IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, OGDEN DEPARTMENT
WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: KAUAI L. DYSON, Petitioner, and MICHAEL A. BRENNAN, Respondent.	DEFAULT DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No.: 264901376 Judge: Matthew J Hansen Commissioner: Brandon Richards

The court, having considered the pleadings and the default entered against respondent on September 21, 2026, having previously issued its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being fully informed in the premises, enters its Decree of Divorce as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Kauai has been an actual and bona fide resident of Weber County, State of Utah, for at least three months prior to the filing of this divorce action.

2. Kauai and respondent Michael A. Brennan (“Michael”) were married on July 24, 2014 in Baytown, Harris County, Texas.

3. Jurisdiction of, and venue in, this Court are proper.

4. The parties separated on or about January 10, 2026.

GROUNDS

5. Kauai and Michael have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible.

6. Kauai is hereby granted a divorce from Michael on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, and the bonds of matrimony between the parties are dissolved.

CHILDREN

7. The parties have two (2) minor children:

a. LB a son born on September 9, 2015; and

b. MB a daughter born December 18, 2018.

8. The minor children have lived in Utah for at least the last six months.

9. Kauai and the court are unaware of any other proceeding dealing with custody or visitation rights of the minor children.

10. Kauai and the court are unaware of any other person who claims custodial or visitation rights to the minor children.

11. Utah is the minor children’s home state.

12. Kauai and Michael are awarded joint legal custody of their children.

13. The court adopts the Parenting Plan proposed by Kauai and filed with the court on August 14, 2026 and incorporates the provisions of that plan as part of this decree.

14. Kauai is awarded sole physical custody of the minor children.

15. The parties shall divide the costs of work-related child care evenly between them pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL PAYMENTS

16. Michael shall maintain health insurance for the minor children as long as it is reasonably available through his employment.

17. Each party shall pay half of the premium of the minor children's health insurance, as well as any non-covered health expenses, including expenses for co-pays, deductibles, prescriptions, and other non-covered health expenses.

a. A party who incurs a non-covered health expense shall have 30 days to send proof of the expense to the other party.

b. A party who fails to provide notice of an expense to the other party may waive the right to collect the other party's share of the expense.

c. A party who receives notice of a non-covered health expense shall have 30 days to pay his or her share of the expense.

INCOME TAX & INCOME TAX EXEMPTIONS

18. The parties shall divide the tax deductions for the children.

19. As long as both children can be claimed on the parties' taxes, the parties shall each claim one child:

a. Kauai shall claim LB, and

b. Michael shall claim MB.

20. When only one child can be claimed, the parties shall alternate claiming MB on their taxes.

21. Neither party may claim a child unless that party is current on his or her child support at the end of the year in which he or she intends to claim a child.

22. If a party believes that the other party is not current on his or her child support, that party shall notify the delinquent party by December 1.

SUPPORT PAYMENTS

23. The parties shall provide support for the minor children pursuant to the Utah Child Support Act.

24. Kauai and the court are not aware of any other party who is receiving public assistance for the parties' minor children from the State of Utah.

25. Kauai has income of $6,500 per month. Kauai has provided proof of the parties' incomes separately.

26. Michael has income of $7,330 per month. Kauai has provided proof of the parties' incomes separately.

27. Based on the parent-time schedule and incomes above, Michael shall pay child support of $1,092 per month. Kauai has provided a child support worksheet separately.

28. Kauai may use automatic withholding of income through the Office of Recovery Services as a means to collect delinquent and ongoing child support, as provided by Utah Code Ann., §26B-9-402 and §26B-9-301.

REAL PROPERTY

29. During the marriage, the parties did not acquire real property, therefore no division is required.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

30. During the marriage, the parties acquired personal property.

31. The parties anticipate that they will reach an agreement for the division of the personal property.

32. If the parties are unable to agree on the division of the personal property, the parties shall attend mediation to agree on the division of the personal property.

33. If they are unable to agree on a division of the personal property in mediation, the parties may submit the matter to the court.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

34. During the marriage, the parties acquired retirement and profit-sharing accounts.

35. The parties shall divide the retirement accounts between them.

a. Each party should receive a Woodward share of any defined benefit plans.

b. Each party should receive half of any money deposited into defined contributions plans during the marriage.

ALIMONY

36. Both parties are capable of providing support and no alimony shall be ordered for either party.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

37. During the marriage, the parties incurred joint debts and obligations.

38. Michael shall pay the credit card debt he incurred in connection with the business he started.

39. Michael shall also pay the debt on the car that he lost.

40. The parties anticipate that they will reach an agreement for the division of the remaining joint debts and obligations.

41. If the parties are unable to resolve the matter at mediation, the court will divide the debts between the parties.

42. Each party shall pay the debts he or she has incurred in his or her own name, without contribution from the other party.

43. Each party shall pay the debts he or she has incurred since the date of separation without contribution from the other party.

44. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any debts for which he or she is liable, or which are assigned to the party in this Decree of Divorce.

45. Neither party shall incur any debts for which the other may be liable. If any debts are incurred in violation of this paragraph, the party incurring the debt shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from the debt.

MISCELLANEOUS

46. Each party shall pay his or her costs and fees incurred in this matter.

47. The parties shall warrant and agree that they have not hidden any marital assets but have disclosed to each other all of their properties of any kind and wherever located.

48. The court enters restraining orders as follows:

a. The parties shall not do anything which would damage the relationship between the other party and the minor children, including making disparaging comments about the other party to the minor children or under circumstances in which it is likely that the minor children will learn of the comments.

b. The parties shall not allow third parties to take any action which would damage the relationship between the minor children and the other party.

c. The parties shall not bother, annoy or harass each other.

d. Except for exchanges, the parties shall not go to the home or place of employment of the other party without a specific invitation.

49. The parties shall execute documents necessary to implement the terms of their divorce decree, without cost to the other party.
