Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

34. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

36. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

37. Kacie Marie Morneau will give Christopher william morneau the information needed to set up direct deposit through Christopher william morneau's employer.

Once Christopher william morneau has the information, Christopher william morneau will have Christopher william morneau's employer set up direct deposit to an account of Kacie Marie Morneau's choice. 39. Kacie Marie Morneau and Christopher william morneau will each pay half of any ORS fee.

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,

- the difference is not temporary, and
- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

42. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;
- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- income of a parent of 30% or more;
- the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- the medical needs of the child; or
- the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines. The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))
