CHILD SUPPORT

17. Carli is currently self-employed and has a gross monthly income of $10,000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

18. Raleigh is currently self-employed and has a gross monthly income of $10,000.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

19. The joint custody worksheet shall be used with the Carli's income set at $10,000.00 with 183 overnights and the Raleigh's income set at $10,000.00 with 182 overnights.

20. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Raleigh should be ordered to pay Carli the sum of $24.00 per month; however, due to the minimal amount of child support, Carli waives the monthly payment. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obligee.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

21. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Carli or Raleigh should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Raleigh's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Carli's shall be considered secondary.

a. The parties shall be equally responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

c. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

d. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 10 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

24. The parties shall split the minor children as tax dependents. Carli shall be allowed to claim W.G.W. and Raleigh should be allowed to claim K.R.W. each and every year as dependents for state and federal taxes. Carli should be allowed to claim N.R.W. in even numbered tax years and Raleigh should be allowed to claim N.R.W. in odd numbered tax years as a dependent for state and federal tax purposes.

25. For either party to claim a minor child, they must be current on all his/her child support payments prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

46. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

- a. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each creditor he or she is not required to pay as soon as possible;
- b. Notify the joint creditor of the current address for each party
- c. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for the payment on the party who is not required to pay the debt.

LIFE INSURANCE

47. Pursuant to UCA §81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

48. Both parties are currently employed and have the ability to meet their own needs and currently waive spousal support.

TAX RETURN

49. The parties shall file taxes for the 2025 tax year as each deem appropriate.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

50. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

51. Both parties shall be mutually restraining from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party, or their reputation, at the other party's place of residence, employment, online or any other place.

52. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

53. Entering into the Stipulation constitutes service and as such the Raleigh waives the right to be personally served.

54. The parties respectively acknowledge that the mediator did not offer legal advice and specifically encouraged the parties to get independent legal advice by counsel of their own selection to be fully informed as to their legal rights and obligations. The parties acknowledge that neither is entitled to rely on the attorney of the other or the mediator to inform them of their legal rights.

55. Both parties attended mediation and participated actively in the drafting and revising of the Stipulation. Both parties had an opportunity to read the Stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and it is a complete understanding of all of the issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the Stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The Stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

56. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in the agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

57. The Decree of Divorce will be the result of the Stipulated Settlement Agreement reached through mediation. The final documents will be prepared as a service to both parties and shall not be interpreted against either as the “drafting party.”

58. Each party should execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of the divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

59. Upon the filing of any Petition to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

60. If Carli desires that her maiden name of Grampp be restored to her, it shall be granted upon entry of the final Decree of Divorce.

WILLIAMS and WILLIAMS
JOINT CUSTODY PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the children and shall work together cooperatively with regard to the children's physical care and financial and emotional support.

The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to be effective co-parents. Each parent shall focus on the needs and interests of the children. Each parent shall give the children the opportunity to have a meaningful relationship with both parents.
2. The parties believe civil communication is essential for an effective parenting relationship. The parties shall take steps to adopt procedures to ensure that they communicate in a civil manner. Except for time sensitive matters and in the event of an emergency, the parties shall communicate primarily through text or email. The parties shall be civil in all communication; name calling shall never be considered civil communication.
3. The parties recognize the importance of the children spending quality time with both parents and shall cooperate with each other and adjust the time-sharing arrangement when changes may be appropriate due to the travel or other commitments of the parties.
4. The parents shall reasonably share information regarding school, social, and other areas of the children's life that could assist both parents in making the best decisions for them. If information is available through websites, email lists, etc., each party shall obtain the information directly from these sources.
5. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, and other child-related information and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency. Each parent shall notify the other parent if they are taking a minor child to the doctor. Further, each parent shall both permit and encourage communication by the other parent with all doctors, clinics, school nurses, counselors, and other healthcare providers regarding the health and welfare of the children. Both parents shall have reasonable access during the treatment or care of the minor children. Both parties shall provide written authority to the other party to ensure both parties have any and all access to medical, dental, counseling, physiological, and psychological information, diagnoses, and prognoses.

6. Each parent shall be allowed to fully participate in the children's activities, including church functions, athletics events, recitals, school programs, etc.

