Placing information on a shared calendar should constitute notice.

14. Special Events. other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity should not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents should be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities, so long as they are behaving maturely and not entering into any argument with the other parent or any other third party at the activity. The parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

19. Third Party Transportation. Both parties must approve if any third-party individual is needed to pick up the child(ren) if the other parent is unable.

Based on the parties' respective incomes and the Utah Child Support Guidelines, Petitioner shall pay Respondent $572.00 per month in child support.

21. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust as indicated herein: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month. a. 3Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child(ren)'s portion of insurance. The child(ren)'s portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child(ren) shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child(ren) in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. 4Each parent should share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child(ren) and actually paid by the parents.

The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child(ren) as indicated.
