Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT
COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the matter of the marriage of: CARINA ZAVALA, Petitioner, and PABLO ROBLES, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901171 Judge: Catherine Conklin Commissioner: Brandon Richards

Based upon the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement executed by Petitioner Carina Zavala ("Carina"), represented by Jonathan D. Porter of Porter Family Law, and Respondent Pablo Robles ("Pablo"), represented by Danielle Crumb of Fontenot Law P.C., and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered herein, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. DIVORCE: Carina is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Pablo on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry.

2. CHILDREN: Three (3) children have been born to the parties during the marriage, to wit: M.P.R., born October 2011; S.N.R., born October 2015; and J.R., born February 2018.

3. CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME:

    a. Physical custody. The parties are awarded joint physical custody, care, and control of the minor children of the parties.

b. Parent-time. The parties have agreed to an approximately equal time-sharing structure as follows: Carina shall have parent-time beginning Monday after school through Friday morning every week. Pablo shall have parent-time from Friday after school until Monday morning every week. If school is not in session, then the exchange times on Mondays and Fridays shall be at 8:00 a.m., with the parent ending their time dropping off curbside at the other parent's residence.

c. Holiday/extended parent-time. The parties are awarded holiday and extended parent-time as outlined in Utah Code § 81-9-302, with Pablo being designated as the "non-custodial" parent for purposes of interpreting the statute. This does not convey any greater or lesser rights for either party.

d. Legal custody. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children of the parties consistent with the advisory guidelines as outlined in Utah Code § 81-9-202 and the following Parenting Plan.

4. PARENTING PLAN:

a. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are residing at the time.

b. Each parent shall have the right to make emergency medical decisions without consultation with the other parent and shall immediately inform the other parent of said emergency. Emergency medical decisions are those that are life threatening to the child.

c. The parties shall make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the minor children, including but not limited to their children's education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues.

d. If the parties are unable to agree on a joint decision, the parties shall consult with and share information from any subject matter experts, professionals who are knowledgeable about the issue, or who have a substantial connection to the children. After having obtained and exchanged all of the relevant information and received the opinion of any relevant subject matter experts, if the parties are unable to agree, then they shall attend mediation, with each party paying 50% of the mediator's fees. If the parties are still unable to agree after mediation, either party may file a motion, pursuant to Rules 101 and 108 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, to request that the Court make the decision in the children's best interest.

e. Education plan. The children shall continue to attend school at Quest Academy and then West Field High School once they have aged out of Quest Academy, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators. Both parties shall take the initiative to register for any online portal to access the children's information so neither parent will have to provide information that they can otherwise access themselves.

f. Both parties shall have access to the child's school, church, medical, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and fully participate.

g. Communication between parents. Communication regarding the children shall be directly between the parties and shall not involve third parties. Communication shall primarily be in writing via text or email or other agreed upon coparenting app, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive. The parties shall utilize a shared calendar for scheduling and notifying of child-related events, schedules, appointments, social, educational, and healthcare events, proposed parent-time schedules, and/or requests to switch parent-time. Neither party shall ask or attempt in any way to have the children transfer messages between the parties, whether verbal or written.

h. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the child's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

i. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness involving the child as soon as reasonably possible.

j. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor child at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

k. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc. regarding the minor child.

l. The parties shall notify the other parent of any changes of address, e-mail address, cell phone number, and telephone number within 24 hours of the change.

m. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels with either parent overnight or longer, the following shall be provided to the other parent:

    i. An itinerary of travel dates;

    ii. Destinations;

    iii. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and

    iv. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

n. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the child consistency and stability.

o. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

p. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the child.

q. The parties shall not put the child in the middle. The parties shall not discuss adult issues with the child, including any legal or financial issues.

r. The parties shall not use the minor child as a messenger.

s. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the child.

t. Neither parent shall question the minor child about the other parent's activities, personal relationships, or how the other parent spends his or her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor child.

u. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the child.

v. The party with the minor child in his or her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor child's homework is complete and transporting the minor child to and from school on time.

w. Transportation. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-202(5), the parties shall equally divide the transportation between them as follows: each party shall deliver the minor child to school at the conclusion of their parent-time and shall retrieve the minor child from school at the beginning of their parent-time, unless otherwise agreed by both parties. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the parent who is exercising parent-time may pick up the children for that parent's parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and has met the individual before they will be around the children. The parent who is exercising their parent-time shall be with the children by 7:00 p.m.

x. Virtual parent-time. Both parents shall allow liberal telephone and other virtual communication (e.g., FaceTime) with the other parent and shall encourage the children to call the other parent. Each parent shall allow the minor children to contact the other parent at any time the minor children desire to have telephone or virtual contact. Each party shall have the right to contact the children at reasonable times and for reasonable durations (based upon the child's age, maturity, interests, schedule, etc.).

y. Significant others. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the child to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the child to their significant others until appropriate, until the other parent has met the significant other, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other for a period of no less than six (6) months. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of, or the discussing of, the child with the other parent.

z. Relocation. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209, if either party relocates more than 150 miles away from their current residence, then the relocating party shall comply therewith.

