The Court having reviewed the documents filed in this matter and entered its Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully apprised in the premises, now:

ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES, that:

1. The bonds of matrimony are hereby dissolved and the Clerk of Court shall file this Decree of Divorce in the same in the registry of actions upon entry.
2. Marriage Statistics. Petitioner Pro Se and Respondent Pro Se were legally married on May 1, 2021, in Provo, Utah. However, the parties separated on or about April 5, 2026.

3. Minor Child. The parties have one (1) minor child born of the marriage (hereinafter referred to as the “Minor Child”), to wit:

Minor Child’s Initials	Mo/Year of Birth
C.A.M.	February, 2024

4. Home State. Utah is the home State of said Minor Child, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-102(7) and this Court has jurisdiction over the custody and parent time issues presented in this matter, pursuant to Utah Code §§78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208. In addition, no person who is not a party to this proceeding has physical custody of the parties’ Minor Child or who claims to have custody, child support, or parent-time/visitation rights with respect to the Minor Child.

5. Residence of the Minor Child. The Minor Child resided throughout the marriage with the Petitioner and the Respondent. However, that during the entirety of the marriage and particularly since the parties separation, Petitioner/Mother has been the primary care provider and Father has exercised very limited parent-time at his own election.

6. Custody Or Other Proceedings. Pursuant to U.R.C.P., Rule 100, U.C.A. §78B-13-101 et. seq. (the UCCJEA) U.C.A. §78B-14-101 et. seq. (the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act) there are no other proceedings involving these parties and Child in this State or any other state.

7. Custody. Petitioner/Mother is awarded the sole legal and sole physical custody of the Minor Child.

8. Parent-Time. Respondent/Father is awarded parent-time with the Minor Child consistent with U.C.A. §§81-9-303 and 304 (consistent with the age of the Minor Child), with his weekend parent-time generally aligning with that of his daughter from a prior union, if possible, so long as that extraneous schedule does not vacillate more than once per month. Said parent-time schedule shall be observed week-to-week, month-to-month and year-to-year, on an ongoing basis without changing the ordinary parent-time rotation, subject to the holiday schedule articulated below.

10. Holidays. The foregoing parent-time rotation shall remain unchanged, except that the holiday schedule set forth within U.C.A. §§81-9-303 and 304 (consistent with the age of the Minor Child) shall prevail.

11. Additional Parent-Time Provisions. The provisions of U.C.A. §81-9-202 are to be read in conjunction with the following:

a. Transportation. The parties shall share equally the transportation for parent-time, such that the parties shall affect the pick-ups for their respective parent-time. The fifteen-minute rule shall apply. Moreover, the party with the Minor Child in his or her care shall be responsible for timely transporting the Minor Child to school – and the party who will have the Minor Child in his or her care following school shall be responsible for ensuring that the Minor Child are timely picked up from school. Should the parties desire to set at variance the foregoing transportation provision, the same must be in writing and signed by both parties.

b. Relocation. Neither party shall travel with the Minor Child outside of the United States of America without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld so long as the travel dates are terminable and of a non-permanent nature), or by order of the Court. Moreover, neither party shall move the Minor Child outside of the United States of America. This provision is intended to comport with the tenets of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, codified at 51 U.S. 10494; the International Child Abduction Remedies Act (ICARA), codified at 22 U.S.C. §9001 et seq. (formerly 42 U.S.C. § 11601 et seq.); the International Child Abduction Prevention and Return Act (ICAPRA), 22 U.S.C. § 9101 et seq., and the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA), codified at U.C.A. §78B-13-101 et. seq.

c. Information Sharing & Conflict Resolution. The parties will endeavor to make joint decisions regarding substantial or significant issues affecting the Minor Child, including but not limited to the Minor Child's education, medical care, dental care, religious upbringing, counseling, and other major parenting issues, and in the event of a dispute the parties will first try to resolve their differences between themselves. In the event they are unable to do so, they will then attempt mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator (and share the costs thereof equally). At all times during this process, Petitioner/Mother shall have final say and either party may submit the dispute to the Court for resolution.

d. Both parties will have access to the Minor Child's school, church, medical and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. Both parties shall have the affirmative duty of apprising themselves of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the Minor Child are participating or being honored, and both parties should be entitled to attend and participate fully. e. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the Minor Child's school work, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent;

f. The parties shall notify the other parent of injury or illness as soon as is reasonably possible involving the Minor Child;

g. Both parties shall return the Minor Child to the other parent in clean and presentable condition and the parties shall return any articles of clothing or item pertaining to the Minor Child in a timely and reasonable manner. It is presumed that the Minor Child will be transported for parent-time with their respective medications, school materials, supplies, backpacks, etc., however, each party shall maintain their own wardrobes and personal effects for the Minor Child;

h. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the Minor Child at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals;

D. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the Minor Child's location.

m. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the Minor Child consistency and stability;

n. Special consideration should be given by each parent to make the Minor Child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the lives of the Minor Child or in the lives of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule, and each party shall make all reasonable efforts to provide make-up parent-time to the acquiescing parent;

o. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the Minor Child at least once per day for 20 minutes per session, and both parties shall share equally the reasonable costs for the necessary electronics/devices to give effect to this provision. Both parties will make all reasonable efforts to not infringe on the Minor Child's sleep schedule while giving effect to this provision.

p. The parties shall maintain safe, appropriate and adequate sleeping and living accommodations for the Minor Child. Neither party will use corporal punishment with the Minor Child. Moreover, if corporal punishment is employed by a paramour or spouse of either party, the same should be construed as detrimental to the best interests of the Minor Child and shall immediately give rise to supervised parent-time for the party related to the offending paramour or spouse, at that party's sole expense, for a term of six (6) months from the date of the most recent incident;

q. Neither party shall engage in behavior which is emotionally abusive to the Minor Child, such as excessive yelling or breaching the peace;

r. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the Minor Child;

w. The parties shall not schedule any activity, including extra-curricular activities, during the other parties’ parent-time, unless the same has been previously agreed to by the parties in writing. The parties shall equally share the reasonable extra-curricular expenses of the Minor Child, to which the parties have previously agreed.

The parties will not discuss with the Minor Child adult issues including any legal or financial related issues. The Minor Child will not be used as messengers.
