Attorneys for Daniel Arthur Gullart

IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
137 N. Freedom Boulevard, Provo, Utah 84601

In the Matter of the Marriage of

DANIEL ARTHUR GULLART,
Petitioner,

and

PEYTON ALEXANDRIA SLAGOWSKI,
Respondent.

DIVORCE DECREE

Case No. 264400225
Judge Sean Petersen
Commissioner Marian Ito

IN THIS MATTER, the parties have signed a Stipulation for Divorce consenting to the entry of a Decree of Divorce consistent with the terms set forth in the Stipulation. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and the Stipulation for Divorce, finds that the Court has jurisdiction to enter a Decree of Divorce. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-405(1)(h).

1. Residency. Petitioner and Respondent are both bona fide residents of Utah County, State of Utah, and have been for more than three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Information. Petitioner and Respondent were married on October 19, 2016 in Draper, Salt Lake County, State of Utah. They separated on or about December 25, 2025.

3. Divorce. The marriage contract that existed between the parties is permanently dissolved and the parties are hereby divorced.

4. Children. The parties have three (3) minor children together born or adopted of this marriage, to wit:

- a. L.J.V., born in April of 2017;
- b. R.J.V., born in January of 2021; and
- c. V.S.V., born in November of 2022.

5. Pursuant to Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100(a), the parties acknowledge that there are no proceedings involving custody, criminal, protective orders, or delinquency involving the above-named minor child in juvenile court or any other venue.

6. Jurisdiction. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6 et seq. (1953 as amended), in that Utah is the home state of the minor children at the time of commencement of this proceeding.

7. Legal Custody. Each of the parties being fit and proper persons, the parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor children.

- a. The parties shall discuss all major decisions concerning the children including their health, education, and general welfare, daycare, medical and dental treatment, and therapy.
- b. To accomplish this, the parties shall use the following decision-making procedure: (1) Identify the issue; (2) Discuss possible solutions; (3) Consult with any applicable and available experts; and (4) Discuss the recommendations of those experts. (5) If the parties remain at an impasse, they shall attend mediation prior to either party seeking court intervention.
- c. The parties agree that timely communication is essential for the joint legal decision-making process set forth in this paragraph to be effective.

Accordingly, the parties agree to the following:

- i. Each party shall respond to concerns or suggestions proffered by the other party within seventy-two (72) hours of their receipt of written communication pertaining to such concerns or suggestions.
- ii. If a party does not respond to the other within seventy-two (72) hours of receiving the written concerns or suggestions, that party's silence may be deemed acquiescence to the suggested course of action, and the other party may proceed.
- iii. If either party is going to be out of internet or cellular range for more than twenty-four (24) hours, they shall notify the other party of the absence. Any deadline for responding or having their silence deemed to be acquiescence shall be tolled until the traveling party returns to internet or cellular range.

8. Physical Custody and Parent Time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children, with parent time being as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, parent time shall as follows:

- a. Beginning immediately, parent time with the minor children shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305.
- b. The parties shall follow a 2/2/5/5 schedule. Father shall have the children on Monday and Tuesday nights, and Mother shall have the children on Wednesday and Thursday nights.
- c. The parties shall have the minor children on alternating weekends, from Friday at the end of school (if the children are in school) or, at the election of the receiving parent, at 8:00 a.m. if the children are not in school and the receiving parent is available to provide personal care or at the end of the receiving parent's work day, until Monday morning school drop-off or 8:00 a.m. if the children are not in school.
- d. If the parties work schedules or circumstances change such that the current parent time schedule becomes unworkable, the parties shall modify the parent time schedule to accommodate the changed worked schedule while maintaining the fifty-fifty total parent time contemplated herein.

9. Transportation. Exchanges shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, the following shall apply:

- a. School-to-school exchanges shall be utilized when available. When any child is of school age, the children not enrolled in school shall be dropped off in the same manner as the child or children in school, meaning that the non-school aged children shall be dropped off at the residence of the parent commencing parent time.
- b. When school-to-school exchanges are not utilized, exchanges shall be at the other parent's residence, with the receiving parent picking up the minor children.
- c. A spouse, grandparent, or other responsible adult third party known to the child and both parties may be utilized for exchanges. Any such third party shall be obligated to the same conduct requirements as the parties.
- d. The parent ending their parent time shall ensure that the children are ready for exchanges at the appointed exchange times.

10. Holiday Parent Time. Holiday parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, holiday parent time shall be based upon Utah Code Ann §81-9-303, as set forth herein:

- a. The parties shall not include Juneteenth, Columbus Day, or Veteran's Day in their agreed holiday schedule.
- b. Holiday parent time shall take precedence over regular parent time, and both parties shall be restrained from interrupting the other's holiday parent time.

