- 1 Rule 7B. Motion to enforce order and for sanctions in domestic law matters.
- 2 (a) Motion. To enforce a court order or to obtain a sanctions order for violation of an
- 3 order, a party must file an ex parte motion to enforce order and for sanctions (if
- 4 requested), pursuant to this rule and Rule 7. The motion must be filed in the same case
- 5 in which that order was entered. The timeframes set forth in this rule, rather than those
- 6 set forth in Rule 7, govern motions to enforce orders and for sanctions. If the motion is
- 7 to be heard by a commissioner, the motion must also follow the procedures of Rule 101.
- 8 For purpose of this rule, an order includes a decree.
- 9 (b) Affidavit. The motion must state the title and date of entry of the order that the
- moving party seeks to enforce. The motion must be verified, or must be accompanied
- by at least one supporting affidavit that is based on personal knowledge and shows that
- the affiant is competent to testify on the matters set forth. The verified motion or
- affidavit must set forth facts that would be admissible in evidence and that would
- support a finding that the party has violated the order.
- 15 (c) Proposed order. The motion must be accompanied by a request to submit for
- decision and a proposed order to attend hearing, which must:
- 17 (1) state the title and date of entry of the order that the motion seeks to enforce;
- 18 (2) state the relief sought in the motion;
- 19 (3) state whether the motion is requesting that the other party be held in contempt
- and, if so, state that the penalties for contempt may include, but are not limited to, a
- 21 fine of up to $1000 and confinement in jail for up to 30 days;
- 22 (4) order the other party to appear personally or through counsel at a specific place
- 23 (the court's address) and date and time (left blank for the court clerk to fill in) to
- explain whether the nonmoving party has violated the order; and
- 25 (5) state that no written response to the motion is required, but is permitted if filed
- at least 14 days before the hearing, unless the court sets a different time, and that 27 any written response must follow the requirements of Rule 7, and Rule 101 if the 28 hearing will be before a commissioner.

- (d) Service of the order. If the court issues an order to attend a hearing, the moving party must have the order, motion, and all supporting affidavits served on the nonmoving party at least 28 days before the hearing. Service must be in a manner provided in Rule 4 if the nonmoving party is not represented by counsel in the case. If the nonmoving party is represented by counsel in the case, service must be made on the nonmoving party's counsel of record in a manner provided in Rule 5. For purposes of this rule, a party is represented by counsel if, within the last 120 days, counsel for that party has served or filed any documents in the case and has not withdrawn. The court may shorten the 28 day period if:
- 38 (1) the motion requests an earlier date; and
- (2) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the moving party if the hearing is not held sooner.
- (e) Opposition. A written opposition is not required, but if filed, must be filed at least 14 days before the hearing, unless the court sets a different time, and must follow the
- requirements of Rule 7, and Rule 101 if the hearing will be before a commissioner.
- 45 (f) Reply. If the nonmoving party files a written opposition, the moving party may file a
- reply at least 7 days before the hearing, unless the court sets a different time. Any reply
- 47 must follow the requirements of Rule 7, and Rule 101 if the hearing will be before a
- 48 commissioner.
- 49 (g) Hearing. At the hearing the court may receive evidence, hear argument, and rule
- 50 upon the motion, or may request additional briefing or hearings. The moving party
- 51 bears the burden of proof on all claims made in the motion. At the court's discretion, the
- 52 court may convene a telephone conference before the hearing to preliminarily address

- 53 any issues related to the motion, including whether the court would like to order a
- 54 briefing schedule other than as set forth in this rule.
- 55 (h) Counter Motions. A responding party may request affirmative relief only by filing a
- counter motion, to be heard at the same hearing. A counter motion need not be limited
- 57 to the subject matter of the original motion. All of the provisions of this rule apply to
- counter motions except that a counter motion must be filed and served with the
- 59 opposition. Any opposition to the counter motion must be filed and served no later
- 60 than the reply to the motion. Any reply to the opposition to the counter motion must be
- 61 filed and served at least 3 business days before the hearing in a manner that will cause
- the reply to be actually received by the party responding to the counter motion (i.e.
- 63 hand-delivery, fax or other electronic delivery as allowed by rule or agreed by the
- parties). The party who filed the counter motion bears the burden of proof on all claims
- 65 made in the counter motion. A separate proposed order is required only for counter
- 66 motions to enforce a court order or to obtain a sanctions order for violation of an order,
- in which case the proposed order for the counter motion must:
- (1) state the title and date of entry of the order that the counter motion seeks to
- 69 enforce;
- 70 (2) state the relief sought in the counter motion;
- 71 (3) state whether the counter motion is requesting that the other party be held in
- 72 contempt and, if so, state that the penalties for contempt may include, but are not
- limited to, a fine of up to $1000 and confinement in jail for up to 30 days;
- 74 (4) order the other party to appear personally or through counsel at the scheduled
- hearing to explain whether that party has violated the order; and
- 76 (5) state that no written response to the countermotion is required, but that a written
- 77 response is permitted if filed at least 7 days before the hearing, unless the court sets
- a different time, and that any written response must follow the requirements of Rule
- 79 7, and Rule 101 if the hearing will be before a commissioner.

- (i) Limitations. This rule does not apply to an order that is issued by the court on its 80 own initiative. This rule applies only to domestic relations actions, including divorce; 81 temporary separation; separate maintenance; parentage; custody; child support; 82 adoptions; cohabitant abuse protective orders; child protective orders; civil stalking 83 injunctions; grandparent visitation; and modification actions. Nothing in this rule is 84 85 intended to limit or alter the inherent power of the court to initiate order to show cause 86 proceedings to assess whether cases should be dismissed for failure to prosecute or to 87 otherwise manage the court's docket, or to limit the authority of the court to hold a 88 party in contempt for failure to appear pursuant to a court order.
- (j) Orders to show cause. The process set forth in this rule replaces and supersedes the prior order to show cause procedure. An order to attend hearing serves as an order to show cause as that term is used in Utah law.