5. CHILD SUPPORT:

    a. For child support purposes, Carina's gross monthly income is $9,516.

    b. For child support purposes, Pablo's gross monthly income is $6,956.

    c. For child support purposes, Carina is awarded 195 overnights and Pablo 170 overnights.

    d. Pursuant to the child support worksheet, Pablo's child support obligation to Carina is $82.00 per month.

    e. Child support shall begin the first month following Pablo's move from the marital residence.

    f. The child support obligation shall continue until (i) a minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18), or (ii) the child has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. Commencing the following month, the parties shall automatically adjust the child support obligation by recalculating the child support obligation minus the emancipated minor child (https://orscsc.dhs.utah.gov).

    g. The Office of Recovery Services can assist with the collection and enforcement of child support.

6. EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY AND SCHOOL FEES:

    a. In addition to child support, the parties shall share equally any expenses related to the children's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory public school fees. In the event that a party desires to have a child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

b. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity or school out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

7. CHILD CARE:

a. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-209, the parties shall equally share any out-of-pocket childcare costs incurred solely for the purpose of the parties' working. The parties shall exhaust all other free or lower cost options—such as family, close friends, or the other parent—prior to incurring a cost unilaterally and without the written consent of both parties.

b. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-209, if an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon: (1) presentation of reasonable but verifiable proof of the out-of-pocket childcare expense; and (2) proof of employment; or (3) proof of enrollment and attendance at school.

c. The parent incurring the childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider. The custodial parent shall notify the other parent of any change in provider or expense within thirty (30) calendar days of the change.

d. The custodial parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with this section.

8. HEALTH INSURANCE:

a. Pablo shall maintain the health insurance for and on behalf of any minor child of the parties so long as it is available through his employment.

b. Apportionment of medical insurance premium. Each party shall pay one-half (½) of the minor child's portion of the medical, dental, and vision insurance premium.

i. This is calculated by dividing the insurance premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children.

ii. The party with insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party and to the Office of Recovery Services upon both the initial enrollment of any child, and annually on or before January 2nd of each year. The party shall notify the other party and the Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days from the date of the change and provide an annual updated medical card.

c. Out-of-pocket costs. Each party shall pay one-half (½) of all out-of-pocket health care expenses, including but not limited to medical, dental/orthodontia, prescriptions, deductibles, co-pays, and other such reasonable expenses associated with the minor child.

d. Reimbursement. The party who incurs health care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment. The other party shall reimburse their one-half (½) within thirty (30) days of receipt of the verification.

e. Compliance. The party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the party incurring the expenses fails to comply with this section.

f. Double coverage. If at any point in time the dependent children are covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance of Pablo shall be primary coverage for the dependent children, and the health or dental insurance plan of Carina shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children.

g. If at any point the minor child is covered by a health insurance plan by both parties or their significant others, then the insurance premiums offset and neither party shall pay a portion of the other party's premium, regardless of any disparity in the premium cost.

    i. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent.

9. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS:

   a. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall claim the children for income tax purposes by each party claiming half of the minor children each year.

   b. When the tax exemption cannot be evenly split due to the number of children remaining in the home, Carina shall claim the additional child in even years, and Pablo shall claim the additional child in odd years.

   c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-210, if a parent is not current in their child support obligation, the tax exemption shall automatically revert to the custodial parent.

10. REAL PROPERTY:

   a. The home and real property located at 3159 W 3200 S, West Haven, UT 84401, is awarded to Carina.

   b. The party awarded the home and real property shall assume all liability, debt, and encumbrance associated with the same.

   c. In exchange, the party awarded the home and real property shall hold harmless and indemnify the other party from any liability, debt, and encumbrances associated with the same.

   d. Carina shall engage the services of an appraiser and complete an appraisal on the home to determine the current value. Pablo shall reimburse Carina for one-half the cost of the appraisal. Carina shall pay to Pablo 50% of the equity of the home within 90 days of entry of the Decree of Divorce. If Carina is unable to pay Pablo his equity within the allotted 90 days from the date the Decree of Divorce is entered, then the marital home and real property shall be sold, with each party receiving 50% of the net proceeds.