- c. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the children's attendance at school for that school day.
- d. If the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.
- e. If a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:
 - i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
 - ii. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
 - iii. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Mother's Day, Father's Day, or the child's birthday;
 - iv. extended parent-time; and
 - v. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.
- f. A parent exercising parent-time for the child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the child's birthday.

g. Unless the parties agree otherwise, holiday parent time shall be according to the following modified schedule:

11. Summer Parent Time. Summer parent time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, summer parent time shall be as follows:

- a. Each parent shall be entitled to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted summer extended parent time.
- b. Each parent shall provide notice of their intended extended summer parent time. During odd-numbered years, Father shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by May 1 and Mother shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by May 15. During even-numbered years, Mother shall provide notice of her intended extended summer parent time by May 1 and Father shall provide notice of his intended extended summer parent time by May 15.

- c. If a parent fails to provide notice as set forth herein within the applicable time period, the non-complying parent shall lose their priority and the complying parent may schedule their own extended summer parent time.

12. Virtual Parent Time. Each party may have reasonable, frequent, and uncensored phone contact with the children while they are with the other parent, as follows:

- a. The children may call either parent at any time.
- b. Both parties shall be supportive of virtual parent time with the other parent.

13. Parenting Plan. The parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 unless otherwise stated herein. In addition, the parties shall adopt the guidelines as follows:

- a. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, church, and other records and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall notify one another within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parties shall be entitled to attend and participate fully.
- b. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's schoolwork, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

- c. The parties shall notify the other parent of major injury or illness as soon as reasonably possible involving the children.
- d. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers, coaches, and others who work with the minor children at school, medically, or otherwise, and shall encourage such teachers, coaches, and others to add both parents to email and communication lists, so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.
- e. The parties shall share information relating to doctor or dentist appointments, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc., regarding their minor children.
- f. The parties shall notify the other parent of any change of address, email address, cell phone number, and telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change.
- g. The parent who has the children in his or her care may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children without having to consult with the other parent.
- h. For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either parent overnight or longer, the following shall be provided to the other parent: (1) an itinerary of travel dates; (2) destinations; (3) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

- i. Before leaving the United States with the children, the parent taking the minor children will give the other parent at least thirty (30) days' notice. The parties shall cooperate in obtaining passports for the minor children and making those passports available to the traveling parent.
- j. The parties shall work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the children consistency and stability.
- k. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.
- l. The parties shall not put the children in the middle. The parties shall not discuss adult issues including any legal or financial-related issues with the children.
- m. The minor children shall not be used as messengers.
- n. The parties shall maintain safe and appropriate sleeping and living accommodations for the children, and shall provide proof of those arrangements upon request of the other party.

- o. The minor children shall never be left with surrogate caregivers who are adults or older adolescents who are not related to them without providing information regarding the surrogate care giver to the other parent.
- p. While the parties' children are minors, neither party shall have any roommates without disclosing their identities to the other parent.
- q. Neither parent shall question the minor children about the other parent's activities, personal relationships, or how the other parent spends his/her time or money. Each parent shall be supportive and respectful of the other parent in the presence of the minor children.
- r. The party with the minor children in his/her care shall be responsible for ensuring the minor children's homework is complete and transporting the minor children to and from school on time.
- s. Communication regarding the minor children shall be directly between the parents and shall not involve third parties.
- t. Each party shall be responsible to maintain clothing and other items for the children to use when they are with that party.
- u. The parties shall utilize Our Family Wizard for all non-emergency communications.

14. Mutual Restraining Order. The parties stipulate and agree to the following mutual restraining order:

- a. Both parties shall be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, name calling, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the children or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the children's preferences regarding custody or visitation.

- b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes the children's best interest.
- c. Both parties shall be restrained from discussing divorce issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties shall also be restrained from discussing the children's relationships with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children. Neither party shall request or encourage the children to hold back information from the other party which shall otherwise be divulged to the other party by the other parent.
- d. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and children during the other parent's parenting time.
- e. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the children what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

- f. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, both parties shall be mutually restrained from going to the residence of the other party, except for child pickup or drop-offs, which shall be curbside and for which the party picking up the minor children shall stay in their car.
- g. Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

15. Child Support. Child support shall be based on Utah Child Support Guidelines and the Child Support Worksheet attached hereto. For purposes of this Stipulation, the parties have imputed Father's monthly income as $4,500 and established Mother's monthly income as $6,400. Mother's monthly child support obligation is established at $194 for three (3) minor children pursuant to the joint custody worksheet, with Mother having 182 overnights and Father having 183 overnights.

