- a. Monica Lilliana Torres is employed at Walmart Stores. Monica Lilliana Torres earns $2869 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

28. The adjusted gross monthly income for Edgardo Alfredo Trigo is $2669.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

29. It is in the best interest of the children that Edgardo Alfredo Trigo be ordered to pay child support to Monica Lilliana Torres as follows:

- a. $599.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

30. The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

31. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Monica Lilliana Torres's base child support amount is $649 per month.

Edgardo Alfredo Trigo's base child support amount is $600 per month.

If physical custody of a child changes from what the court orders:

- The parent owing support must pay the support amount to whomever has physical custody of the child.
- The parent must pay the support amount without asking the court to modify the child support order.
- This does not apply to temporary parent-time changes. (Utah Code 81-6-104(4) and 81-6-205(8)(a)).

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

32. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

33. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

34. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

- a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:
150 East Center Street, Suite 2100 Provo, Utah 84606
unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

35. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

36. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

37. Edgardo Alfredo Trigo will pay any ORS fees. If Monica Liliana Torres is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Monica Liliana Torres, Edgardo Alfredo Trigo will reimburse Monica Liliana Torres.

38. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

39. The parties can ask to change this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if:

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,
- the difference is not temporary, and
- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

40. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;

- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- income of a parent of 30% or more;
- the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- the medical needs of the child; or
- the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines.

The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))

41. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

44. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Monica Lilliana Torres's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Edgardo Alfredo Trigo's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Monica Lilliana Torres's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Edgardo Alfredo Trigo's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

- d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
