IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, PROVO
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF

ARLY JOHANNA PORRAS,

Petitioner,

RAMIRO PORRAS

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264400024

Judge Thomas Low

Commissioner Marla Snow

Petitioner, Arly Porras, through her attorney, David Hunt, and Respondent, Ramiro Porras, pro se, stipulated to a full and final resolution of all issues raised in this matter pursuant to an agreement reached during mediation with Mediator, Connor Fackrell, on March 25, 2026. From the records, files, and papers in this matter, the Court being fully advised, and having previously made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now

ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES

1. The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved and each Party is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from the other, to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.

2. COME NOW the Petitioner and Respondent undersigned and represent to the Court that the following terms are fair and reasonable. The parties stipulate and agree, as follows after mediating with Connor J. Fackrell from Fackrell & McLean Law on March 24, 2026, and March 25, 2026:

3. Residency. The Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Utah County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

4. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on June 28, 2008, in Saratoga Springs, Utah, United States and are presently married.

5. Grounds. The parties are presently married and are obtaining a divorce. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

6. Children. The following are minor children of the parties.

Name	Date of Birth
D.A.P.	September 2014
N.E.P.	August 2018

7. PARENTING PLAN

8. Custody/Parent time. The Parties are awarded joint custody of their minor children with Mother being designated as the primary and residential parent. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mother	Mother	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Mother
Week 2	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Father	Father	Father

a. On Week 1, the parties shall have 50/50 custody such that Mother exercises parent-time Monday overnight and Tuesday overnight with Mother's parent time beginning on Monday at 5:30 p.m. Father shall exercise parent-time Wednesday overnight and Thursday overnight with Father's parent time beginning on Wednesday at 5:30. Mother's weekend shall begin Friday at 5:30 p.m. until Monday.

b. On Week 2, the parties shall have 50/50 custody such that Father exercises parent time Monday overnight and Tuesday overnight with Father's parent time beginning on Monday at 5:30 p.m. Mother shall exercise parent-time Wednesday overnight and Thursday overnight with Mother's parent time beginning on Wednesday at 5:30. Father's weekend shall begin Friday at 5:30 p.m. until Monday.

c. Each party will receive two-uninterrupted weeks in the summertime.

9. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent. 7. Holidays.

a. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-303 as follows:

10. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209 with parent time automatically changing without need of court intervention with some modifications as follows:

a. Monthly Parent Time.

i. Monthly parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, then at the option and expense of the relocating party, they are entitled to one weekend per month. Monthly parent time shall take place in Utah unless the parties mutually agree in writing.

ii. This may begin Thursday afternoon if the relocating parent is elects to do so. Otherwise, it will begin on Friday. Parent time shall extend until Monday morning with drop off to school. The parties will exchange the children's items so that the children do not need to bring any clothes or other items to school with them.

iii. If school is in session, the minor children shall attend school. If the minor children are out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the minor children begins the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays addressed herein and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days shall be included in the weekend parent-time.

iv. Unless otherwise agreed, the weekend will be the last weekend of the month or if it conflicts with a scheduled holiday then the weekend before the last weekend of the month.

v. The relocating party shall give at least 14 days notice for monthly parent time including any changes in weekends.

b. Summer Parent Time. The relocating party is awarded one-half (1/2) the summer in consecutive weeks. The minor children shall be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins.

c. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, the holidays shall be as follows:

Even Years	Odd Years	Holiday and Time
Mother	Father	Spring Break after school on the day school lets out to the day school resumes with drop off to school (includes all Snow Days and Teacher Development Days in the Holiday) with drop off the night before school resumes

Mother	Father	Fall Break after school on the day school lets out to the day school resumes with drop off to school (includes all Snow Days and Teacher Development Days in the Holiday) with drop off the night before school resumes
Father	Mother	Thanksgiving after school on the day school lets out to the day school resumes with drop off the night before school resumes
Mother	Father	Winter Break beginning after school the day school lets out until the day school resumes with drop off the night before school resumes

d. Transportation. If the children travel for parent time and the airline require that the children be accompanied, the parties shall ensure that they are accompanied by the airline, one of the parties, or another mutually agreed upon third party.

11. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, Mother shall have final say. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

a. Medical. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent time shall attend the appointment. If it is emergency care, both parents shall be able to attend the care.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Changing Parent-Time. There shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing. The parents shall not talk to the children about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change.

12. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

13. Online Calendar. The parties shall use an online calendar to communicate activities of the children. Mother shall send an invite to Father within 14 days of the stipulation. Both parties shall have the ability to edit the calendar. Both parties shall list the important events of the children on the calendar, which shall constitute the notice requirement as designated herein.

14. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

15. Travel.

a. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

i. An itinerary of travel dates;

ii. Destination;

iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;

iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

c. Passports. The parties will make a good faith effort to renew the children's passports prior to them expiring.

16. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

17. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

18. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

19. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.

e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.

f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.

