Before the Court is the Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce and Respondent's Verified Counter Petition for Divorce. All supporting documents having been submitted and the Court being fully advised in the premises and the law, and the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and good cause appearing therefor, does hereby,

The initials, birth month and birth year of the four remaining minor children are:

Initials	Date of Birth

L.M.	September, 2010

D.M.	February, 2015
A.M.	March, 2020

3. Custody. Petitioner is awarded the sole physical custody of the minor children.

4. With respect to the minor child, L.M., Respondent will not have any parent time with the child unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing or pursuant to further order of the court.

5. In regard to the minor children, D.M. and A.M., Respondent's parent-time shall initially be therapeutically supervised by an AFCC-informed Family Systems (FS) therapist. Said therapist shall have authority to communicate with any individual therapists involved and may require each participant to engage in individual therapy as part of the reunification process. The Family Systems therapist shall devise a plan for therapeutic interaction between Respondent and the children and shall present such plan to the parties prior to the commencement of joint sessions. If either party objects to the proposed plan, that party must immediately file a motion in the divorce action and submit the matter to the Court for decision. Either party may, at any time, seek review by the Court regarding the need for continued supervised parent-time.

6. The reunification therapist shall have authority to establish the frequency, duration, and structure of all therapeutic and supervised contact and to recommend progression of parent-time.

7. The parties shall use Unified Family Therapy located in Draper, Utah for the therapeutic interaction between Jared and D.M. and A.M. Jared shall provide all evaluations he has completed as part of his criminal case (to include his psychosexual evaluation, if one was completed). Both parties shall sign all releases of information necessary for the assigned therapist to receive records from all providers who have worked with Jared or the two children since the criminal charges. Laureen shall transport the children to their appointments at Unified Family Therapy.

8. The cost of the therapeutic interaction between Jared and the children shall be paid by Jared, until further order of the court. In the event Laureen misses or cancels any appointments, she shall be responsible for any fees associated with any such cancellation or missed appointment.

9. Jared's parent-time with M.M. shall continue to be supervised by any of Jared's adult siblings or their spouses as well as Jared's parents at M.M.'s discretion.

10. Transportation and Parent-time Exchanges. At such time as Jared has unsupervised parent time with the minor children, the receiving parent shall be responsible for picking up the children from the home of the other party at the commencement of his or her parent-time. The parties shall endeavor to cooperate and ensure smooth and timely exchanges.

PARENTING PLAN

11. In accordance with the provisions of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-203, the parties hereby submit the following proposed Parenting Plan as it pertains to their exercise of joint legal custody which is hereby adopted and implemented by the Court and made a part of this Decree of Divorce:

e. If, after discussing and conferring regarding any major decision regarding the minor child, there is a dispute between the parties, they will seek recommendations from a professional (if appropriate). If, after seeking the recommendation from a professional, the parties are still not able to agree, Laureen shall have presumptive decision making authority. If Jared feels a decision Laureen is making is not in the best interest of the children, he may request mediation or ask the Court to review her decision.

f. Both parties shall execute any medical releases necessary to allow the other party to obtain access to medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, and psychological or psychiatric records of the children.

g. Both parties shall provide the other party with the name, address and telephone number of every educational institution the children attend, and each party shall be entitled to any school records and reports concerning the children. The parties shall execute any releases required for the release to the other parent of such information.

h. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the children while the children are residing with that parent. Further, each parent may obtain emergency medical treatment for the minor children and shall immediately notify the other parent of any such medical emergency and medical emergency treatment.

i. The parties shall work together and accommodate reasonable requests to modify or alter the parent-time schedule due to changes or fluctuations in the parties' respective employment schedules.

j. For emergency purposes, whenever a child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent:

(i) an itinerary of travel dates;

(ii) destinations;

(iii) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and

l. The parties shall communicate with one another regarding the minor children using the Our Family Wizard application with each being responsible for the cost of their own subscription.

Laureen is presently unemployed, however, the parties stipulate and agree that income shall be imputed to her for the purposes of calculating child support at $1,257 per month which is the equivalent of the federal minimum wage of $7.25 per hour, working full time. Jared is presently employed and earns a countable gross monthly income for child support purposes of $10,140.00. Based thereon, commencing May 1, 2026, Jared shall pay child support to Laureen in the amount of $2,064.00, which amount is consistent with the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines utilizing the Sole Physical Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet.

14. Jared's child support obligation shall be due and payable one-half (1/2) on or before the 5th day of each and every month and one-half (1/2) on or before the 20th day of each and every month. In the event Jared becomes more than thirty (30) days past due in the payment of his child support obligation, Laureen shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §62A-11-401, et. seq., and §62A-11-501, et. seq., 1953 as amended. Said income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as Jared no longer owes child support to Laureen.

15. Said child support should continue for each minor child until the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age or has graduated from high school during said child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. Specifically, when M.M., turns 18 in December, 2026, Jared's child support obligation to Laureen shall be $1,851.00 per month commencing January, 2027. The parties shall notify one another of any change in child care provider or monthly expense of child care within thirty (30) days of the date of the change. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-209, the parent who fails to comply with this paragraph may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses.
