27. A child care provider for our children must be:

A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

28. If either parent moves more than 149 miles from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

29. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i. Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and

ii. spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

i. the entire winter school break period; and

ii. the fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes; and

c. extended parent-time equal to ½ of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children will be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent will be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (5) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

30. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the the parent who moved.

31. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

32. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

33. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

b. April nichole rader receives $800 per month in public benefits from the Family Employment Program (T.A.N.F./F.E.P). This income does not count for child support purposes. (Utah Code 81-6-203(7)).

c. April nichole rader receives $1500 per month in public benefits from a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP, General Assistance, or other similar means-tested welfare benefits. This income does not count for child support purposes, (Utah Code 81-6-203(7)).

d. April nichole rader has the following income from any of these sources:

Source: Rental income, Monthly amount: $2,100.00

e. The adjusted gross monthly income for April nichole rader is $4375.

Income: Respondent (nickolas paul vigil) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

36. nickolas paul vigil's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1257. nickolas paul vigil receives the following gross monthly income:

a. nickolas paul vigil's occupation is unknown. The court should consider nickolas paul vigil wage to be the federal minimum wage of $7.25 an hour. This is a gross monthly income of $1257. (Utah Code 81-6-203(c) and (d))

37. The adjusted gross monthly income for nickolas paul vigil is $1257.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

38. It is in the best interest of the children that nickolas paul vigil be ordered to pay child support to April nichole rader as follows:

a.$274.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

39. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

40. The joint custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

41. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).

- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

42. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

43. Child support will be paid as follows:

i have my children full time with no help from nickolas i get help from the stae

44. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

45. nickolas paul vigil will pay any ORS fees. If April nichole rader is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to April nichole rader, nickolas paul vigil will reimburse April nichole rader.

46. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

47. The Office of Recovery Services (https://ors.utah.gov/) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

48. April nichole rader may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

49. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Heath care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

50. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- April nichole rader's insurance will be primary coverage.
- nickolas paul vigil's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- April nichole rader's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- nickolas paul vigil's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

51. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

52. April nichole rader has received or is receiving cash assistance from the Family Employment Program (T.A.N.F./F.E.P). ORS may join this case as a party. April nichole rader has given ORS the right to collect child support accrued during the time April nichole rader was receiving public assistance.

53. April nichole rader has received or is receiving public benefits from a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP, General Assistance, or other similar means-tested welfare benefits. This income does not count for child support purposes. (Utah Code 78B-12-203(3))

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

54. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

55. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

56. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

57. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

58. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

59. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
