

1 Rule 14-714. Unsuccessful Applicants disclosure and right of inspection.

2 Effective: 9/1/2020

3 (a) Inspection of the Written Component. The Written Component of the Bar Examination ~~shall~~
4 will be retained for no fewer than six months after the date that examination's results have been
5 announced. An unsuccessful Applicant ~~shall~~will be entitled to a reasonable inspection of the 6 Applicant's answers to the MEE and MPT questions.

7 (b) The MEE and MPT questions and analyses are available from the NCBE.

8 (c) Privileged Information is not subject to disclosure.

9 (d) Inspection of MBE. This rule does not permit an Applicant to inspect MBE questions or her or 10 his answers. Neither copies of the MBE questions nor answers are retained by the Bar.

11 (e) All disclosure under this rule is governed by Rule 14-720.