IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Mater of the Marriage of ZOE FOLLUM, Petitioner, vs. TAYLOR BARRETT, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case Number 264901740 Judge Catherine Conklin Commissioner Brandon Richards

This matter came before the court on the affidavit testimony of Petitioner and the stipulation of the parties. Having previously set forth its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court now makes and enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Petitioner Zoe Follum (Zoe) is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce against Respondent Taylor Barrett (Taylor) dissolving the bonds of matrimony between them, the same to become final upon entry.

CHILDREN. There have been no children born to Zoe and Taylor as issue of this marriage and none are expected. Accordingly, there are no orders with regard to custody, time sharing, child support and the like.

ALIMONY. Neither party is awarded alimony from the other. Each party specifically waived his/her right to claim spousal support from the other now or in the future.

REAL PROPERTY. The parties own no real property.

RETIREMENT AND PENSIONS. Each party is awarded his/her pension plans or retirement benefits free and clear of any claim by the other.

LIFE INSURANCE. If either party owns a life insurance policy or an annuity contract, that policy owner: (i) has reviewed and updated, where appropriate, the list of beneficiaries; (ii) has affirmed that those listed as beneficiaries are in fact the intended beneficiaries after the divorce becomes final; and (iii) understands that if no changes are made to the policy or contract, the beneficiaries currently listed will receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract.

PERSONAL PROPERTY. During the course of the marriage the parties have acquired certain items of personal property which shall be divided as follows:

Zoe is awarded the following items of personal property:

Her car, titled in her name and not subject to any debt;

Her bank and financial institution accounts, in her name alone; and

Any and all other items of personal property as currently divided by the parties.

Taylor is awarded the following items of personal property:

His car, titled in his name and not subject to any debt;

His bank and financial institution accounts, in his name alone; and

Any and all other items of personal property as currently divided by the parties.

DEBTS. During the course of the marriage the parties have incurred certain debts and obligations which shall be divided as follows:

Zoe shall assume any and all debts in her name and shall defend, indemnify and hold Taylor harmless thereon.

Taylor shall assume any and all debts in his name and shall defend, indemnify and hold Zoe harmless thereon.

The parties have only one joint debt. They are jointly obligated on an Apple branded Mastercard with a current outstanding balance of approximately Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00). This debt shall continue to be a joint obligation based upon the following:

Neither party shall make any new charges on the account.

The minimum required monthly payment is Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00).

For the first 12 months following the entry of the Decree of Divorce in this matter, Zoe shall make a minimum monthly payment of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and Taylor shall make a minimum monthly payment of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

If both parties have timely made those required payments, the parties shall, after one (1) year, make reasonable attempts to refinance the debt with each of them assuming one-half (½) of the then existing balance of the debt.

If they are not able to obtain financing to allow each of them to assume one-half (½) of the debt, they shall continue making the minimum monthly payment for an additional year, with the same payments of Zoe making a minimum monthly payment of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and Taylor making a minimum monthly payment of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

After two (2) years, the parties shall pay off this debt, each party paying one-half (½) of the then existing balance. Should their individual credit situations not permit this payoff, they shall use other resources such as friends, family, other collateral, etc.

JOINT ACCOUNTS. All joint accounts shall be closed as soon as allowed by the various creditors. In some cases this will not be allowed until the account is paid off. In the mean time the party assigned the debt will make all required payments in a timely fashion so as not to reflect on the other party's credit.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Pursuant to UCA §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5, and 30-3-5(1)(c), the parties shall be required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce. Therefore the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

Notify the joint creditor of the current address for each party;

Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who is not required to pay the debt.

The parties hereby specifically acknowledge and agree that the above division of debts is fair and reasonable and shall be a part of the divorce agreement. As such, the parties understand that the division of debts shall be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy pursuant to Section 523(a)(15) of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

INCOME TAXES. The parties jointly owe back federal income taxes for the tax years 2023 and 2024. Zoe has entered into a payment plan with the IRS to satisfy that obligation. She is paying $105.00 per month to the IRS and Taylor is not currently paying anything toward this obligation. Rather than negotiate a new agreement with the IRS, this payment plan shall continue with the parties sharing equally the monthly obligation. Upon execution of this Agreement, Taylor shall immediately begin paying Zoe $52.50 each month as and for his one-half (½) of the past due tax obligation. He shall make his payment each month on or before the 15th of the month, beginning November 15, 2026 and continuing until the obligation is satisfied.

The parties anticipate finalizing this divorce proceeding prior to December 31, 2026. The parties have not yet filed their 2025 tax returns. Each party shall each be responsible to file his or her own separate tax returns for the 2025 tax year. Any federal refunds received will be applied to the arrearage owed. Each party shall be entitled to his or her own state tax refunds. Each party shall be solely obligated to pay any and all 2025 obligations, federal or state (Taylor in Washington and Zoe in Utah, Washington or both), holding the other party harmless thereon.

VOLUNTARY AND KNOWLEDGEABLE EXECUTION. Each of the parties, after full opportunity to consult with legal counsel, acknowledges that he/she has voluntarily entered into their Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement with knowledge of its legal implications and consequences. Taylor specifically acknowledged that David J. Peters, attorney for Zoe, represented only Zoe in this matter and did not represent him in any capacity or for any purpose.

The parties each specifically acknowledged that their Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, taken in its entirety, is fair and reasonable and represents their desired settlement of all issues.

RESTORATION OF FORMER NAME. Zoe shall be restored to her former surname of Follum.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS. Each party is ordered to sign all papers, documents, titles, deeds and any other document necessary to effectuate any of the provisions hereof, including but not limited to the transfer of real or personal property.

ENFORCEMENT. Should either party be required to enforce this Agreement, the defaulting party shall be obligated to pay attorney's fees and costs associated with enforcing this Agreement whether a lawsuit is filed or not.

ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS. Each party shall bear and pay his/her won attorney's fees and costs in this matter.