- a. Child support shall be payable one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month unless the parties otherwise agree.
- b. Child support shall continue until the child turns eighteen (18) or graduates from high school at the regular age, whichever occurs later.
- c. Payor's income may be subject to income withholding by the ORS in accordance with the Utah Code. If Father utilizes ORS collection when Mother is not in arrears, Father shall pay all ORS fees.

- d. Child support payments shall begin June 1, 2026.
- e. Both parties waive any claim they may have for past child support.

16. Right of First Refusal. Parental care is presumed to be better than surrogate care.

Each party shall have first option to provide care for the minor children over any other third party (i.e., surrogate care) if the parent responsible for the minor children is not available for a period of eight (8) hours or longer during parent time, and the other parent if personally available and willing to provide direct care and transportation. The parent exercising parent time under the right of first refusal shall (a) provide all transportation to and from parent time and (b) provide direct parental care. Any parent time offered through this Paragraph shall not be subject to make-up parent time unless agreed to by the parties, in advance and in writing.

17. School Fees and Extracurricular Expenses. Mandatory school fees and extracurricular expenses shall be divided as follows:

- a. The parties shall be equally responsible for the child's school fees.
- b. The parties shall be equally responsible for any extracurricular activities that are agreed upon in writing by both parties. If the parties do not agree on an extracurricular activity, one party may enroll a minor child in such an activity but will do so at his or her sole expense.
- c. Neither party may obligate a child to an unapproved extracurricular activity which infringes on the parent time of the other parent.

18. Childcare Expenses. Parties shall be responsible for their own childcare expenses during their parent time.

- a. The parties shall cooperate to give each other the first right of refusal to provide childcare prior to employing paid childcare.
- b. Family childcare shall be sought before paid childcare. Childcare provided by family members shall be deemed to be free, unless the parties otherwise agree.
- c. Long-term daycare providers utilized by either party shall be licensed.

19. Medical, Dental and Other Healthcare Expenses. In accordance with Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, insurance for the medical, accident, vision, and dental expenses of the minor children shall be provided by the party which can obtain the best such coverages at reasonable cost.

- a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be considered the primary coverage for the child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be considered the secondary coverage for the child.
- b. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. If both parties are providing insurance, then neither party shall seek or receive reimbursement for such coverage.

- c. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.
- d. Each parent who has obtained insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year if there is a change in the previous coverage or provider. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he or she first knew or should have known of the change.
- e. Each parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.
- f. The parties shall follow Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §15-4-6.7, §81-3-105, and §81-4-501, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-302, §81-4-204, or §81-6-208, or an administrative order under §62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. §70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order.

20. Tax Exemptions. Tax exemptions for the minor children shall be awarded as follows:
- a. For tax year 2025, the parties have filed joint tax returns. They shall equally divide the refunds or liabilities fifty-fifty (50-50) between themselves.
 - b. Starting with tax year 2026, Mother shall claim V.S.V. and Father shall claim R.J.V. The parties shall rotate claiming L.J.V., with Mother claiming him for even tax years and Father claiming him for odd tax years.
 - c. When there is only one dependent child, Mother shall claim the child for odd years and Father shall claim the child for even years.
 - d. If, on December 31 of any year, either party is behind on any support payments ordered pursuant to this Stipulation, that party shall waive their right to claim any minor children for that year.
 - e. The parties shall follow all IRS guidelines as to filing status.
21. Alimony. Neither party shall be awarded alimony now or in the future.

22. Real Property. During the marriage, the parties acquired two (2) parcels of real property: the parties' marital home is located at 886 East 1680 North, Lehi, Utah (the "Home"); and the parties condominium is located at 14472 South Selvig Way, F303, Herriman, Utah (the "Condo"). The Home is awarded to Mother as her sole and separate property. Father is awarded the Condo, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein:

- a. The Condo is currently being leased. Father shall administer the lease and shall be solely responsible for paying the mortgage payment, insurance, taxes, and utilities for the Condo.
- b. Father shall have a period of two (2) years following entry of the Decree to pay Mother the sum of $52,231 as and for her share of the equity in the Condo.
- c. Father may prepay any portion of this sum at any time.
- d. While any sum is due and owing to Mother as set forth herein, Mother shall have an equitable lien against the Condo for the unpaid amount so due and owing.
- e. If Father fails to pay Mother her share of the equity in the condo as set forth herein, Father shall immediately list the Condo for sale with a Realtor of his choosing. Father shall follow the recommendations of the Realtor as to listing price, Condo presentation, and other matters to effectuate a quick sale of the Condo.
- f. When the Condo is sold, the proceeds shall be applied as follows:

- i. First, to pay any sales commissions and closing costs due from the parties;
- ii. Second, to pay off any mortgage or other encumbrance against the Condo;
- iii. Third, the sum of $52,231 shall be paid to Mother, less any amounts pre-paid by Father; and
- iv. Fourth, any remaining proceeds shall be paid to Father.

