Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF WEBER COUNTY, OGDEN DEPARTMENT, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: KAITLYN KELLOS, Petitioner, and ADAM KELLOS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264900205 Judge: Jason Nelson Commissioner: Brandon Richards

The Honorable Judge Jason Nelson, after review of the parties' signed and executed Stipulation resolving all issues between the parties, does hereby enter a Decree of Divorce terminating the marriage of the parties in accordance with all terms contained herein and does Order and Decree as follows:

JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. The parties were married on 09/16/2016 in Bountiful, Davis County, State of Utah.

2. The parties separated on July 12, 2025.

3. Neither party is an active member of the United States Military.

4. Both parties resided in Weber County, State of Utah for more than three months prior to the date of filing of the Petition for Divorce.

5. The parties are granted a decree of divorce upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

MINOR CHILDREN

6. There are two minor children born of the marriage namely E.S.K born 06/19/2017, and C.J.K. born 09/13/2020.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

7. The parties shall share joint legal and joint physical custody of their minor children in accordance with the terms contained herein. The parties are awarded parent-time with the Minor Children as the parties may agree in writing.

8. If the parties cannot agree, they shall abide by the following overnight regular schedule:

	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
Week 1	Mother*	Mother*	Mother*	Mother*	Father	Mother	Mother
Week 2	Mother*	Mother*	Mother*	Father	Father	Father	Mother

* Father shall have custody of the minor children from the time they get out of school until Mother gets off of work wherein mother shall pick the minor children up from Father's residence, or if Father wants to keep the minor children until 7:30 p.m. Father shall drop the minor children off at Mother's home at 7:30 p.m. at Mother's residence.

9. More specifically, the schedule listed above shall be as follows:

a. In Week 1: Mother shall have custody of the minor children beginning Sunday evening and continuing until Friday when the children get off of school, or 7:30 p.m. if the children are not in school. Father shall pick the minor children up from school on Friday, or if the children are not in school, at Mother's residence at 7:30 p.m. Mother shall pick up the minor children at Father's home on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoon it is common for Mother to work until the evening. When Mother is working when the minor children get out of school, Father may pick the minor children up from school, or if they are not at school, when Father gets off of work, but no earlier than 8:00 a.m. and care for them until Mother gets off of work. If Father wants the minor child to stay with him until 7:30 p.m. he must drop off the children to Mother's residence at 7:30 p.m. When Mother gets off of work in the evening, she shall pick up the minor children from Father's residence.

b. In Week 2: Mother shall have custody of the minor children beginning Sunday evening and continuing until Thursday when the children get out of school, or 7:30 p.m. if the children are not in school. Father shall pick the minor children up from school on Thursday, or if the children are not in school, at Mother's residence at 7:30 p.m. Mother shall pick up the minor children from Father's home at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday evening. On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday afternoon it is common for Mother to work until the evening. When Mother is working when the minor children get out of school, Father may pick the minor children up from school, or if they are not at school, when Father gets off of work, but no earlier than 8:00 a.m. and care for them until Mother gets off of work. When Mother gets off of work in the evening, Mother shall pick up the minor children from Father's home. If Father wishes to keep the children until 7:30 p.m., after Mother gets off of work, he shall deliver the minor children to Mother's home at 7:30 p.m.

10. Kaitlyn is designated the custodial parent and residential parent for all purposes and shall be awarded all parent time not specifically awarded to Adam.

11. The parties shall exercise holiday and extended parent time in accordance with UCA §81-9-302, with Kaitlyn designated as the custodial parent for purposes of interpreting the holiday schedule.

PARENTING PLAN

12. In accordance with UCA §81-9-203, the parties shall abide by the following parenting plan:

a. Both parties shall have first right of refusal to care for the minor children if the other shall be away from the child(ren) longer than 4 hours. This provision does not restrict Father's right to visitation with the minor children after school while Mother is working as outlaid above.

b. The party who has physical custody of the minor children during their respective time with the minor children shall make the day-to-day decisions regarding the minor children.

c. If a dispute arises between the parties, they shall engage in the foregoing dispute resolution process:

    i. The parties shall civilly discuss the issue and attempt to reach a joint resolution regarding the issue.

