Attorney for Respondent

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT - NEPHI

IN AND FOR JUAB COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: DECREE OF DIVORCE

NATHAN DEMERS,

Petitioner,

CHELSEY NICOLE DEMERS,

Respondent.

Civil No. 254600029

Judge Anthony Howell

Commissioner Marla Snow

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER comes before the Court for a final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Court, having received the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement which was agreed to by the parties on April 29, 2026, and further pleadings in this matter, having entered appropriate Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law consistent with the parties' Stipulation and Settlement Agreement finding said Agreement fair, equitable and in the best interests of the parties, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, for good cause appearing, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE as follows:

The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved and the parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other, to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.

PROVISIONS

1. Residency: Nathan is a bona fide resident of Juab County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. Marriage: The parties married on August 15, 2009, in Manti, State of Utah. The parties are currently married. The parties separated on or about September 2025.
3. Grounds: During the course of the marriage the parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled and that have prevented the parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship.
4. Children: There are 3 minor children involved in this case: A.D., born in January 2016; R.D., born in July 2013; and H.D., born in November 2018.
5. Legal Custody & Parenting Plan: Both parties shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children and use the terms herein as a parenting plan and be bound to abide thereby.
6. Information Sharing: Both parties are entitled to direct access to all of the children's records without limitation. Both parties shall be listed as parents and basic contact information provided to all third parties who interact with the children (medical, school, therapeutic, religious, childcare, etc.). The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers or emails of persons who work with the children so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these people (teachers, medical providers, therapists, coaches, etc.). The parties shall keep each other informed and give notice to the other parent of the activities and appointments of the children. The parents shall notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party will have the option of attending the special event if possible and participate fully.

7. Decisions: Minor and day-to-day decisions and emergency medical decisions shall be made by the parent exercising parent time. The parties shall have a good-faith discussion on all major decisions in the children's life prior to a decision being made regarding health, safety, religion, and education. Neither party shall make a major decision unilaterally.

8. Dispute Resolution: If the parties disagree on a major decision regarding the children, the parties shall first consult with an appropriate professional or relevant individual about the issue—doctor, teacher, therapist, coach, etc. If the parties still disagree on the issue, then the parties shall promptly submit the matter to mediation. If mediation does not resolve the issue, then either party may file a motion in court and schedule a hearing, and the court will decide the issue using the standard of the best interest of the child.

9. Educational Plan: Both parents shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school on his or her custodial days. The parties shall obtain separate passwords for any school website so each can access events and schoolwork online. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time. The children shall continue to attend their current school(s) and the appropriate feeder school(s). In the future, if the parties disagree on the school placement or registration, they shall use the dispute resolution procedures outlined herein.

10. Contact Information: The parties shall keep each other informed of his and her contact information (address, phone, email) and update the other within 48 hours of any change.

11. Communication between Parents: The parties shall use the OurFamilyWizard parenting app, and the parties shall use the app for all "notice" provisions required herein and all calendaring, messaging, and reimbursement-tracking for the remaining term of the OurFamilyWizard Contract, and then elect to continue upon mutual agreement. Each parent shall pay his or her separate fees required to use the app. All communication between the parties shall be civil in nature. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and will not involve third parties. Medical emergencies shall be communicated immediately to the other parent by whatever means possible to reasonably alert the other to the situation as soon as possible.

12. Communication with Children: Communication between a parent and the children (phone, Facetime, texting and other forms of electronic communication) shall be at reasonable hours, for a reasonable duration, and shall be unmonitored. If the children are not available when a parent calls, then the party with parent time shall initiate or have the children initiate return contact as soon as possible the same day, but not later than 24 hours. The children may initiate contact with either parent at any reasonable times and durations. Either parent may make reasonable house rules regarding electronics in his or her home and during his or her parent time.

13. Class: Both parties shall take a coparenting class. If they can't agree, then they shall take the Bill Eddy's New Ways 4 Families class.

14. Travel: When the minor children are traveling away from a party's regular place of abode for overnight or longer, the parent exercising parent time shall notify the other parent in advance of the travel with the following information: (a) travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. See Utah Code 81-9-202(19).