23. Vehicles. The parties own certain vehicles, which shall be divided as follows:

- a. Mother is awarded the 2018 Volkswagen Atlas. Mother shall assume all payment obligations for that vehicle.
- b. Father is awarded the 2020 Ram Pro Master Cargo Van and the 2010 Toyota Tacoma. Father shall be responsible for all payment obligations for these vehicles.
- c. Each party shall remove the other party from title and, if necessary, refinance the vehicles awarded to them no later than thirty (30) days from entry of the Decree.
- d. If either party becomes fifteen (15) days late on a payment for which the other party is on the loan, that vehicle shall be immediately placed for sale and sold to satisfy the loan. The party awarded that vehicle shall be solely entitled to all sale proceeds and shall be solely obligated for any deficiency upon such sale.

If a party chooses to sell a piece of property awarded to him/her, or when a party refinances, the other party shall fully cooperate in that process, including by signing all requisite documents.

e. Beginning June 1, 2026, each party shall maintain and pay for their own automobile insurance policy.

f. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any vehicle(s) awarded to him/her.

24. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired certain personal property. The parties shall divide their personal property between themselves. If there is any dispute regarding an item of personal property, the parties shall return to mediation prior to seeking court intervention.

25. Debts. During the marriage, the parties incurred certain debts and obligations. Those debts shall be divided as follows:

Creditor	Approximate Balance	To Be Paid By
First Mortgage on Home	Balance	Mother
First Mortgage on Condo	Balance	Father
Loan payment on 2018 Volkswagen Atlas	Balance	Mother
Loan payment on 2020 Ram Pro Master Cargo Van	Balance	Father
Loan on 2010 Toyota Tacoma	Balance	Father
AFCU credit card	Balance	Mother
Wells Fargo credit card	Balance	Mother
Citi credit card	Balance	Mother
USAA credit card	Balance	Mother
Debt Consolidation loan	Balance	Father
Best Buy credit card	Balance	Father
UCCU credit card	Balance	Father

- a. Except as otherwise described herein, each party shall be responsible for any debts in his/her own name.
- b. Any joint debts later discovered and not addressed herein shall be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.
- c. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from any debts assigned to that party.

26. Financial Accounts. During the course of the marriage the parties acquired bank and savings accounts. The parties have previously divided these accounts between themselves, and they request this Court's order confirming their division, as follows:

- a. Mother is awarded any accounts in her name.
- b. Father is awarded any accounts in his name.
- c. The parties shall each remain custodians on the Charles Schwab Custodial Brokerage account established for the minor children.

27. Retirement. Prior to and during the marriage, the parties accumulated certain retirement accounts. They shall be awarded as follows:

- a. Father is awarded all retirement accounts in his name.
- b. Mother is awarded all retirement accounts in her name.

28. Father's Business Interests. Father has acquired an interest in Oasis Elite Detailing and ("Oasis"). Oasis, including all its respective accounts, equipment, receivables, contracts, goodwill, and assets of any kind, is awarded to Father as his sole and separate property. Mother waives any claim she may have to Oasis, now or hereafter. Father shall be solely responsible for any and all costs, expenses, payables, taxes, debts, or obligations of any kind pertaining to Oasis. Father shall indemnify and hold Mother harmless against any such obligations.

29. Mother's Business Interests. Mother has acquired an interest in Slagowski Consulting, LLC ("SC"). SC, including all its respective accounts, equipment, receivables, contracts, goodwill, and assets of any kind, is awarded to Mother as her sole and separate property. Father waives any claim he may have to SC, now or hereafter. Mother shall be solely responsible for any and all costs, expenses, payables, taxes, debts, or obligations of any kind pertaining to SC. Mother shall indemnify and hold Father harmless against any such obligations.

30. Dispute Resolution. If a dispute arises between the parties, they shall return to mediation prior to filing an action in court. Enforcement actions may be filed directly with the court without mediation.

31. Cooperation. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided, to divide automobile insurance policies, and to cooperate in every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is fully satisfied.

32. Attorney Fees. Both parties shall pay their own attorney's fees in this matter.

33. Fair Settlement Disclosure. Both parties disclose that the terms herein are fair and reasonable and that they agree to the terms voluntarily and of his or her own free will, and that he or she does so free from any undue influence, threat, or duress.