ii. If the parties do not agree, Mother shall make the final decision regarding the issue. If Father disagrees with the decision, he may file a motion to address his position. The court should not overturn Mother's decision unless it finds that Mother's proposal to address the issue shall result in harm to the minor child(ren).

d. Regarding school, Mother's residence shall be designated as the location where the minor children shall attend school. Both parties shall have full access to all of the minor child's school records.

e. In the event either party intends to relocate more than 20 miles they shall provide notice and comply with all provisions of UCA 81-9-209.

f. Both parties shall be entitled to attend all special events and activities that the minor children are involved in regardless of whose parent-time they fall on.

g. All pickups and drop-offs of the Minor Children shall occur as the parties can agree. If they cannot agree, pickup and drop off shall occur at the school or at the parent who is ending their parent time.

h. In the event a party is allowed extra parent-time for any reason, that party shall be solely responsible for the transportation related to picking-up and returning the Minor Child for such parent-time.

i. The parties shall be prompt in their parent-time exchanges with a grace period of thirty (30) minutes after the scheduled exchange time. The parent with the Minor Child in his or her care shall have the minor child ready for pick up. If the parent picking up the Minor Child is more than thirty (30) minutes late, the parent with the Minor Child shall not have to wait and the parents shall make other arrangements for the parent-time exchange.

j. The parent-time schedule as set forth above shall commence July 20, 2026.

ADDITIONAL PARENT-TIME GUIDELINES

13. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-202. If any provision in the Decree of Divorce or the Advisory Guidelines directly conflict with one another, and that conflict cannot be harmonized between or among the provisions, then the provision in the Decree of Divorce shall prevail over any conflicting provision in the Advisory Guidelines.

CHILD SUPPORT and CHILD EXPENSES

14. Kaitlyn is employed full-time and currently receives a gross monthly income of $4,462.

15. Adam is employed full-time and currently receives a gross monthly income of $4506 per month.

16. Child support shall be awarded to Kaitlyn as deemed appropriate by the court, pursuant to the Utah Child Support Act, Utah Code §78B-12-101 et seq. Based on the established incomes, and Adam exercising 125 overnights with the minor children, Adam shall make child support payments to Kaitlyn in the amount of $709 per month.

17. Child support payments shall begin August 1, 2026. Neither party owes the other party any back-owing child support or health insurance that has not been addressed in this document.

18. Child support shall be paid in two equal monthly installments on or before the 7th and 22nd days of each month. Child support for each child shall terminate at the time (a) a child reaches the age of 18 years, provided however, in the event a child reaches 18 years of age and has not graduated from high school, the support shall continue until the child's normal and anticipated high school class graduates, or (b) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

19. Child support due and not paid by the 7th day of each month shall be deemed delinquent on the 8th day of the month. Child support due and not paid by the 22nd day of each month shall be deemed delinquent on the 23rd day of the month.

20. Either party is entitled to establish an account with the Office of Recovery Services ("ORS") for the purpose of collecting, enforcing and modifying child support. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by the party who initially seeks ORS services.

21. Child support may also be made payable to Kaitlyn by personal check, Venmo, wire transfer, direct deposit, or money order.

22. Both parties shall be equally responsible for any education or school costs associated with the minor children's education, as well as any costs associated with extracurricular activities agreed upon in writing by the parties in which the minor children participates.

CHILDCARE

23. The parties shall share equally in all work-related daycare expenses equally between the parties. Each party shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that party may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order. The party incurring childcare expenses shall provide the other party with written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider upon initial engagement of the provider and thereafter upon reasonable request of the other party. A party incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses, if the party incurring the expenses fails to comply with the foregoing notice requirements as to cost and identity of the provider.

MEDICAL FOR THE CHILDREN

24. Adam shall maintain and pay the premiums for the health insurance for the minor children with Kaitlyn sharing equally in the children's pro-rata portion of the health insurance premium. Mother shall maintain, dental and vision insurance for and on behalf of the Minor Children with Father having no obligation to reimburse Mother for the children's portion of the dental and vision insurance. With the exception of the premiums for dental and eye care, any out-of-pocket expenses for the health, medical, dental, vision, psychiatric, therapeutic or similar medical expenses shall be shared equally between the parties. Obligations for providing medical, dental, or eye coverage for the minor children applies long as coverage is available through Adam or Kaitlyn's current or subsequent place of employment at a reasonable cost. In the event such insurance becomes unavailable to a respective party, the party who can obtain the best coverage shall maintain coverage at the most reasonable cost.

