UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of

JULIE ANN TATE

and

AARON WESLEY TATE

DIVORCE DECREE

Case No. 254402394
Judge Shawn R. Howell
Commissioner Marian Ito

IN THIS MATTER, the parties have signed a Stipulation for Divorce consenting to the entry of a Decree of Divorce consistent with the terms set forth in the Stipulation. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and the Stipulation for Divorce, finds that the Court has jurisdiction to enter a Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-405(1)(h).

1. Residency. Petitioner and Respondent are both bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for more than three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. Marriage Information. Petitioner and Respondent were married on November 20, 2020, in Lehi, Utah County, State of Utah. They separated on or about August 4, 2025.
3. Grounds. The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in their marriage and there is no chance of reconciliation. The parties request that this Court order that the marriage be dissolved.
4. Child. The parties have one (1) minor child born or adopted of this marriage, to wit: J.P.T., born in January of 2018.
5. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), the parties stipulate that there are no proceedings involving custody, criminal, protective orders, or delinquency involving the above-named minor child in juvenile court or any other venue.
6. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6*et seq.* (1953 as amended), in that Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of commencement of this proceeding.
7. Legal Custody. Each of the parties being fit and proper persons, the parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor child.

- a. The parties shall discuss all major decisions concerning the child including his health, education, and general welfare, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy.
- b. To accomplish this, the parties shall use the following decision-making procedure:
 - (1) Identify the issue; (2) Discuss possible solutions; (3) Consult with any applicable and available experts; and (4) Choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved.
- c. If the parties reach an impasse following this process, Mother shall have provisional final decision-making authority. Mother shall communicate her decision to Father in writing, and Father shall have fourteen (14) days from his receipt of the decision to file an appropriate pleading to challenge the decision. The decision shall be stayed until this fourteen (14) day waiting period has passed. If Father files such a pleading, the decision shall be stayed pending the court's determination.
- d. While the parties await the court's determination, they may attend mediation in an attempt to resolve the issue.
- e. Mother shall be deemed the residential parent for school zoning purposes.
- f. The minor child may be baptized and fully participate in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints if he wishes. If the child chooses to be baptized or to receive any priesthood ordination, Father shall have the first right to perform any such ordinances.

Both parties shall be fully advised as to the dates and times of all important Church-related events, including but not limited to ordinances, talks given by the child, special recognitions, and other events at which parents would be invited to attend.

8. Physical Custody and Parent Time. Mother is awarded sole physical custody of the minor child, with parent time being as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, parent time shall be as follows:

a. Parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, with a potential increase of parent time as set forth in this Paragraph 8. Father shall not exercise overnight parent time until such time that he provides documentation that he has appropriate living arrangements for overnight parent time, including a separate bedroom and bed for the minor child. Once documentation is provided, the next weekend parent time under the normal rotation shall be overnight.

b. Father shall have the minor child on alternating weekends, from Friday at the end of school (if the child is in school) until Sunday night at 7:00 p.m. If the child is not in school and Father is available to be with the minor child, Father may pick the child up beginning at 8 a.m., or from after work.

c. Father shall also have the child for a mid-week visit on Wednesdays, from 5:30 p.m., or after school, until 8:30 p.m.

d. If Father utilizes eighty (80%) of his allotted parent time for a period of nine (9) months following entry of the Decree, Father's parent time shall increase to include Sunday nights on his weekends with the minor child. Father shall thereafter be responsible to drop the minor child off at school on Monday morning following his weekends.

9. Transportation. Exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the following shall apply:

- a. The receiving parent shall pick up the minor child for all visits.
- b. School-to-school exchanges shall be utilized when appropriate.
- c. When school to school exchanges are not utilized, exchanges shall occur at the residence of the parent ending their parent time.
- d. A responsible adult third party known to the child and both parties may be utilized for exchanges.

10. Holiday Parent Time. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, holiday parent time shall be based upon Utah Code Ann §81-9-302, as set forth herein:

- a. The parties have chosen to remove Juneteenth, Columbus Day, and Veterans' Day from the schedule of alternated holidays.
- b. Holiday parent time shall take precedence over regular parent time, and both parties shall be restrained from interrupting the other's holiday parent time.

c. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

d. If a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
- ii. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
- iii. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Mother's Day, Father's Day, or the child's birthday;
- iv. extended parent-time; and
- v. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

e. Unless the parties agree otherwise, once Father has overnight parent time, holiday parent time shall be according to the following schedule:

Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, name calling, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or visitation.

b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes the child's best interest.

party shall have first option to provide care for the minor children over any other third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for after work or for a period of overnight or longer during parent time, and the other parent if personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent time under the right of first refusal shall (a) provide all transportation to and from parent time and (b) provide direct parental care. The parties shall use their best reasonable efforts to provide this right of first refusal even in situations shorter than overnights.

Neither party may obligate the child to an unapproved extracurricular activity which infringes on the parent time of the other parent.

18. Medical, Dental and Other Healthcare Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code Ann.

§81-6-208, insurance for the medical, accident, vision, and dental expenses of the minor child shall be provided by both parties, if it's available at a reasonable cost.

- a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be considered the primary coverage for the child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be considered the secondary coverage for the child.

b. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

c. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

d. Each parent who has obtained insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.

e. Each parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

f. The parties shall follow Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7, §81-3-105, and §81-4-501, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, §81-4-204, or §81-6-208, or an administrative order under §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

19. Childcare Expenses. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, both parties shall share equally all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related childcare expenses.

a. The party who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other party upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other party. The party to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the childcare expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket cost within 30 days of receipt of the written verification. The party incurring and/or paying for childcare expenses shall notify the other party of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for the childcare shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense.

c. A party incurring and/or paying for childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if the party incurring and/or paying for the expenses fails to comply with this order.

d. Where feasible, the parties shall cooperate to give each other the first right of refusal to provide childcare prior to employing paid childcare.

e. Childcare provided by family members shall be deemed to be free.

20. Tax Exemptions. Tax exemptions for the minor child shall be awarded as follows:

a. For tax year 2025, the parties shall file joint tax returns and equally divide any refund or shortfall.

b. Starting with tax year 2026, Father shall claim the child for odd numbered tax years, and Mother shall claim the child for even numbered tax years.

c. If, on December 31 of any year, either party is behind on any child support payments ordered pursuant to this Stipulation, that party shall waive their right to claim any minor child for that year.

d. The parties shall follow all IRS guidelines as to filing status.

21. Real Property. Mother had a premarital home located at 2699 Oneida Circle, Provo,

The party awarded that vehicle shall be solely entitled to all sale proceeds and shall be solely obligated for any deficiency upon such sale. If a party chooses to sell a piece of property awarded to him/her, or when a party refinances, the other party shall fully cooperate in that process, including by signing all requisite documents.
