Respondent does receive or has received public assistance.

c. Petitioner Respondent must pay $_____ per month for child support. The following child support worksheet is attached (Choose one.):

sole physical custody worksheet

joint physical custody worksheet

split custody worksheet

(Choose one.)

This amount is based on the Uniform Child Support Guidelines (Utah Code 78B-12-2).

This amount deviates from the Uniform Child Support Guidelines. The court finds that a deviated child support amount is in the best interests of the minor children based on:

the standard of living and situation of the parties.

the relative wealth and income of the parties.

the obligor's (person who pays support) ability to earn.

the ability of the obligee (person who receives support) to earn.

the ability of an incapacitated adult child to earn, or other benefits received by the adult child or on the adult child's behalf including Supplemental Security Income.

the needs of the obligee, the obligor, and the child.

the ages of the parties.

the responsibilities of the obligor and the obligee for the support of others.

other. (Describe.):

OR

Other payment arrangement:

g. Child support not paid on or before the due date is past due on the day after the due date.

h. Past-due child support will be determined by further judicial or administrative process. Any federal or state tax refund or rebate due to the non-custodial parent will be intercepted by the state of Utah and applied to child support arrearages.

11. Child care expenses

- Both parties share equally all reasonable child care expenses related to the custodial parent's work or occupational training.
- The parent who pays child care expenses must immediately provide to the other parent written verification of the cost of the child care expenses and the identity of the child care provider when hired, within 30 calendar days after a change in the provider or the expense, and anytime upon the request of the other parent.

- If the parent who pays child care expenses does not provide written verification of child care, that parent may be denied the right to recover or receive credit for the other parent's one-half share of the child care expense.
- The other parent must begin paying one-half the child care amount on a monthly basis immediately after receiving proof from the parent that pays the child care expense.

Other order for child care payment:

12. Health insurance, medical and dental expenses

The minor children currently have health insurance coverage through:

- Petitioner's insurance
- Respondent's insurance
- Medicaid
- CHIP
- Other: _____
- Not covered by insurance

Petitioner Respondent must maintain health insurance for the minor children if it is available to that parent at a reasonable cost. Both parties must share equally:

- a. the cost of the premium paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium will be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of people covered by the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of the parties; and
- b. all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses incurred for the children and paid by a parent, including deductibles and co-payments.

The parent ordered to maintain insurance must provide written verification of coverage to the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services when the children are first enrolled, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year and upon any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days after the date that parent knew or should have known of the change.

If the parent ordered to maintain insurance fails to provide written verification of coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services, or if the parent incurring medical expenses fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment, that parent may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses.

The parent receiving written verification must reimburse the parent who incurred the medical or dental expenses one-half of the amount within 30 days after receiving the written verification.