25. If, at any point in time, the Minor Child is covered by health, dental or vision plans of both parties, the insurance plan of Adam shall be primary coverage for the Minor Children, and the insurance plan of Kaitlyn shall be secondary coverage for the Minor Child. If a party remarries and the Minor Child are not covered by the remarried party's insurance plan but are covered by the remarried party's spouse's plan (the step-parent), the insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried party and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the Minor Child.

26. Except for dental and vision insurance premiums, the parties shall share equally in all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, vision and orthodontia expenses incurred for the Minor Children, including but not limited to deductibles and co-payments. The party incurring such expenses on the Minor Children's behalf shall provide the other party with documentation supporting the medical expenses incurred and payment of such expenses within thirty (30) days of payment; the other party shall be required to pay his/her portion or make arrangements to do so, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the required documentation.

27. Adam currently pays $698 a month for health insurance premium costs for him and the two children. Kaitlyn's ½ per capita portion is $232 a month. Adam shall deduct Kaitlyn's portion of the health insurance from his monthly child support. Adam's child support payment minus the premium shall be $477 a month.

REAL PROPERTY

28. During the marriage, the parties acquired a house and real property located at 2020 Jackson Ave Ogden UT 84401.

29. Kaitlyn is to be awarded exclusive possession and ownership of the Marital Home, and all permanent right, title, interest and equity in and to the Marital Home, free and clear from any claim or equity interest by Adam, with the exception of the payout in equity to Adam from Kaitlyn as outlaid below, and Kaitlyn shall accept and assume exclusive responsibility for any and all debt or obligations arising out of the ownership of the Marital Home.

30. Adam shall execute a Quit Claim Deed to transfer all his rights in the Marital Home to Kaitlyn at the time that he receives his payout.

31. Adam's equity interest in the marital home is $40,000. Kaitlyn shall pay Adam said $40,000 within 90 days of the completion of all payments on the parties' joint Chapter 13 bankruptcy, and the successful completion and closure of the parties' joint bankruptcy.

32. While Adam is waiting for his $40,000 equity payout, if Kaitlyn is unable to pay the mortgage and or the bankruptcy payments and Adam pays either payment on her behalf, these amounts in any will be paid will in addition to the total payout that shall occur within 90 days of completion of the bankruptcy. Under no circumstances shall Adam be awarded more than $40,000 plus any additional monies he paid regarding the house between the time of entry of the Decree until he receives said $40,000.

33. At the end of the bankruptcy proceedings. If Kaitlyn cannot pay Adam out the monies, then Adam can request that the property may be sold, wherein Adam shall receive $40,000 of equity, plus any additional payments outlaid above with Kaitlyn being awarded all other equity funds from the property.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

34. During the marriage, the parties acquired various items of tangible personal property. The parties have already divided all personal property. Each party is hereby awarded all personal property in their current possession.

35. Each party is awarded the respective vehicles in their possession. Kaitlyn is awarded the 2019 Chevrolet Equinox with any debts associated therewith. Adam is awarded the 2011 Nissan Titan and any debts associated therewith. Both parties shall timely pay all ongoing monthly debt payments on said vehicles until paid in full.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

36. During the marriage, the parties acquired various financial accounts, all such accounts have been previously divided. The parties have no joint accounts. As such, each party is awarded the bank accounts and financial accounts they hold in their own respective names.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS & PENSION

37. During the marriage, the parties may have obtained various retirement accounts and pension plans. All such accounts shall be awarded to the party whose name the retirement account or pension is held in. The parties hold no joint retirement accounts or pensions.

ARREARAGES

38. The parties stipulate and agree that both parties are current in all financial obligations, one to the other, through the date of the Stipulation, including arrears for medical expenses for the minor children, child support, alimony, out-of-pocket expenses, reimbursements and the like. This does not apply to any unpaid medical, dental, educational, or extracurricular fees that are due and owing to any provider for the minor children. Any such unpaid balances shall be shared equally between the parties as set forth herein.

DEBTS

Chapter 13 Bankruptcy

39. The parties are currently involved in a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy. Kaitlyn shall be solely responsible for the monthly payment which is $637.00 until the bankruptcy plan is completed and paid in full.

