counsel for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,
IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: MARIA L. TRUJILLO, Petitioner, and CESAR A. TRUJILLO, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264901271 Judge: Catherine Conklin Commissioner: Brandon Richards

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce filed on August 7, 2026, the Respondent Acceptance of Service, Consent, Waiver, and Stipulation to the Motion for Entry of a Default, and a Default having been entered, and a Proposed Decree of Divorce having been submitted. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been received and approved by the Court and for good cause otherwise appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. The Petitioner, Maria Lorena Trujillo, is a bona fide and actual resident of Weber County, State of Utah, and has been for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this case.

2. The Respondent, Cesar A. Trujillo, has been an actual and bona fide resident of Weber County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this case.

3. The Petitioner and Respondent (the "Parties") were married in the City of Ogden, Weber County, Utah, on November 27, 2013.

4. The parties separated on February 13, 2025.

5. The grounds for divorce are certain irreconcilable differences have arisen between the Parties, making the continuation of the marriage an impossibility.

6. Venue is proper, and this Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and subject matter herein at issue pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-203

CHILDREN

7. There is one (1) minor child ("Child") at issue in this marriage namely D.T. (D.O.B. 09/02/2011).

UCCJEA JURISDICTION – HOME STATE OF CHILDREN

8. Utah shall have jurisdiction over the Child's custody and parent-time issues in this case pursuant to Utah's Uniform Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) § 81-11-101 et. seq. Utah is the home state of the Child. The Child has resided in Utah for at least six (6) consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of this action; the Child and at least one parent has a significant connection to Utah; and substantial evidence is available in Utah concerning the Child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

RULE 100 INFORMATION

9. Pursuant to Rule 100, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the UCCJEA, and the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, U.C.A. § 81-11-101 et seq., Petitioner states upon information and belief that:

a. Petitioner has not been a party or witness to or participated in any other litigation concerning the custody, child support or parent-time of the Parties' minor child nor does the Petitioner have information about any custody, child support or parent-time of the Parties' minor child nor does the Petitioner have information about any custody, child support or parent-time proceeding concerning the Child in this state or any other state or country.

b. There are no known criminal or delinquency cases in any court of this state or any other state or country in which a party or a party's Child is a defendant or respondent.

c. There are no known proceedings currently pending that could affect this proceeding, including but not limited to, proceedings for enforcement, domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions.

d. There are no known cases involving the parties' Child filed or pending in any Juvenile Court in this state or any other state or country.

e. Petitioner does not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings, who has physical custody of the parties' minor child and who claims to have custody, child support, or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to the Child.

10. The Petitioner alleges that the minor child resides with Petitioner at 2857 Grant Ave., Ogden, UT 84401.

CHILD CUSTODY

11. The Petitioner has been the party that attends to all the daily physical and emotional needs of the Child, including helping get the Child to school, assisting with school activities, scheduling and attending doctor appointments, preparing meals for the Child, doing homework with the Child, and attending to the day-to-day needs of the Child.

12. The Petitioner and Respondent are fit and proper parents to be awarded joint legal custody.

13. Petitioner shall be awarded sole physical custody, subject to Respondent's reasonable visitation rights.

14. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-204 the court shall consider the best interests of the minor child in determining any form of custody and parent time.

PARENTING PLAN

15. Parent-Time: The Respondent shall be entitled to parent-time as provided in Utah Code § 81-9-302.

16. Holidays shall be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree, holiday parent-time shall be consistent with the schedule provided in Utah Code § 81-9-30 (12).

17. The parties shall not smoke indoors or drink alcohol when they are around the child.

18. If any Party relocates more than 150 miles from Weber County, parent-time shall be consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-209. The relocating parent shall pay all expenses associated with the Child's travel for parent-time.

19. The parties shall accommodate all parent-time schedules. Shall a party request to reschedule parent-time, a replacement time shall be proposed with the request to reschedule.

20. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-302(3), the Respondent shall be allowed two (2) weeks of uninterrupted and two weeks of interrupted parent time each summer. If the Child is enrolled in an all-year school program, each parent shall be entitled to one-half of the off-track time.

21. All parent-time arrangements between the parents are set forth as “advisory guidelines” under Utah Code § 81-9-202 unless otherwise addressed herein.

22. The Petitioner’s home shall be considered the primary residence of the Child for determining which schools and churches the Children shall attend.

23. Both parties shall always keep the other party apprised of any changes to their telephone number and address. If either party changes their residence or telephone number, they shall provide the other party with new information as soon as possible, but no later than 34 hours after the change occurs.

24. The parties agree to help the Child communicate with the other parents in an age-appropriate ways and to give them privacy during communication. The parties will not interfere with, monitor, or otherwise impede communication between the Child and the other parent. Communication shall be at times and for a duration appropriate to the Child's age and interest.

25. During their respective parent-time, a parent may consent for the Child to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others. If the Child is traveling for more than two (2) days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least seven (7) days in advance and provide the travel schedule, locations, and phone numbers.

26. In the event the parties establish a parent-time schedule by agreement, custom, or practice, such a schedule may only be changed with a court order or a written agreement of the parties.

27. If either parent does not have a permanent residence appropriate for the Child to visit or sleep, the parties shall agree on an alternate location for parent-time. If the parties cannot agree on an alternate location, the overnight portion of parent-time shall be cancelled.

28. Transportation and related expenses for parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the Parties cannot agree, transportation shall be evenly paid by the Parties.