20. First Right of Refusal. There shall be no first right of refusal.

21. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

22. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the shared calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

23. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, school uniforms, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

24. Transportation for the Children. The receiving parent shall provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

25. Third Party Transportation. A step-parent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent, may pick up the children if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and the receiving parent shall be with the children by overnight.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

26. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $4,100 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $4,000 per month. Mother has 183 overnights and Father has 182 overnights. The parties agree to a temporary upwards deviation of Child Support such that Father shall pay to Mother $400 per month for child support while he lives in Utah. Child support shall commence April 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The parties shall recalculate child support consistent with U.C.A. §81-6-212. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

27. Child Support in the Event of Relocation on or Before July 1, 2026. In the event that Father relocates to California on or before July 1, 2026, Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $4,100 per month. Father's gross monthly income is $4,000 per month. Child support has been calculated using the sole calculator. Father's child support obligation shall be $714. Child support shall commence upon the relocation. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The parties shall recalculate child support consistent with U.C.A. §81-6-212. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

28. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost shall obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

29. Childcare Expenses.

a. Childcare Expenses on or Before January 1, 2027: The parties shall share equally up to $400 per month of the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children. Thereafter, the parties shall pay their own respective childcare expenses.

b. Childcare Expenses After January 1, 2027: The parties shall each pay their own respective childcare costs on their own time. The parent with the overnight shall be responsible for the childcare that day unless otherwise mutually agreed upon writing.

30. Dependency exemption. The parties shall share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

a. Father shall always claim D.A.P.

b. Mother shall always claim N.E.P.

c. Either party shall have the option to do a buy-out option if the requesting party pays for all accounting expenses and uses a third-party accountant to access the buy-out option. The requesting party shall pay the other party the amount which (s)he would have been benefitted from the dependency exemption/tax credit to leave the party tax neutral and payment shall be made by March 15. The party requesting the buyout shall request tax information by Feb 1st and shall decide if a buyout shall occur within 15 days.

d. Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

31. Taxes.

a. 2024. Father shall file the amendment to the 2024 taxes within on or before April 8, 2026. Any additional tax liability owed shall be shared equally by the parties. b. 2025. The parties shall file separate tax returns for 2025. The parties shall be responsible for their own taxes, including preparation, liability and refunds if applicable.

32. Real Property. The parties are selling their home for a reasonable market value price and shall split equally any proceeds from the home. Father is awarded use of the home until it sells and shall make mortgage payments on the home commencing March 1, 2026. The parties shall put the home for sale on or before May 1, 2026, with Father putting the home for sale. Father shall keep Mother informed of the process of the sale including but not limited to listing price, offers, and the sale price. Upon the sale of the home at a reasonable market value price, the parties shall split the net equity. The proceeds of the home shall be distributed as follows:

- a. First, the parties shall pay the cost of sale;
- b. Second, the mortgage shall be paid;
- c. Third, the IRS tax debt and State tax debt shall be paid;
- d. Fourth, the equity is divided equally between the parties, but not distributed;

e. Fifth, the consumer debt shall be paid off as addressed herein with Father paying for 60% and Mother paying 40% from their respective equities.

f. Thereafter, the equity is distributed between the parties taking into account the 60-40 consumer debt pay off amounts.

33. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2011 Honda Pilot	Mother
2004 Ford F250	Father
White Chase Dining Room Storage	Mother
Tv in Living Room	Mother
Sectional	Mother
1 Popup Tent	Mother
Hiking backpacks and gear	Mother
Crockpot	Mother
Dog Ashes	Mother

a. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

34. Debts. The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party shall assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Costco Citi Card ending in 3759	60% Father - 40% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
Lowes Citi Card ending in	60% Father - 40% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
Home Depot Citi Card ending in	60% Father - 40% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
Amex ending in 1008	Father
One Main Personal Loan ending in	60% Father - 40% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
IRS Tax Debt	50% Father - 50% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
Utah State Tax Debt	50% Father - 50% Mother, to be paid from the proceeds of the home as addressed herein
Student Loans in Mother's Name	Mother
Other Debt in Father's Name	Father

Other Debt in Mother's Name	Mother
-----------------------------	--------

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party shall incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Tax Debts.

i. Father is in the process of paying the tax debts and has hired Lifeline Tax Solutions to assist. Father shall keep Mother informed of any significant updates, including but not limited to "Offer in Compromise" amounts, tax payments made or deadlines. Where there is written communications, he shall provide a copy of the written communication to Mother.

ii. The tax debts shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of marital home as outlined herein. The proceeds from the sale of the house shall be maintained in a trust account until the tax debts are completely paid off. The tax debts shall be paid off no later than 90 days after the sale of the home.

iii. Father shall provide proof that Lifeline Tax Solutions is working on their behalf on or before April 3, 2026.

c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

35. Checking And Saving Accounts. Each party shall be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts. The joint accounts shall be closed within 14 days of the stipulation except as addressed herein.

36. Bank of America Account. The Bank of America account in Father's name ending in 8332 shall be awarded to Father. The parties shall cooperate to remove Mother's name from the account within 14 days of the date of stipulation. Father shall provide the last 6 months of statements for the account prior to Mother being removed from the account.

37. Retirement Accounts. The parties have no retirement accounts.

38. Name. Arly Johanna Porras shall have the option of restoring her name to Arly Johanna Diaz.

39. Alimony. Neither party shall be awarded alimony. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

40. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

41. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
