This matter came on regularly before the Court for Entry of Decree of Divorce. A stipulation was filed with the Court. The Court having reviewed all other pleadings on file herein, having submitted an Affidavit of Jurisdiction and Grounds, and the Court having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law hereby order, adjudges, and decrees as follows:

1. Residency. Respondent is a bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah and has been for 2 years immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2.     Marriage Statistics. Husband and Wife were married on February 17, 2021, Provo, Utah.
3.     Grounds for Divorce. During the course of the marriage the parties experienced irresolvable issues that made the marriage no longer viable.
4.     Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-1 et seq., as both parties are residents of the State of Utah at the time of commencement of this proceeding.
5.     Marital Property: The parties have not acquired any marital property subject to division. Each party shall retain all real and personal property currently in his or her possession or control, free and clear of any claim by the other party.
6.     Financial Accounts: The parties have separated the financial accounts. Each party will take any account in their own name.
7.     Real Property: The parties do not own any real property, and there is no real property subject to division by the Court.
8.     Debt: Each party shall be solely responsible for any debt incurred in his or her own name, whether incurred before or after separation, and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom. Any debt incurred jointly by the parties during the marriage shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred or benefited from such debt, and that party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless. The parties acknowledge that they have lived separate and apart for an extended period of time, and any debts incurred since that separation shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred them.

11. Respondent shall be allowed to change her name to Tess Elizabeth Rochester if she so chooses.
12. Prior to any petition being filed to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, it is reasonable and proper that the parties attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.