29. The Respondent shall be responsible for all transportation for the Child for the visitation unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

30. The parties shall have decision-making authority on day-to-day decisions during their respective parent time.

31. Major decisions regarding the Child, including, but not limited to, the Child’s present and future physical care, education, health care, religious upbringing, etc., shall be jointly decided; however, in the event the parties cannot agree the Petitioner shall have the final say on the issue.

32. The parties agree to exchange timely information about the Child’s health, education, and welfare.

33. Each party shall be entitled to full access to all educational, medical, religious, mental health, counselling, dental, optical, and other records, of any type, concerning the Child. In the event a release is required, each parent shall be required to execute a release to allow the other parent full access to the records of the Child.

34. Both parties shall provide the other party with the name, address, and telephone number of every educational institution the Child attends.

35. Each parent shall be entitled to any reports that may be issued to the parents of the Child from any school or similar institution. Each parent shall be entitled to attend all school events, including parent-teacher conferences, P.T.A. meetings, and the like, and participate fully as the Child’s parent.

36. Each parent shall timely notify the other party of the time, place, and nature of any special events, religious ceremonies, educational activities, and the like in which the Child is involved.

37. Both parties shall be listed as emergency contacts on all forms, and either parent may authorize treatment for any emergency care required for the Child.

38. Both parents shall have the right to confer with any teacher, other educational personnel, or health care provider about the Child without the prior consent of the other parent.

39. The Parties shall cooperate to minimize the disruption of the Child’s attendance at school and other activities, the Child’s daily routine, and their association with friends. However, this shall not be used as an excuse to thwart or interfere unreasonably with the rights of either parent.

40. Each parent shall exert every reasonable effort to maintain unhampered contact and communication between the Child and the other parent and to promote emotions of affection, love, and respect between the Child and the other parent. Each parent shall refrain from words or conduct and shall discourage other persons from uttering words or engaging in conduct that would tend to estrange the Child from the other parent, damage the opinion of the Child as to the other parent, or would impair the natural development of the Child's love and respect for the other parent.

41. Neither parent will discuss with or inform the Child of the child support payments status or other legal matters of the parents.

42. Neither parent will make major changes in the Child's physical appearance without the consent of the other parent. This extends to cosmetic surgery, ear piercing, body piercing, tattoos, etc.

43. Absent an emergency, all communications shall be directly between the parties and not through third parties such as significant others, spouses, etc. Communication shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, communication will be via text messaging as a first choice, telephone as a second choice, and email as a third choice. The parties will keep all lines of communication open. Each will receive and respond in a timely manner to communications from the other parent.

44. Each parent shall give special consideration to making the Child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the Child's or either parent's life that may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

GENERAL WELFARE OF THE CHILDREN

45. Both parents' parental bonding with the Child is critical, and the parties shall take every reasonable step to assist in this process.

46. Each party shall be enjoined from doing anything that may estrange or alienate the Child from the other parent or hamper the free and natural development of the Child’s love and respect for the other parent. At no time shall either party speak, write, or portray anything inflammatory, derogatory, embarrassing, disparaging, or otherwise hurtful about the other parent in the presence of the Child or on social media, nor shall they permit such conduct by a third person.

47. Each party shall be permanently restrained from harming, threatening, molesting, intimidating, or harassing the other party, from destroying or taking any property belonging to the other party, and from speaking in a derogatory, disparaging, or slanderous manner to third persons in such a way that it will adversely affect the business, employment, or general reputation in the community of the other party, including social media and similar platforms.

48. Both parties shall be ordered not to consume alcoholic beverages, abuse prescription medications, or use illicit drugs to any degree while caring for the Child. Additionally, it shall be ordered that the Child be immediately removed from the presence of either party or any third parties that are consuming alcoholic beverages or are intoxicated, abusing prescription medications, using illicit drugs, or under the influence of illicit drugs.

49. When having overnight guests when the Child is present in the home, the Parties shall consider the Child's needs and sensitivity and exercise prudent behaviour when introducing the Child to significant others.

CHILD SUPPORT

50. Child Support shall continue until the month a respective Child becomes eighteen (18) years of age, or until the month of the Child’s normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later, or until that Child otherwise meets the provisions of Utah Code § 81-6-213.

51. Child support may be submitted to and administered by the Office of Recovery Services (ORS).

52. The Petitioner is currently unemployed and shall be imputed at minimum wage.

53. The Respondent’s income is approximately $7,583 each month.

54. Based on Petitioner and Respondent's income, and the parties agreement, child support is calculated to be $1,100 per month, or $550 bi-monthly.

TAX EXEMPTION

55. It is reasonable and proper that each party claims the minor child as

a. The Petitioner will claim the minor child on her tax return in even-numbered years.

b. The Respondent will claim the minor child on his tax return in odd-numbered years.

c. Any party claiming the Child for tax purposes shall be current on child support on December 31 of the respective tax year. If a party is not current on their child support obligation, they shall forfeit the tax credit, and it shall be awarded to the other parent.

ALIMONY

56. Since the time the Parties have separated, the Respondent has paid the Petitioner $2,000 per month in alimony.

57. Respondent has shown an ability to pay this amount, and Petitioner has shown a need for alimony.

58. Alimony shall be awarded to the Petitioner, paid by the Respondent, in the amount of $2,000 per month and shall continue for 12 (twelve) years from the entry of the Decree.