15. Dietary Needs: The parties shall provide appropriate meals, snacks, and nutrition for the minor children, taking into account and following the recommendations of the dietician. Neither parent shall suggest that food consumption is tied to spirituality or morality, nor shall either parent tell the girls that the other parent's food choices are immoral or spiritually incorrect. Neither party shall make food deliveries to the other or the minor children during the parent-time of the other without express written permission.

16. Therapy: The children shall continue therapy until released by the therapist(s).

17. Religious Agreements: The parties shall raise the children in the LDS faith and observances. The Father may perform the baptism of the youngest child if he is deemed worthy to so by his ecclesiastical leader. The parties shall discuss jointly and mutually decide when to have the children receive the patriarchal blessings, and both parties may attend.

18. Physical Custody: The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent time shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent time shall be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305, with the Mother exercising her mid-week parent time and overnights on Mondays and Tuesdays, and the Father exercising his mid-week parent time and overnights on Wednesdays and Thursdays each week. The parties shall alternate weekends from Fridays to Monday mornings. See Utah Code 81-9-305 for details.

19. Holiday Parent Time: Holidays shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the parties shall use holiday schedule in Utah Code 81-9-303 summarized as follows:

20. Summer Parent Time: Extended parent time during the summer shall be pursuant to Utah Code 81-9-305 (2 weeks each). Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended summer parent-time as follows:

- a. Priority in odd-numbered years: the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 1, and the Father shall provide notice to the Mother by May 15; and
- b. Priority in even-numbered years: the Father parent shall provide notice to the Mother by May 1 and the Mother shall provide notice to the Father by May 15. For 2026 only, this shall be adjusted to May 15th and May 30th.
- c. Failure to Timely Comply: If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.
- d. First to Comply has Priority: If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

21. Exchanges: The parties shall share transportation for parent time exchanges as the parties may hereafter agree. If the parties are unable to agree, the exchanges shall be school-to-school or by the receiving parent, if school is not in session. The “receiving parent” is the parent who is beginning parent time.

22. Moves: The parties have joint physical custody, and therefore, the provisions of Utah Code 81-9-209 do not apply. As such, absent a written agreement of the parties, a parent desiring to relocate the children to a distance that makes joint physical custody unworkable or impractical, that parent must file a petition to modify seeking court assistance for custody and parent time.

23. Mutual Restraining Orders re Children:

a. Disparaging: Both parties shall be restrained from demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent in the presence of the minor children. As used in this subparagraph, demeaning or disparaging means to say anything ill of the other whether they believe it to be true or not.

b. Mutual Respect: The parties shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children.

c. No Involvement in Legal Case: Both parties are restrained from discussing any legal or financial issues in this case with the children.

d. Not Use Children as Messengers: The parties shall not use the children to send messages to the other about parent time arrangements, parent time adjustments, or related to financial issues, but shall discuss such issues directly with one another and outside the presence and hearing of the children.

e. Undue Influence: Both parties are restrained from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or parent time.

f. Interrogation: Neither parent shall question, interrogate or "pump," the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships or how the other parent spends his/her time or money.

g. Corporal Punishment: Neither party shall use corporal punishment as a form of discipline on the children.

h. Harassment and Abuse: Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children.

i. Substance Abuse: Neither party shall use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs within 12 hours prior to or during parent time with the children.

j. Third Parties: Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under these subparagraphs and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

24. Child Support: The Mother is employed, but just started working and has not received pay to date, but agrees to be imputed $2,600 per month for child support purposes. The Father is employed and earns approximately $12,083 per month. Effective May 1, 2026, child support is awarded to the Mother from the Father in the amount of $805 per month pursuant to the child support guidelines. Child support is due one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month.

25. Childcare: Utah Code 81-6-209 shall apply and order the equal division of work-related childcare expenses. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent within 30 calendar days and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of day care expenses within 30 days of payment of a day care expense, the party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. Childcare arrangements with family members are preferred as are childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge. A party using family members to provide childcare shall not be entitled to reimbursement unless both parents have agreed in advance in writing to the specific family member providing the care and the associated costs. The parties shall share the contact information of all childcare providers with the other parent and share the contact information of both parents with the childcare provider.

