Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the marriage of:

KARRIN MCCLELLAN,

Petitioner,

MATTHEW RANDALL MCCLELLAN,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254403613

Judge Christine Johnson

Commissioner Marian Ito

This matter comes before the Court on Petitioner Karrin McClellan's Petition for Divorce. More than thirty days have passed since this matter was filed with the Court. On November 19, 2025, the parties, Petitioner Karrin McClellan ("Petitioner") and Respondent Matthew Randall McClellan ("Respondent"), entered into a Stipulation ("Stipulation"), which was duly filed with this Court. Having reviewed the filed documents, and based on the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The marriage contract heretofore existing between Petitioner and Respondent is hereby dissolved, and the parties are granted a divorce from one another based on the grounds of irreconcilable differences. This divorce is absolute and final immediately upon the signature of the Court and the filing by the Clerk.

1. Residency. The Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on September 2, 2013, and are presently married. The parties separated on July 5th, 2024.

3. Grounds. The parties are presently married and are obtaining a divorce. During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship. A decree of divorce shall be granted on the basis of irreconcilable differences of the parties pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-405.

4. Child. The parties are the legal parents of the following child under Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code 78B-15-101 et seq. This court has jurisdiction to determine the issues related to the child in this divorce action because the parties became the legal parents of the child prior to or during the time the parties were married. Pursuant to Rule 4-202.09 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration the names and birth dates of the child are being submitted to the court on the NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION - MINORS form. The initials, birth month and birth year of the child is:

Child's Initials	Birth Month and Year
O.R.M.	February 2019

5. Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-13-101 et seq., Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case, pursuant to Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) because Utah is the home state of the parties' minor child or Utah was the home state of the minor child six (6) months prior to the commencement of the proceeding, and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code 78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208.

6. Child – Rule 100. Pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq., and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-14-101 et seq., the Petitioner states upon information and belief that:

- a. There are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time or visitation concerning the parties' minor child which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.
- b. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' child.
- c. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor child and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with respect to the child.

PARENTING PLAN

Joint Physical Custody / Parent-time

7. Custody. The Parties are awarded joint physical and legal custody of their minor child, as set forth herein.

8. Parent-time. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305. The parties shall work together with both of their schedules to have an equal parent time arrangement.

9. Extended Parent-time. During the summer, each party shall receive two (2) uninterrupted weeks of parent-time.

10. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks with the child by May 1 each year with the Mother having first choice of extended time in even numbered years and the Father having first choice of extended time in odd numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent.

11. Holidays. Thanksgiving shall be spent with Mother each year in accordance with the following schedule. Christmas Vacation shall be split between the parties in accordance with the following schedule. The holidays, other than Thanksgiving and Christmas, shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the parties shall alternate holidays in accordance with the following schedule. Holidays take precedence over the regular and summer and birthday parent time rotation.

Joint Legal Custody

12. Legal Custody: The parties shall share joint legal custody of the child.

a. With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the child during his or her designated parent-time shall have the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the child without consulting with the other parent; except for an agreed upon general bedtime and curfew for the child which shall be mutually enforced at each home. As pertaining to the day-to-day decisions, the parties recognize that each parent may have their own parenting style, their own rules, and their own style of discipline however there shall be no corporal punishment. As long as such decisions do not threaten the health and safety of the child, each parent shall respect the decisions of the other parent and give each other the due deference that they equally deserve.

- b. With respect to major decisions, such as those matters pertaining to the health, education, and religion of the child, the parties shall confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters.
 - i. Should a dispute arise relating to medical decisions, a physician shall be consulted.
 - ii. Should a dispute arise related to the education of the child the recommendations of therapists and tutors regarding special education shall be considered.
- c. Should a dispute arise relating to the matters of health, education, or religion of the child, the parties agree to mediate the issue prior to bringing the issue before the court. The prevailing party in court shall be entitled to recover their attorney fees. Parties shall be reasonable in their interactions, and if found unreasonable by the court, shall be responsible for attorney fees or subject to additional sanctions by the court.

- d. Both parties shall have access to the child's medical, church, education, counseling, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records.

13. Medical Decisions.

- a. Shots. The child shall get the flu shot every year along with COVID shots when available.
- b. Medical Emergencies. In case of the child's emergency medical treatment, both parties are responsible for notifying the other as soon as possible.
- c. Medical Providers. Each party holds the right to schedule any appointments with doctors, health care providers, dentists, or therapists that both parties have agreed to. Parties shall reasonably notify the other party of the scheduled appointments so that both parties may be present at said appointments if desired. Both parties shall be responsible for ensuring scheduling the appointments at appropriate intervals.

14. Therapy. The parties shall participate in periodic family therapy, or family therapy at the request of one of the parties, with O.M. for the child's emotional well-being, to ensure that he is being treated appropriately, and to promote coordinated, healthy parenting. Such therapy shall occur no less than twice per year, or more frequently as recommended by the treating family therapist. The purpose of the therapy includes providing the child a structured opportunity to express his feelings, assessing whether he is receiving or requires therapeutic services, reviewing and following through on any recommendations made by the family therapist, and facilitating collaborative parenting practices. The parties shall cooperate in scheduling, in choosing a therapist, and shall attend sessions in good faith, and shall implement reasonable recommendations from the family therapist to the extent consistent with the child's best interests.

15. Day to Day Decisions. The party with the parent-time shall make the day-to-day decisions for the child.

Communication

16. Communication. The parties shall discuss all parenting concerns face-to-face, via e-mail, or text and shall not use their child to deliver messages. Email correspondence shall be reasonable in length. The parties shall use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange. All scheduling information shall be provided to the other party either verbally or through the connected Google Calendar with date, time, provider, address, and any notes necessary.

