In the matter of the marriage of

BRITTON QUIST,

Petitioner,

and

KIRSTEN QUIST,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No: 264400574

Judge: Thomas Low

Commissioner: Marian Ito

The Petitioner, Britton Quist, and the Respondent, Kirsten Quist, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: A.Q. (born September 2009) and E.Q. (born August 2013).

2. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall initially reside in a nesting arrangement in the parties' current primary residence. Under this arrangement, the children shall remain in the home, and the parties shall alternate residing in the home during their respective parenting time.

The present schedule shall be as follows:

a. Petitioner shall reside in the home with the children four (4) nights per week, and Respondent shall reside in the home with the children three (3) nights per week, unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing.

b. If additional bedrooms are available, the parent who is not exercising parenting time may remain in the home only with the prior approval of the parent whose scheduled parenting time it is.

c. If either party determines in good faith that the nesting arrangement is no longer workable or sustainable, that party shall provide written notice to the other. Upon such notice, the parties shall list the home for sale within six (6) months unless otherwise agreed in writing. Each party shall thereafter secure their own separate housing.

d. Upon termination of the nesting arrangement, physical custody shall transition to a schedule whereby Petitioner exercises physical custody during weekdays and Respondent exercises physical custody during weekends until September 1, 2027.

e. Beginning September 1, 2027, the parties shall alternate years in which each parent exercises primary weekday physical custody, provided that such schedule remains feasible in light of the children's schooling arrangements, including a mutually agreed-upon high school for E.Q.

4. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by April 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Petitioner will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Respondent will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by April 15th, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

5. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they do not agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in UCA §81-9-303 and as follows:

10. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner's income set at $17,500.00 with 182 overnights and the Respondent's income set at $3,300.00 with 183 overnights.

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $964.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.