26. First Right: Each parent shall have the first right to provide care for the children over any other third party if the parent responsible for the children is not available for a period of 4 hours or longer during their parent time. The parent exercising the first right must be personally available, willing to provide the transportation, and shall return the children when the other becomes available.

27. Medical and Dental Insurance and Premiums: The Father shall provide health care coverage for the medical, dental and vision expenses of their minor children. Currently, the Father is providing medical, dental and vision coverage for the medical, dental and vision expenses of their minor children. As part of a global alimony and support settlement, the Father shall provide medical, dental and vision insurance for the children without the right or expectation of reimbursement from the Mother for the cost of the children's portion of the premiums. If, in the future, any child is covered by both parents (or the insurance plan of a future spouse), the coverage of the Father shall be primary, and the coverage of Mother shall be secondary.

28. Medical Out-of-Pocket Costs: Each parent shall equally share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, mental health, and orthodontia expenses incurred for the children, including deductibles and copayments. A parent who incurs such medical expenses for the minor children, shall provide proof of the expense and proof of the payment to the other parent within 30 calendar days, and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. If a party fails to notify the other of medical expenses within 30 days of payment of an expense, that party may be denied the right to reimbursement for such expenses. See Utah Code 81-6-208.

29. Division of Accounts. When a parent is arranging for and making payment for medical, school, childcare or other activities, the parent shall request that the provider create separate accounts for each party to pay their respective half of the costs separately.

See Utah Code 15-4-6.7.

30. Extracurricular Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amounts for any extracurricular activities if both parties agreed in writing to the activity in advance. The party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment, and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. If an extracurricular activity is agreed upon, then both parents shall make reasonable efforts to have the children attend during his or her parent time. If an extracurricular activity is not agreed upon, then the parent who did not agree to the activity is not required to have the children attend during his or her parent time.

31. School Expenses: Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of any required out-of-pocket public-school expenses for the minor children incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of documents of verification.

32. Divorce Education Classes: If either party has not taken the required divorce classes, he or she shall do so within 30 days and provide proof to the other party and to the court.

33. Mutual Restraining Orders re Parties:

- a. Identity/Credit: Neither party shall use the other party's name, likeness, image, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for service, or obtain any other service.
 - b. Social Media: Neither party shall use the other party's name, likeness, image, identification, or photographs to post to websites such as Facebook or other web sites, without the other party's express permission. Any current use or posting of the other party shall be removed, unless the other party expressly consents to it remaining posted.
 - c. Restraint on Place: Except for parent time exchanges as outlined herein, both parties are restrained from coming to the home or workplace without the other party's express written permission.
34. Taxes: The parties shall file a joint tax return for the 2025 tax year and divide any refunds or liability equally. The parties shall file separate tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and thereafter.
- a. When there are 3 children eligible to be claimed for a particular tax year, then the Father shall claim 2 and the Mother shall claim 1 in the odd-numbered tax years; and the Father shall claim 1 and the Mother shall claim 2 for the even-numbered tax years. When there are 2 children eligible to be claimed on the tax returns for a particular tax year, then the parties shall each claim 1 child on his/her returns for that tax year. When there is only 1 child eligible to be claimed for a particular tax year, then the Father shall claim the child for the odd-numbered tax years; and the Mother shall claim the child for the even-numbered tax years.

b. A party's right to claim any children on the tax returns for any particular tax year is subject to being current on all children support obligations by December 31st of the particular tax year. A party's right to claim any child on any tax return for any particular tax year is subject to a party receiving a tax benefit in a particular tax year. If a party cannot claim a child on his/her tax return for a particular tax year, then the other party is automatically entitled to claim the child on his/her return for that year. See Utah Code 81-6-210.

