The Petitioner, McKenzie Dickson, and the Respondent, Darren Dickson, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: T.M.D. (born September 2021) and M.D.D. (born May 2024).

2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule then they shall follow a rotating schedule as follows:

a. Respondent shall exercise parent-time every Monday and Wednesday from 3:45 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Petitioner shall transport the minor children to and from school. Respondent shall pick up the minor children from Petitioner's residence at 3:45 p.m. (or such other location as the parties agree) and return the minor children to Petitioner's residence no later than 8:30 p.m.

b. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time every Tuesday and Thursday.

c. The parties shall alternate Friday overnight and Saturday overnight parent-time.

i. On Respondent's Friday overnight parent-time, Respondent shall transport the minor children to school on Friday morning, pick up the minor children from school after dismissal on Friday, and exercise parent-time until 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, at which time Respondent shall return the minor children to Petitioner's residence.

ii. On Respondent's Saturday overnight parent-time, Petitioner shall exercise parent-time until 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, at which time Respondent shall pick up the minor children from Petitioner's residence. Respondent shall exercise overnight parent-time and return the minor children to Petitioner's residence by 11:00 a.m. on Sunday.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by May 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by May 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

MENTAL HEALTH AND TEMPORARY RESTRICTION OF PARENT-TIME

8. The parties acknowledge that Respondent has experienced significant mental-health episodes in the past. A mental-health diagnosis or history alone shall not constitute grounds to restrict Respondent's parent-time.

9. If Petitioner has a reasonable, good-faith belief—based upon specific, observable conduct—that Respondent is experiencing a recurrence that materially impairs Respondent's ability to safely care for the minor children or creates an imminent risk to their physical or psychological safety, Petitioner may temporarily withhold unsupervised parent-time. Such conduct may include threats of self-harm or harm to others, severe disorientation, psychosis, hospitalization for an acute mental-health crisis, or other behavior demonstrating an inability to safely supervise the children.

10. Petitioner shall provide Respondent written notice describing the specific conduct supporting the temporary restriction as soon as reasonably practicable. Respondent shall obtain an evaluation by a licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, or other mutually agreed-upon qualified mental-health professional within seventy-two (72) hours, or as soon thereafter as an appointment is reasonably available.

11. Unless the evaluating professional recommends otherwise, Respondent's unsupervised parent-time shall resume promptly upon written confirmation that Respondent is able to safely care for the children. During the temporary restriction, the parties shall reasonably arrange supervised parent-time or telephone/video contact when doing so is consistent with the children's safety and the evaluating professional's recommendations.

12. Neither party shall misuse this provision to interfere with the other party's parent-time. If the parties disagree regarding the restriction or Respondent's ability to resume parent-time, either party may request expedited court review.

13. Respondent may execute the same actions against Petitioner through reasonable belief that the Petitioner is experiencing significant mental-health episodes that materially impairs Petitioner's ability to safely care for the minor children or creates an imminent risk to their physical or psychological safety.

CHILD SUPPORT

14. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $4,000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

15. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $6,000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

16. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $4,000.00 with 183 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $6,000.00 with 182 overnights.

17. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Respondent shall be ordered to pay Petitioner the sum of $184.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the oblige.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

18. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.

b. Respondent shall be responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

19. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parties shall equally share the cost of the children's nanny. Based upon the current nanny expense, each party's share is approximately $560.00 per month, subject to adjustment if the nanny's fees change.

b. To facilitate payment, the parties shall alternate responsibility for paying the nanny on a weekly basis, with each party paying every other week. The parties acknowledge that this payment arrangement is intended to result in an equal sharing of the nanny expense over time. If the nanny's fees change or the alternating payment schedule results in one party paying more than his or her equal share, the parties shall reconcile any difference monthly so that each party ultimately pays fifty percent (50%) of the total nanny expense.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, & MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

20. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor children:

If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

21. The parties shall share equally in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes as follows:

a. As long as there are two minor children, Petitioner will claim T.M.D. each year and Respondent will claim M.D.D. each year.

b. When only one minor child remains, the parties will alternate years with Petitioner claiming M.D.D. in odd years and Respondent claiming M.D.D. in even years.
