1. Judge Mrazik welcomed new members and invited everyone to introduce themselves.
2. Charles Stormont moved to approve the December minutes and Shawn Newell seconded the motion. The minutes were approved.

3. Judge Mrazik reviewed the committee's mandate under CJA 3-115 and reviewed prior accomplishments of the committee
 - a. Expansion of pro se calendars
 - b. Promoting a balanced use of remote hearings
 - c. Supporting MyCase – the self-represented litigant portal
 - d. Establishing the need for, and creating the Self-Help Center
 - e. Coordinating services during COVID
 - f. Rule changes to require bilingual summonses and add short URLs and QR codes to our forms
 - g. Rule changes allow parties to access the courts, regardless of their appearance
4. The committee reviewed what they have been working on
 - a. Surveys to gather feedback on Webex hearings from self-represented litigants
 - b. Removing barriers to accessing the courts
 - c. Continuing the expansion of pro se calendars
 - d. CLE credit for pro bono work
5. The committee discussed having a facilitated discussion regarding what the group should prioritize next. Judge Mrazik will ask Nini Rich to help facilitate a discussion at an upcoming meeting
6. The committee talked about opportunities for future intervention, including
 - a. Training for court staff
 - b. Procedural improvements
 - c. Difficulties accessing the court, especially given basic infrastructural challenges like telecommunications ability
 - d. The tension between access to the courts and access to counsel
7. Nancy Sylvester updated the committee on the pending rule to give lawyers CLE credit for pro bono work
 - a. The current proposal is for 2 hours max of CLE credit for 5 hours of pro bono work, provided that pro bono programs are court or Bar sponsored
 - i. This would be a 2 year pilot project
 - b. Members of the committee expressed concerns about limiting the credit to just the court and the bar – having the rule be expansive on that front seems important
 - c. Nancy plans to try to attend the next MCLE board meeting and to ask for a more expansive approach. Charles Stormont, Brooke Robinson, and Alison Saterlee plan to attend with Nancy.
8. People's Legal Aid is hiring for two staff attorneys to help with evictions – if you know anyone who is hiring, please encourage them to apply. TLC is also hiring for a part-time family law attorney.