7. When traveling with the minor children, the parties shall give all information required by Utah Code §81-9-202(19) including the following: 1) an itinerary of travel dates; 2) destinations; 3) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and, 4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

8. The parents shall mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the children, including but not limited to, the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. The parties shall confer to make joint decisions regarding the minor children's education, day-care, medical care, dental care, orthodontics, counseling, religious upbringing, extracurricular activities, and other major parenting decisions. In discharging this obligation, the parents shall use the following decision-making procedure: 1) Identify the issues; 2) Develop possible solutions; 3) Choose the most sensible solution that considers the needs of everyone involved.

9. If the parties cannot mutually agree on major decisions including but not limited to the minor children's education, day-care, medical care, dental care, orthodontics, counseling, religious upbringing, extracurricular activities, the parties shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator with each party to pay their own mediation fees. Should the Parties be unable to agree upon a mediator or mediation service, the party requesting mediation will arrange for mediation. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and a copy provided to each party. If the parties cannot reach a decision in mediation, the parties may present the matter for decision to the Court. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parties to resolve the issue through mediation. If the Court finds that a party has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, then that party shall be responsible for all attorney's fees, court costs and mediation fees.

10. The parent with whom the children are residing at the time will make day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the parties' children. A parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health or safety of the children when the children are in their care.

11. Both parents shall have access to the children during school and shall have authority to check the minor children out of school. Both parties shall be listed as a point of contact for school communications. In the event the parties cannot agree on educational decisions, the parties shall attend mediation in an effort to resolve the matter.

12. Expenditures related to cosmetic surgery, alternative medicine, orthodontia, or other non-life-threatening medical procedures not covered by a child's insurance requires the prior and mutual consent of both parents in writing, with both parents signing the written confirmation. The portions of payment for the procedures are to be negotiated as part of the consent and mutual approval prior to the procedure. The parties shall not inform a minor child of the potential of the procedures and/or have a minor child assess for any of the procedures prior to receiving the consent of the other parent. A minor child shall not receive the cosmetic, surgery, alternative medicine, orthodontia, or other non-life-threatening medical procedures not covered by the child's insurance, prior to receiving the written consent provided herein. Sanctions for violating the provision include, but are not limited to, a parent being denied reimbursement for said procedure.

13. No insured or uninsured medical or psychological treatment shall be undertaken without knowledge and consent of both parties unless in an emergency. Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. If parties cannot agree, they shall attend mediation.

14. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule. The parties agree to cooperate to accommodate such events and to communicate about them a reasonable time in advance.

15. The parties shall have parent-time with the minor children as set forth above. The receiving parent shall pick up the minor children for their designated parent time. The non-receiving parent shall have the minor children ready for the receiving parent at the time the minor children are to be picked up.

16. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in the plan will be discussed and mutually decided and agreed upon by both parties.

17. Each parent shall provide the other with his current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

18. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the minor children, in the form of phone, mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. The children are allowed to contact either parent at any time. When the children request to speak with the other parent, each parent shall make reasonable efforts to facilitate the communication.

19. Parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the minor children than surrogate care and both parties shall be awarded the right of first refusal to provide care for the minor children when the other party would require surrogate care for overnight periods.

20. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the noncustodial parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the court for good cause orders otherwise.

21. Both parties are restrained from discussing the case in the presence of the minor children or allowing third parties to discuss the case in the presence of the minor children. Furthermore, both parties shall be restrained from making negative, disparaging or derogatory comments about the other parent to or in the presence of the minor children and shall use their best efforts to restrain third parties from making any such comments in the presence of the minor children.

22. Neither party shall make social media posts about the other party or publicly disparage the other party.

23. The parties shall not introduce anyone that they are dating to the minor children unless they are in a committed and exclusive relationship. Advance notice shall be given to the other party prior to introducing the children to their significant other.

24. The parties shall create a shared calendar which the parties shall maintain and use to communicate with the other parent about events for the minor children.

25. Both parties are mutually restrained from using illegal narcotics or consuming alcohol to excess while caring for the minor children or before transporting the minor children. The parties shall keep all alcohol or drugs locked away from the minor children.

26. If one party fails to comply with a provision of the parenting plan, the other parties' obligations under the Parenting Plan are not affected.
