

1   Rule 11-613. CLE Accreditation for qualified audio and video presentations, webcasts,
2   computer interactive programs, writing, lecturing, teaching, public service, and
3   verified attendance.

4   (a) Permissible Elective CLE credit. Elective CLE credit will be allowed for Accredited
5   audio and video presentations, webcasts, computer interactive programs, writing,
6   lecturing, teaching, and service in accordance with the following.

7       (1) One hour of Elective CLE credit will be allowed for viewing and/or listening to 60
8       minutes of audio or video presentations, webcasts, or computer interactive programs
9       in accordance with Rule 11-608.

10      (2) Upon application to the Board, the Board may grant a waiver, permitting a lawyer
11       or licensed paralegal practitioner on active status to obtain all required hours of credit
12       through Elective CLE, if the lawyer or licensed paralegal practitioner:

13           (A) does not reside in Utah; and

14           (B) is engaged in full-time volunteer work for a religious or charitable 15       organization.

16   (b) Writing and publishing articles. Elective CLE is allowed for lawyers and licensed 17       paralegal practitioners for writing and publishing articles in a legal periodical in 18       accordance with the following.

19       (1) To be eligible for any credit, an article must:

20           (A) be written to address an audience of lawyers or licensed paralegal
21       practitioners;

22           (B) be at least ~~3,000~~ 1,000 words in length;

23           (C) be published by a recognized publisher of legal material; and

24           (D) not be used in conjunction with a seminar.

25       (2) ~~Three~~ One Elective CLE credit hours will be allowed for each ~~3,000~~ 1,000 words in 26       the article. An application for Accreditation of the article must be submitted at least
27       30 days prior to reporting the article for credit. Two or more authors may share credit
28       obtained pursuant to this paragraph in proportion to their contribution to the article.

29 (c) Lecturing, teaching, or delivering a paper or speech at a meeting. Elective CLE Credit
30 is allowed for lecturing in an Accredited CLE program, part-time teaching by a lawyer or 31 licensed paralegal practitioner in an approved law school, or delivering a paper or speech
32 on a professional subject at a meeting primarily attended by lawyers, licensed paralegal
33 practitioners, legal assistants, or law students in accordance with the following.

34 (1) Lecturers in an Accredited CLE program and part-time teachers may receive three
35 hours of Elective CLE credit for each hour spent in lecturing or teaching as provided
36 in Rule 11-609, including participation in panel discussions.

37 (2) Lecturers in a community outreach capacity, as described in Rule 11-609, may
38 receive one hour of Elective CLE credit for each hour spent in lecturing or teaching
39 provided such CLE credit does not exceed four hours for a Compliance Cycle for a
40 lawyer or two hours for a Compliance Cycle for a licensed paralegal practitioner.

41 (d) Full-time law school faculty members. Full-time law school faculty members may
42 receive Elective CLE credit for lecturing and teaching, including participating as a
43 presenter in a panel discussion, but only for lecturing and teaching Accredited CLE
44 courses.

45 (e) Minimum Credit hours of Verified CLE. Credit is allowed for Verified CLE in 46 accordance with Rule 11-608.

47 (1) A lawyer must obtain a minimum of six Accredited CLE hours, with no maximum 48 restriction, through Verified CLE.

49 (2) A licensed paralegal practitioner must obtain a minimum of three Accredited CLE
50 hours, with no maximum restriction, through Verified CLE.

51 (f) Total allowable hours. The total of all hours allowable under paragraphs (a), (b), (c),
52 and (d) of this rule may not exceed six hours during a Compliance Cycle for a lawyer,
53 nor three hours during a Compliance Cycle for a licensed paralegal practitioner.