Rule 15-518. Interim suspension for threat of harm.

determined as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

| 2  | (a) Transmittal of evidence. Upon receipt of sufficient evidence demonstrating that a licensed     |
|----|--|
| 3  | paralegal practitioner subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court poses a       |
| 4  | substantial threat of irreparable harm to the public and has either committed a violation of the   |
| 5  | Rules of Professional Conduct or is under a disability as herein defined, OPC counsel shall file a |
| 6  | petition for interim suspension in the district court and give notice in accordance with Utah Rule |
| 7  | of Civil Procedure 65A. An action is commenced under this rule when the petition for interim       |
| 8  | suspension is filed.   |
| 9  | (b) Immediate interim suspension. After conducting a hearing on the petition, the district         |
| 10 | court may enter an order immediately suspending the respondent pending final disposition of a      |
| 11 | disciplinary proceeding predicated upon the conduct causing the harm, or may order such other      |
| 12 | action as deemed appropriate. If an order is entered:  |
| 13 | (b)(1) the district court may appoint a trustee, pursuant to Rule 15-527, to protect the           |
| 14 | interests of the respondent's clients; and   |
| 15 | (b)(2) the OPC may file a formal complaint in the district court without presenting the matter     |
| 16 | to a screening panel.  |
| 17 | (c) Notice to clients. A respondent suspended pursuant to paragraph (b) shall comply with the      |
| 18 | notice requirements in Rule 15-526 as ordered by the district court.                               |
| 19 | (d) Motion for dissolution of interim suspension. On two days' notice to OPC counsel, a            |
| 20 | respondent suspended pursuant to paragraph (b) may appear and move for dissolution or              |
| 21 | modification of the order of suspension, and in that event, the motion shall be heard and          |
