The above-entitled matter came before the court without a hearing, on Petitioner's Complaint and Affidavit. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent, to become final upon signature and entry herein.
2. Seven children have been born as issue of the marriage, whose names and dates of birth are as follows:

a. Garrett Robert Sedgwick	07/25/81
b. Brian Joseph Sedgwick	07/26/82
c. Elizabeth Virginia Sedgwick	08/20/85
d. Matthew Allen Sedgwick	10/26/86
e. Jennifer Marie Sedgwick	04/28/88
f. Joshua Phillip Sedgwick	12/27/89
g. Kenneth Bradley Sedgwick	07/18/91

3. Petitioner and Respondent are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children of the parties. Petitioner is awarded physical custody of the minor child of the parties and Respondent is awarded liberal visitation as agreed by the parties.

4. Petitioner earns a gross monthly income of approximately $2,600. Respondent is also employed, earning approximately $1,400 per month. In light of the circumstances and equities of this case, including Petitioner's ability to provide for the children, the fact that Petitioner and the children will remain in the marital home, and Respondent's lower income, no child support shall be paid by Respondent at this time. However, the issue of child support shall remain open, and Petitioner may seek child support at any time.

5. Petitioner has medical, dental and optical insurance covering the minor children; the parties shall share equally the costs of the premiums for such insurance, and all costs which are not covered by such insurance.

6. Petitioner and Respondent shall share equally the cost work-related child care expenses.

7. Neither party is awarded alimony, and each party is forever barred from seeking alimony.

8. Each party is awarded his or her own retirement benefits through his or her employment, if any.

9. Petitioner is entitled claim the minor children during every year for income-tax purposes.

10. The parties have acquired an interest in real property during the marriage, which is the marital home of the parties. Such real property is located at 1032 East 420 South, Provo, Utah. Petitioner is awarded sole and exclusive possession of such real property. When the house is sold, which event shall occur no later than the date the youngest child of the parties attains the age of eighteen years, the parties shall divide equally any proceeds from such sale. Proceeds is defined as any remaining money after all liens and costs of sale are satisfied. However, in no event shall Respondent receive more than $15,000. Petitioner may chose not to sell the home, but in such event shall be liable to pay to Respondent the amount that Respondent would receive if the home were sold (up to and including $15,000).

11. The parties' household furniture, furnishings and personal effects accumulated during the course of the marriage have been divided between the parties in a fair and equitable manner, and each party is awarded such items in his or her respective possession.

12. The parties own one vehicle, a 1993 Dodge Grand Caravan. Petitioner is awarded, free and clear of any claim of Respondent, such vehicle.

13. The parties have incurred certain debts and obligations during the course of the marriage which are divided as follows: Each party is ordered to pay and assume, and hold harmless the other party, from any debt incurred by such party.

14. Respondent is restored to her former name of Steele.

15. Each party is ordered to pay and assume his or her own costs and attorney fees incurred in prosecuting this action.

16. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

DATED this 2 day of February 2000.