35. Alimony: Effective May 1, 2026, Nathan shall pay Chelsey alimony of $1,300 per month. Alimony support shall be paid one-half by the 5th and one-half by the 20th of each month. Alimony shall automatically and permanently terminate (1) after 7 years, (2) upon the remarriage of Chelsey, (3) upon the cohabitation of Chelsey with another person, or (4) upon the death of either party, whichever occurs first.

36. Real Property: The parties acquired a home and real property located in Nephi, Utah. This property and its equity is awarded solely to Nathan, subject to Nathan removing Chelsey's name from the first mortgage and the HELOC associated with the home within 6 months. If Nathan is unable to remove the loans associated with the home within 6 months, the home shall be sold to remove the loans from Chelsey's name. When sold, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied as follows: (1) pay expenses and costs of sale; (2) pay off any and all mortgages on the property; and, (3) the balance remaining thereafter to be awarded to Nathan.

37. Vehicles: Chelsey is awarded the Toyota Sienna along with any associated insurance and expenses relating thereto. Nathan is awarded the Kia Amanti and the 10' trailer along with any associated insurance and expenses relating thereto.

38. Personal Property:

a. From the marital home, Chelsey is awarded all the camping gear, half the food storage and her personal effects.

b. All other personal property not otherwise distributed herein shall be awarded to each of the parties as they have heretofore divided such and is now in his or her possession or control as of April 29, 2026.

39. Bank and Credit Union Accounts (Not Including Investment and Retirement Accounts): Any joint bank shall be closed or the other party removed from the account.

Chelsey is solely awarded her UCCU account. Nathan is solely awarded all other accounts.

40. Crypto: Within 7 days of the date of the agreement, Chelsey shall open a cryptocurrency Coinbase account and give the account crypto-address to Nathan. Nathan shall transfer $9,100 of cryptocurrency to Chelsey's new account within 14 days of the date of this agreement.

41. Business: Nathan's business interests are awarded solely to him, along with any assets, income, debts or other liabilities—free and clear of any claims by Chelsey. Nathan shall hold Chelsey harmless on any and all debts or liabilities related to this business.

42. Debts: All debt shall be solely paid by Nathan, and he shall hold Chelsey harmless on the debts ordered to be paid by him or her.

a. Joint Debt Limit and Refi Obligation: No additional amounts of debt shall be added to or charged to any debt, credit card, or line of credit that is associated with or in the opposing party's name without his or her written consent. The party assigned to pay for any debt shall have an ongoing duty to keep the debt current and to refinance the debt out of the other party's name as soon as possible. Once the debt is paid off, the other party's name shall be removed from the account or the account shall be closed.

b. Refinance. Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

43. Retirement and Investment Accounts: Nathan has a Cisco 401(K) Plan account with account number 652-616186 with an approximate value of $145,000. Nathan warrants that the loan taken out in 2025 was completely paid back, and warrants that this account is not encumbered by any type of loan. This account is awarded 100% to Chelsey valued on the date this account is transferred to Chelsey, plus or minus gains and losses until the date of transfer/distribution. The parties shall cause to be prepared a Qualified Domestic Relations Orders ("QDRO"), to divide such plans or accounts, if necessary, within a reasonable time after the entry of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

a. The parties shall use UtahQDRO.com or other QDRO service or attorney to prepare the QDRO with the cost of the preparation of the QDRO shall be paid one-half each. The parties shall provide the preparer with any and all documentation requested by the preparer (statements or other necessary documentation) within 3 days of any request.

44. Former Name: Chelsey Nicole Demers shall be granted a name change to “Chelsey Nicole Jensen”.
45. Documentation Cooperation: Upon request, each party shall be ordered to sign any and all documents that are required to implement the provisions herein, including but not limited to titles, deeds, bank documents to close or transfer accounts, etc.
46. Mediation: Prior to or concurrent with a petition to modify being filed, the parties shall first make an offer to resolve the issue through mediation, and mediation shall be scheduled promptly, and both parties shall share the cost equally. If both parties agree, mediation may be utilized but shall not be required for exigent circumstances or enforcement actions.
47. Attorney Fees: Each party shall pay his or her respective attorney fees and costs incurred.
