Because this matter involves divorce, annulment, temporary separation, custody, parent-time, child support, or paternity, the court makes the following orders. These orders apply to the petitioner and respondent named above.

1. The parties must not:

- a. harass, intimidate or disturb the peace of the other party, by any means, including electronically.
- b. commit domestic violence or abuse against the other party or a child.
- c. use the other party's name, likeness, image, or identification to get credit, open an account for service, or obtain a service.
- d. cancel or interfere with telephone, utility, or other services used by the other party.
- e. cancel, modify, terminate, change the beneficiary, or allow to lapse for voluntary nonpayment of premiums (without the written consent of the other party or pursuant to further order of the court) any policy of
  - i. health insurance,

- ii. homeowner's or renter's insurance,
- iii. automobile insurance, or
- iv. life insurance

2. If the petition involves the division of property, personal property or debts, the parties must not:

transfer, encumber, conceal, or dispose of your property or the other party's property unless:

- a. you have the written consent of the other party or
- b. you have a court order except in the usual course of business or to provide for the necessities of life.

3. If the petition involves minor children, the parties must not:

a. Take the children on non-routine travel unless:

- i. you have the written consent of the other party or
- ii. you have a court order, or
- iii. the following information has been provided to the other party:
  - an itinerary of travel dates and destinations;
  - how to contact the children or traveling party; and
  - the name and telephone number of an available third person who will know the children's location.

b. In the presence or hearing of the children:

- i. demean or disparage (talk badly about) the other party;
- ii. attempt to influence the children's preference regarding custody or parent time; or
- iii. say or do anything that would negatively affect the love and affection of the children for the other party, or involve the children in the issues of the petition.

c. Make parent time arrangements through the children.

4. When the children are under a party's care, that party must use best efforts to prevent others from doing anything described above, and if necessary remove the children from the situation.

5. This domestic relations injunction is effective:

- for the petitioner when the petition is filed.

- for the respondent when they receive a copy of the injunction entered by the court.
6. The domestic relations injunction is in effect until:
    - the final decree is entered,
    - the petition is dismissed,
    - the parties otherwise agree in a writing signed by all parties, or
    - the court orders otherwise.
  7. A party may ask to modify or dissolve the domestic relations injunction by filing a motion.
    - The motion will be decided as quickly as possible if it is filed before an answer to the petition or other responsive pleading is filed. The moving party must serve the nonmoving party at least 48 hours before a hearing.
    - If the motion is filed after a responsive pleading is filed, Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 7 or Rule 101 apply.
  8. If there is another order with conflicting provisions governing the parties or their minor children, the parties must comply with the provisions of the other order.
  9. This domestic relations injunction does not apply to the Office of Recovery Services.
