

1 Rule 11-619. CLE Credit for Pro Bono Legal Services.

2 (a) CLE credit for Pro Bono Legal Services. A lawyer may be awarded a maximum of two CLE credits
3 per Compliance Cycle for providing Pro Bono Legal Services or mentoring another lawyer or a law
4 student providing Pro Bono Legal Services.

5 (b) Pro Bono referral source. To receive Pro Bono Legal Services CLE credit under this rule, the 6 services rendered must be referred from a Utah court, the Utah State Bar, or a sponsoring entity.
7 The Pro Bono referral must remain under the direction of the Utah court, the Utah State bar, or the 8 sponsoring entity that provided the referral.

9 (c) Permissible CLE credit. One Elective CLE credit hour will be awarded for the following:

10 (1)

11 providing the equivalent of five hours of Pro Bono Legal Services; or

12 (2) mentoring a lawyer or a law student on an entire Pro Bono matter that is equal to 13 at least five hours.

14 (d) Declaration of services form. A lawyer seeking CLE credit under this rule must, consistent with 15 Rule 11-614(c), complete a declaration of services form to keep with the lawyer's records. Earned
16 credit hours must be reported on an attorney's Certificate of Compliance.

17 ~~(e) Time-limited rule. This rule will terminate April 30, 2025 unless extended by the Supreme Court.~~
