DECREE OF DIVORCE and PARENTING PLAN

Case No.: 254402884
Judge: Sean Petersen
Commissioner: Marian Ito

Based on the parties' Stipulation and its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, this Court now orders as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED

1. Divorce: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. They are granted a divorce on that basis, effective immediately.
2. Children: There are 2 children who are still minors: E.A.S. (born Jan 2009); and C.G.S. (born October 2013).
3. Legal Custody & Parenting Plan: Both parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children and use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby.
4. Information Sharing: Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the children's records without limitation. Both parties will be listed as parents and basic contact information provided to all third parties who interact with the children (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, childcare, etc.). The parties will provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the children so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.). The parties will keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments of the children. The parents will notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.

5. Decisions: Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions will be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the children's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education. The parties will respond to all reasonable and necessary proposals with the other relating to the minor children within 72 hours. In the discussions on major issues in this paragraph, if a party does not respond within 72 hours (absent exceptional circumstances), to a proposed course of action relating to the children, the party who has made a proposal may proceed with their proposal.

6. Dispute Resolution: If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the children, the parties will first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. The parties will defer to the professional medical recommendations of the children's primary care providers. If parties still disagree on the issue, then the parties will promptly submit the matter to mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, then either party may file a motion in court and schedule a hearing, and the court will decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child.

7. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties will obtain separate passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor children in his/her care will be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time. The children will continue to attend their current school(s) and the appropriate feeder school(s), until the house is sold, then the parties will discuss school placement in light of both parties' future housing locations. In the future, if the parties disagree on the school placement or registration, they will use the dispute resolution procedures outlined herein.

8. Contact Information: The parties will keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change.

9. Communication between Parents: All communication between the parties shall be primarily via text, email or an agreed-upon parenting app. All communication between the parties shall be civil in nature. Medical emergencies should be communicated immediately to the other parent by whatever means possible to reasonably alert the other to the situation as soon as possible.

10. Communication with Children: Communication between a parent and the children (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, and shall be unmonitored.

11. Travel: When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

12. Physical Custody: The parties will be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent time shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the Father's parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-303. The Father elects Thursdays as his mid-week overnight, and parties will alternate weekends from Fridays to Monday mornings. See Utah Code 81-9-303 for details. If either party cannot pick up the children from school due to work, then the children may go to the home of the other until the other parent picks them up.

14. Summer Parent Time: Extended parent time during the summer will be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-303. Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended summer parent-time as follows:

- a. Priority in odd-numbered years: the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 1, and the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 15; and
- b. Priority in even-numbered years: the Father parent shall provide notice to the Mother by May 1 and the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 15.
- c. Failure to Timely Comply: If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.
- d. First to Comply has Priority: If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

15. Exchanges: The parties will share transportation for parent time exchanges as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, and a child is not driving herself, the exchanges will be school-to-school or by the receiving parent, if school is not in session. The "receiving parent" is the parent who is beginning parent time.

16. Moves: The parties have joint physical custody, and therefore, the provisions of Utah Code 81-9-209 do not apply. As such, absent a written agreement of the parties, a parent desiring to relocate the children to a distance that makes joint physical custody unworkable or impractical, that parent must file a petition to modify seeking court assistance for custody and parent time.

17. Mutual Restraining Orders re Children:

- a. Disparaging: Both parties shall be restrained from demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent in the presence of the minor children. As used in this subparagraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.
- b. Mutual Respect: The parties shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children.
- c. No Involvement in Legal Case: Both parties are restrained from discussing any legal or financial issues in this case with the children.
- d. Not Use Children as Messengers: The parties will not use the children to send messages to the other about parent time arrangements, parent time adjustments, or related to financial issues, but will discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the children.
- e. Undue Influence: Both parties are restrained from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or parent time.
- f. Interrogation: Neither parent should question, interrogate or "pump," the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money.
- g. Corporal Punishment: Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children.
- h. Harassment and Abuse: Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children.

i. Substance Abuse: Neither party will use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 12 hours prior to or during parent time with the children.

j. Third Parties: Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

18. Child Support: The Mother is employed part time and the parties agree to impute her income to full time of approximately $2,426 per month for domestic support purposes only. The Father is self-employed and his income is in dispute, but the parties agree to use $12,227 gross per month for domestic support purposes only. Effective April 1, 2026, child support is awarded to the Mother from the Father in the amount of $1,400 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Effective June 1, 2027, child support shall adjust to $871 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. All other standard statutory rules pertaining to child support apply.

19. Childcare: Due to the ages of the children, no childcare is anticipated.

20. First Right: Each parent will have the first right to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children is not available for a period of 6 hours or longer during their parent time on a non-school day, or overnight or longer anytime. The parent exercising the first right must be personally available, willing to provide the transportation, and shall return the children when the other becomes available. This provision is not intended to prevent the minor children from attending occasional overnight with a grandparent, camps, playdates, or other reasonable activities for the child when the parent exercising parent time is otherwise available.

21. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: The Father shall provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of their minor children. Because the Father will be claiming the minor child on his tax returns each year, he will not be entitled to reimbursement for half of the minor child's costs of the medical insurance premiums from the Mother. If, in the future, any child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Father shall be primary, and the coverage of the Mother will be secondary.

22. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208.

23. Division of Accounts. When a parent is arranging for and making payment for medical, school, childcare or other activities, the parent will request that the provider create separate accounts for each party to pay their respective half of the costs separately. See Utah Code 15-4-6.7.

24. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents will make reasonable efforts to have the children attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the children attend during his or her parent time.

25. School Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket public-school expenses for the minor children incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

26. Divorce Education Classes: If either party has not taken the required divorce classes, he or she will do so within 30 days and provide proof to the other party and to the court.

27. Taxes: The parties shall file a joint tax return for the 2025 tax year and divide any refunds or liability equally. The parties shall file separate tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and thereafter. In exchange for him covering the minor child on medical insurance without reimbursement from the Mother, the Father will claim the minor child on his tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and each year thereafter so long as he is current in his child support obligations.

28. Alimony: Effective April 1, 2026, Brent shall pay Camille alimony of $1,600 per month. Alimony shall be paid one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. 29. Real Property: The parties acquired a home and real property located at 1844 E Hidden Hills Rd, Eagle Mountain, Utah. This property shall be put on the market by May 1, 2027, and sold. The parties will not accept any offer for a closing date before June 1, 2027.

a. Listing: The property shall be listed for sale by an agreed-upon realtor.

Both parties are to keep each other informed of all offers on the property and both shall be able to communicate with the sales agent. Both parties will comply with all reasonable requests made by the sales agent in the marketing and sale of the home.

b. Sale Proceeds: When sold, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied as follows: (1) pay expenses and costs of sale; (2) pay off any and all mortgages on the property; and, (3) the balance remaining thereafter to be divided equally between the parties. From Brent's portion of the proceeds of the home, he will pay Camille $12,704 to resolve the equity disparity in the division of the vehicles, and this distribution will occur contemporaneously with the division of the proceeds.

c. Pending Refinance/Sale: Pending the sale of the property, Camille shall have exclusive use and possession of the real property. Brent will move out of the home within 30 days from the date of the Stipulation. Effective April 1, 2026, Camille will be solely responsible for the mortgage, utilities, and any and all other expenses related to this property and shall be responsible for its regular maintenance and upkeep. In the event of an extraordinary and unanticipated repair needed for the home (i.e., non-routine), not due to the fault of either party and not covered by insurance, the parties will discuss the repair beforehand and work together to repair it and divide the expense equally. Both parties will cooperate to change over to responsible party on the utilities and other services related to this property as soon as possible.