17. Educational Plan. Each parent shall have direct access to school e-mails, schoolteachers, school websites, online school tools, parent teacher conferences and school calendars. Phone numbers for both of the parties shall be filed with the school. All paperwork pertaining to behavior and extracurricular involvement from the child's school shall be photographed and sent to the other party to ensure both parties are aware. For future public-school attendance, Parties shall evaluate the public-school districts and schools where they live and shall agree on who's home shall be designated as the home residence for purposes of identifying the appropriate school.

18. Missing School. Both parties must be authorized to check out the child during their respective parent time, but only as necessary to avoid undue disruption (e.g., reasonably unavoidable medical appointments, extra-curricular events/sporting activities, etc.). Any school absence must be discussed and agreed upon by both parties before the school day starts.

19. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of virtual parent-time. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

20. Transportation. Transfer of the child between the parties shall occur either 1) at the home where the child is scheduled to sleep by his agreed upon bedtime or 2) at after-school pick up, where the child's backpack shall include the appropriate items for transfer to the other parents' house, unless both parties agree otherwise.

Miscellaneous Parenting Provisions

21. Relocation. If either party intends to move more than 150 miles, the parties shall be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

22. Travel. When the child travels with either parent out of state, all of the following shall be provided to the other parent:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destination;
- c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and,
- d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

23. Change of Contact Information. Each party shall provide the other with a current address, telephone number, and/or email address within 24 hours of any change.

24. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in.

25. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

26. Introduction of Significant Others. Parties shall not be permitted to introduce their significant other to the child until after six months of a serious dating relationship or marriage. Overnights between a party and a significant other while the child is present shall not be permitted until after 6 months of a serious dating relationship or marriage.

27. Mutual Restraints.

- a. Both of the parties are permanently enjoined from saying or doing anything in the presence of the minor child of the parties (or in such a manner that the child may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format) to convey any negative information, beliefs, feelings, etc. regarding the other parent, or doing or saying anything that would, in any way, harm the relationship between the child and the other parent; both parents are ordered to encourage the creation and maintenance of a strong and healthy relationship between the other parent and the child.

- b. The parties are further enjoined from discussing custody or this divorce action with the child in any way or in such a manner that the child may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format.
- c. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party.
- d. The parties shall not allow third parties to act in any way that they themselves are prohibited from acting, and shall remove the child from any situation in which the other parent is being disparaged in any way.

28. First Right of Refusal. Each parent shall have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available 4 hours or longer during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

29. Drugs and Alcohol. Neither party shall consume alcohol to excess during his or her parent time. Neither party shall consume alcohol to excess prior to parent time with the child to the point where they would be inebriated during their parent time. Neither party shall consume illicit substances during his or her parent time. The parties are restrained from allowing the minor child to be in the presence of any other person who the parties suspect or have reason to suspect may be under the influence of illegal drugs, marijuana, or non-prescribed drugs. The parties are restrained from allowing the minor child to be in the presence of any individual who poses substantial risk or danger to the minor child due to a criminal history.

30. Media. Both parents shall take adequate safety measures in their homes for the child's electronic and internet access. The child shall only be exposed to age-appropriate media including but not limited to movies, audio, television, and video games.

31. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of the Stipulation, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

32. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

33. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

34. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-107 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly income is $3364.00 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $6809.00 per month. The Mother has 183 overnights and the Father has 182 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. Father's child support obligation shall be $185.00 per month. Child support shall commence December 1, 2025. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

35. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Father is currently providing said insurance.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.
- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

- e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.
- f. A parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

36. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code Annotated §81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child.

37. Dependency Exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption for the minor child as follows:

- a. The parties shall alternate the dependency exemption for the minor child. The Mother shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father shall claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for even-numbered tax years.

- b. Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemptions indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

38. Taxes. The parties shall file separate tax returns for 2025.

39. Real Property. The parties are selling their home located at 2066 California Ave Provo, UT 84606 for a reasonable market value price and shall split equally any proceeds from the home, after paying for certain expenses and debts, as further detailed below including the mortgage, HELOC, realtor fees and costs and mother's student loans. Mother is awarded use of the home until it sells, and the parties shall split the mortgage payments on the home until such time. The parties agree to list the home within 30 days from the date of the Stipulation and shall use Miranda Fenstermaker as the realtor. The parties shall follow the recommendations of the realtor and split any repairs on the home evenly. Mother's student loans shall be paid from the equity prior to the funds being divided evenly between the parties as stated above. Father shall go to the home over the Thanksgiving break and get the yards ready, windowsill and the garage cleaned and ready and Mother shall get the inside of the home ready to list the home for sale.

40. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within the Stipulation.

41. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debt in Mother's name	Mother
Debt in Father's name	Father
Mother's Student Loans	Paid off from the equity

	in the home.
Mortgage and HELOC	Paid off from the sale of the home.

- a. Accumulation of Debt. Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.
 - b. Other Debts. The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in the Stipulation and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.
 - c. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
42. Checking and Saving Accounts. Each party shall be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts.
43. Retirement Accounts. Each party shall be awarded the retirement accounts in their own respective name and shall waive all claim to the other party's retirement.

44. Name. Mother shall have the option of restoring her name to Karrin Michele Grey.

45. Alimony. Father shall pay Mother $600.00 per month for a term of 7 years unless sooner terminated by the receiving party's remarriage, cohabitation, or the death of either party. Equal payments shall be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony shall commence January 1, 2026.

46. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

47. Independent Advice of Counsel. The parties respectively acknowledge that the mediator specifically encouraged the parties to get independent legal advice by counsel of their own selection to be fully informed as to their legal rights and obligations. The parties acknowledge that neither is entitled to rely on the attorney of the other or the mediator to inform them of their legal rights.

48. Divorce Education. The parties shall take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

49. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in the Stipulation represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

50. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