Other Debts and Obligations

40. During the marriage, the parties incurred various other unsecured debts. The parties hold no other joint debts other than the Chapter 13 Bankruptcy debt. Each party is awarded their own separate debts and shall hold the other harmless therefrom.

Taxes & Tax Exemptions

41. To the extent the parties file joint tax returns during the pendency of and/or after this divorce, the parties shall be required to equally split tax refunds they receive and any amounts they owe to the IRS or Utah State Tax Commission.

42. For the parties' 2026 tax returns and each year thereafter when there are two minor children, each party shall claim one minor child, with Adam claiming Connor and Kaitlyn claiming Embrie. If there is only one minor child the parties shall rotate claiming the minor child each year with Mother claiming in even numbered years and Father claiming in odd.

43. If Father is not current in all of his child support obligations on December 31st, he shall not be entitled to claim any of the children for tax exemption purposes and Wife shall be entitled to claim the minor children for any calendar year wherein Father is not current.

INSURANCE POLICIES

44. Both parties shall immediately obtain their own vehicle insurance for their own respective vehicles.

ALIMONY

45. The parties are each able bodied and capable of meeting their own respective needs. The parties have duly negotiated their respective rights to alimony as part of the above listed property settlement. Both parties therefore waive any past, present, or future claim for alimony.

COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES

46. The parties shall each pay their own respective attorney fees. Should either party be found in violation of this agreement, then the court shall award attorneys fees to the prevailing party.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

47. Each party shall be permanently restrained from harassing the other party or their family.

48. Each party shall be permanently restrained from committing, trying to commit, or threatening to commit any form of violence against the other. This includes stalking, threatening, physically hurting or causing any other form of abuse.

49. All communication between the parties shall be civil.

50. Each party shall be permanently restrained from saying anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party, or extended family members to, or in the presence of, the minor child, and the parties shall remove the child from the presence of third parties engaging in such conduct.

51. Likeness, Image, Credit. Both Parties shall be restrained from using the likeness, image, or credit of the other Party for any purpose. Should either party have any images of the other party where they are disrobed or naked, or portrayed in a manner that would be embarrassing it shall be destroyed and or returned to the other party. At no point shall it be disseminated to the internet or to any other hard drives or locations. Should any of these pictures already be posted they shall be immediately removed.

52. Electronic Access. The Parties hereby revoke all access to any individual electronic accounts or passwords that they may have given during the marriage. Neither Party shall use any passwords that they may know to look at e-mails, or account balances or any other information of the other parties at any time after the signing of the stipulation. The parties shall also return any keys or garage door openers or abilities to access any items of the other party. Neither party shall track or monitor the other party.

53. Social Media: Neither party shall make negative statements online or in other public forums about the other person in a direct or in-direct fashion.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

54. Mother shall be entitled to be restored to her maiden name of Kaitlyn Marie Fry at her sole choice and direction.

55. Each party shall cooperate with the other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes and title to property divided hereunder, to close all joint banking, charge, or other financial services accounts (including securities accounts), to change the names and responsibilities for payment on charge accounts and other debts and obligations divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary and proper to ensure that the terms set forth herein are carried out in every detail as expeditiously as is practicable under the circumstances.

56. Both parties shall be ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of the divorce decree. If a party fails to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

57. With respect to either party who is not ordered to make payments under Utah Code Ann.81 et all on the joint obligation, no negative report under Utah Code Ann. 70C-7-107 and no report to the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Chapter 14, Title 7, credit information exchange may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of the Court's Order as required under Utah Code Ann. 15-4-6.5(2), unless the creditor has made a demand on the joint obligor not ordered to pay the debt for payment because of the failure to make payments by the joint obligor ordered to make the payments.

58. In the event of a breach of the parties' Decree of Divorce or in any lawsuit related thereto, the substantially prevailing party shall be entitled to collect from the other party all expenses incurred in pursuing or defending the action, including (without limitation) all attorney fees, costs, and other expenses incurred therein.

59. No change or modification of the terms of the parties' Decree of Divorce shall be effective, unless and until confirmed in writing, executed by both parties, making specific reference to the Decree, or as otherwise may be expressly ordered by the Court.
