

CR1010A Definition of Refusal Admonition

Under Utah law, a peace officer requesting a chemical test shall issue the Refusal Admonition, which states that refusal to submit to the test or tests may result in criminal prosecution, revocation of the person's license to operate a motor vehicle, a five or 10 year prohibition of driving with any measurable or detectable amount of alcohol in the person's body depending on the person's prior driving history, and a three-year prohibition of driving without an ignition interlock device.