e. The party awarded the home and real property shall refinance the home and real property within 90 days from the date the Decree of Divorce is entered and remove the other party's name therefrom. Any cost associated with refinancing the home shall be equally divided between the parties. If the party awarded the home and real property is unable to do so within 90 days from the date the Decree of Divorce is entered, then the marital home and real property shall be sold, with each party receiving 50% of the net proceeds.

f. Pablo shall have 30 days from receipt of the entire 50% equity buyout to vacate the residence.

g. In the event that the parties must sell the home and real property, the parties shall engage the services of an agreed-upon realtor. If the parties cannot reach an agreement, Carina shall provide Pablo with three (3) names and Pablo shall choose one of those three. The parties shall contact their realtor within 14 days of the expiration of the 90 days to refinance the home and real property and shall sign the listing paperwork within three (3) days of retaining their realtor. The home shall be listed for sale as soon as possible from the time the realtor is retained.

h. The parties shall follow the recommendations of their realtor regarding the listing price, reductions in price, counteroffers, and reasonable offers to accept. The parties shall also follow the recommendations of their realtor regarding repairs, home preparations, staging, cleaning, showing availability, marketing, and maintenance necessary to sell the home for the best price, unless they agree otherwise in writing. Carina shall front the costs of these expenses from the first month after Pablo vacates the real property until sale.

i. The parties shall respond to buyer offers, counteroffers, repair requests, and any other contractual obligations prior to their expiration or deadline, which may be less than 24 hours.

j. The parties' personal property division shall be completed prior to listing the property for sale. Carina Zavala has provided a list of personal property that will be hers as Exhibit A. Pablo Robles has also provided a list of personal property that will be his as Exhibit B.

k. After the 90-day timeframe to refinance has lapsed, if such an event occurs, and until the property is sold, the property maintenance fees shall be paid as follows: Carina Zavala shall pay all maintenance fees and costs for the time period that Pablo does not reside in the home, and the parties shall share them equally during the time period Pablo does reside in the home. Maintenance fees include but are not limited to the following: mortgage payments, utilities, HOA payments, solar payments, etc.

l. The parties shall equally divide any equity or deficit resulting from the sale, with half of the equity being awarded to each party.

11. PERSONAL PROPERTY:

a. Carina is awarded the personal property currently in her possession.

b. Pablo is awarded the personal property currently in his possession.

c. Carina is awarded the following personal property, together with any liability thereon:

    i. 2022 Toyota Highlander

    ii. 2010 Chevy Malibu

    iii. Personal bank account and all funds therein

d. Pablo is awarded the following personal property, together with any liability thereon:

    i. 2008 Dodge Ram

    ii. 2016 Mazda

    iii. Personal bank account and all funds therein

e. All other marital property shall be equitably divided between the parties. If the parties are unable to agree to further distribution, then the parties shall mediate any dispute thereto prior to bringing the action before the Court.

f. The parties are restrained from disposing, hiding, transferring, selling, or otherwise encumbering any property that either party considers to be at issue.

12. DEBTS:

a. The parties have the following marital debts, which are allocated as follows:

    i. Auto loan for the 2016 Mazda through America First Credit Union. Pablo shall assume this debt.

    ii. Master Card credit card ending in 6484 with an approximate balance of $646.00. Carina shall assume this debt.

13. RETIREMENT BENEFITS: The parties are awarded their respective retirement accounts free and clear of any interest of the other.

14. ALIMONY: Both parties are capable of supporting themselves; therefore, neither party is awarded alimony from the other, and each party forever waives any claim to alimony, past, present, or future.

15. MAIDEN NAME: Carina is restored to her maiden name of Vargas, if she so desires.

16. ATTORNEY FEES:

a. Each party shall pay their own attorney fees and costs incurred in this matter.

b. If either party defaults in his or her obligations hereunder, or must seek relief from the Court in the enforcement or modification of the Decree of Divorce, the non-prevailing party shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and court costs actually incurred.

17. TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AND NOTICE TO CREDITORS:

a. Each party shall immediately deliver all property awarded to the other party in their possession and execute all documents and titles necessary to effectuate a property transfer as set forth herein, including automobile titles, tax forms, and/or any other instrument necessary to carry out the orders of the Decree of Divorce.

b. Each party shall immediately notify their respective creditors of the terms of the Decree of Divorce and the party obligated to each specific debt, and make other such reasonable arrangements to implement the terms of the Decree of Divorce.

c. Unless otherwise agreed, the foregoing shall be completed within sixty (60) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.
